Some are beginning their high school

years with anticipation . . .

For the first time in the history of Deer Park High School, the student body was divided into two campuses. Through the combined efforts of all, the school remains united with the spirit and pride of accomplishments.

Despite the split campus, the school as a whole became involved in activities. On Color Day, students and faculty came attired in maroon and gold in order to display their support of the football team. To remain one strong, unified school, the student body and faculty must continue to work together.

Activities unify split campuses

Even though Deer Park High School is divided into two campuses, involvement in different clubs, athletic events, fine arts, and student-faculty relationships has contributed to a unified spirit.

Duties of the Escorts and cheerleaders include baking cakes for the teams, conducting pep rallies, decorating the halls, and creating other spirit builders.

Senior Escort Debbi Gilbertson assists juniors Roni Clark and Sharon Raney in removing one of the posters which decorate the halls during the footba l season.

The International Christmas Party requires the combined efforts of all language clubs from both campuses in order to be a success. After the entertainment, sophomore David Benfer and senior Carl Kole rearrange the tables.

Seniors Pam Leonard and Kelle Wooster lead Deer supporters in the outdoor pep rally on Thursday before the Homecoming game.

Fifty try out for cast of October performance

In spite of the campuses being split, more people than ever before tried out for the sixth annual National Thespian Society fall production, "Flowers for Algernon," Oct. 24, 26. Over 50 people interested in having parts turned out for tryouts. Rehearsals were held at night in the Gaines Mason Auditorium instead of after school in order to accommodate the students at both campuses.

The plot consists of the protagonist, Charlie Gordon, a retarded, middled-aged man, and the attempt by Dr. Strauss and Dr. Nemur to increase his level of intelligence.

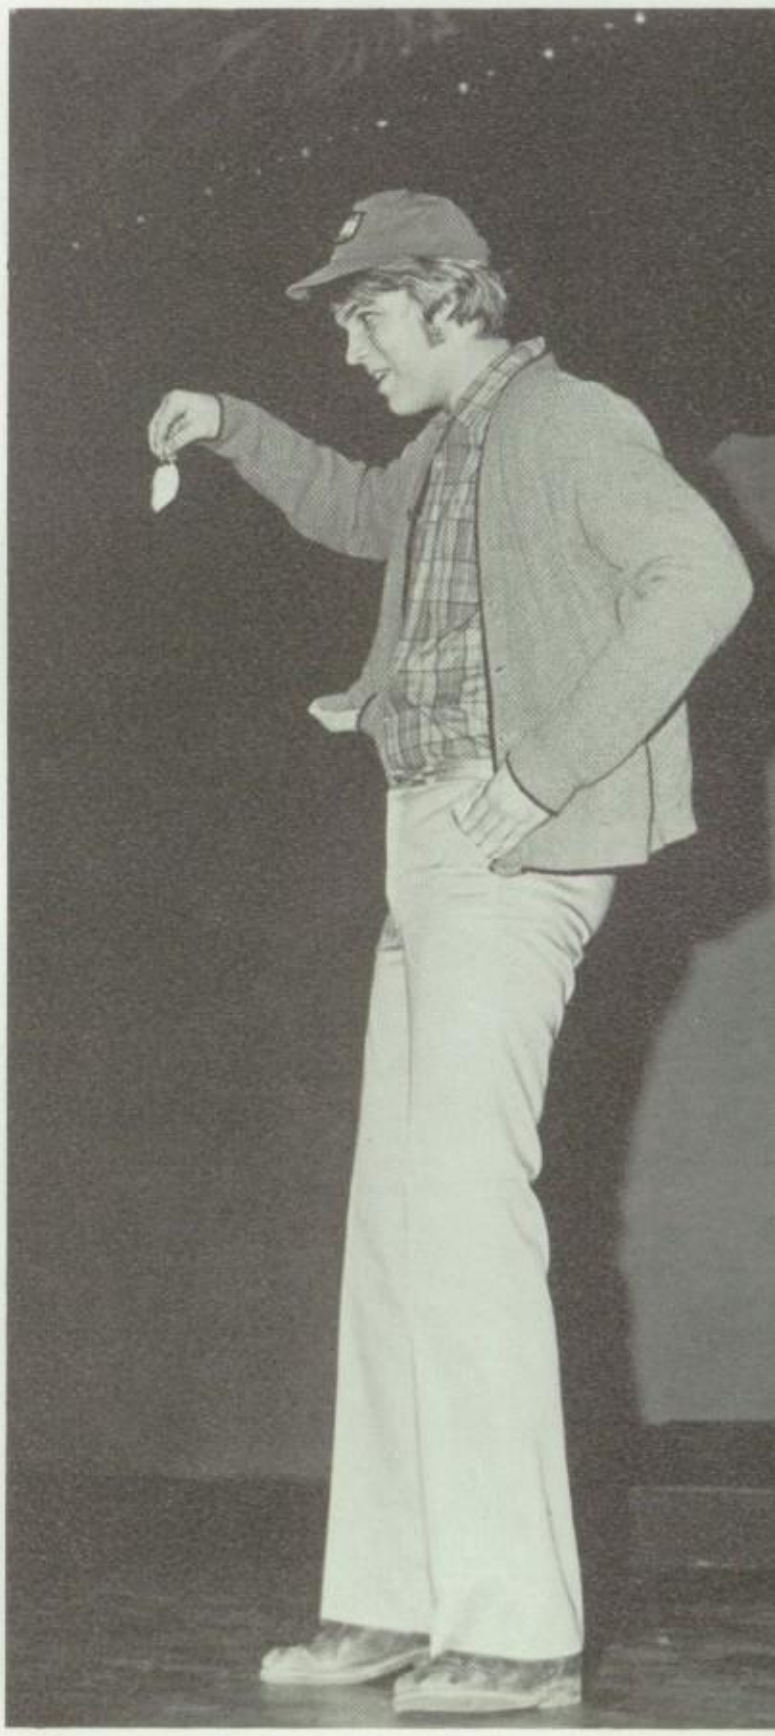
Dr. Nemur explains to Charlie, Mark Lewis, the purpose of his progress reports as freshman Diana Rushing, the nurse, and Burt, sophomore Jon Nettles, wait for further instructions.



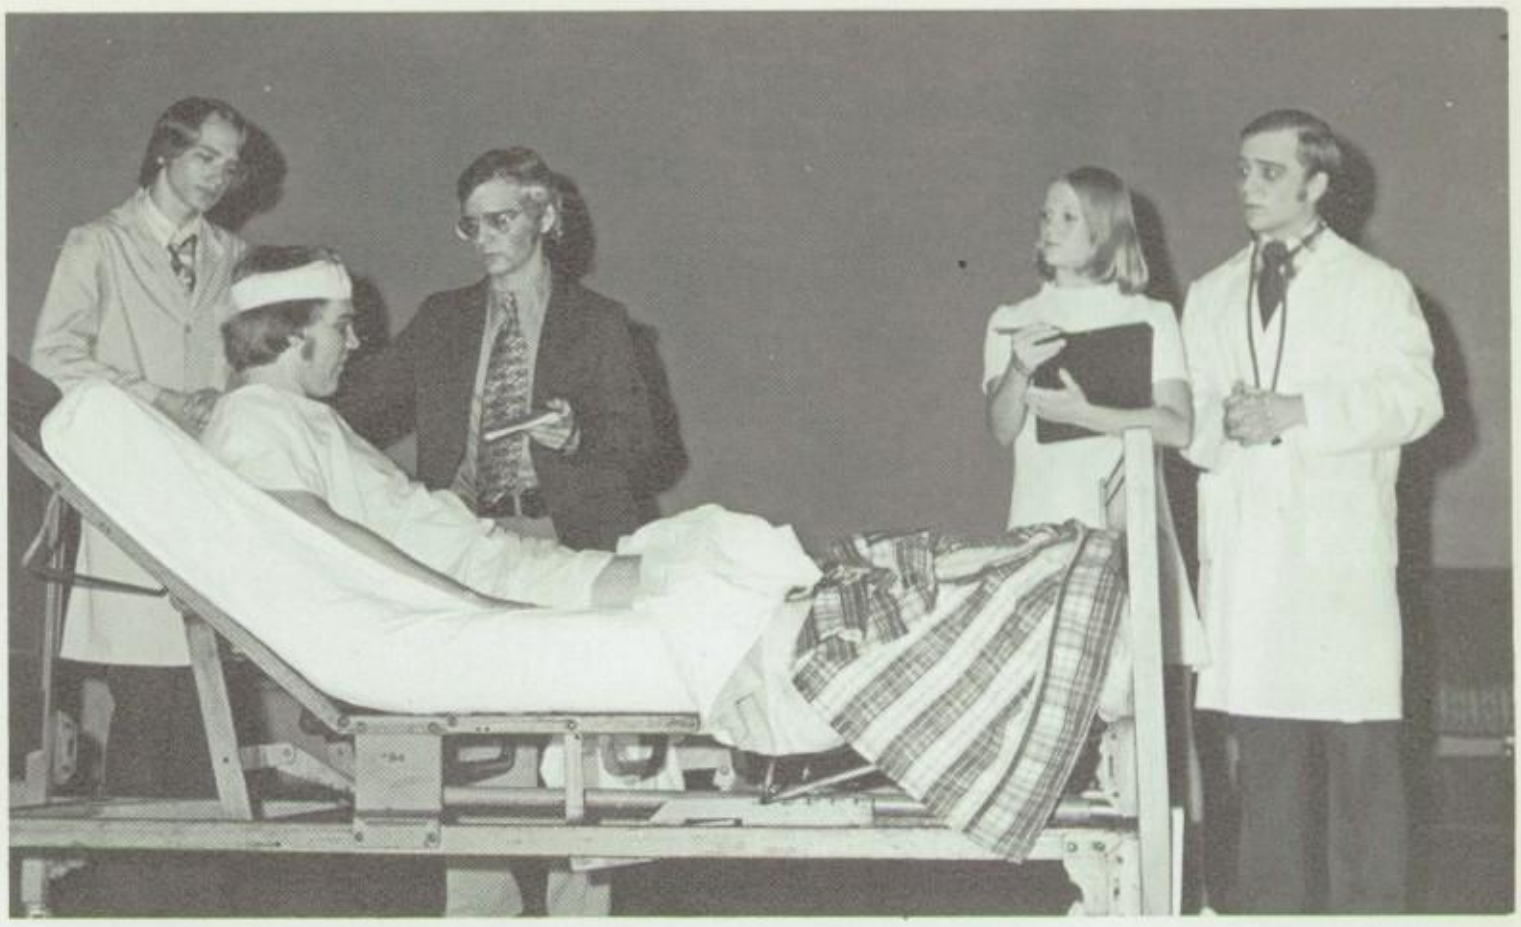
Sophomores Rick Lang and Kevin Bailey prepare a portion of the set for the coming performance, "Flowers For Algernon."

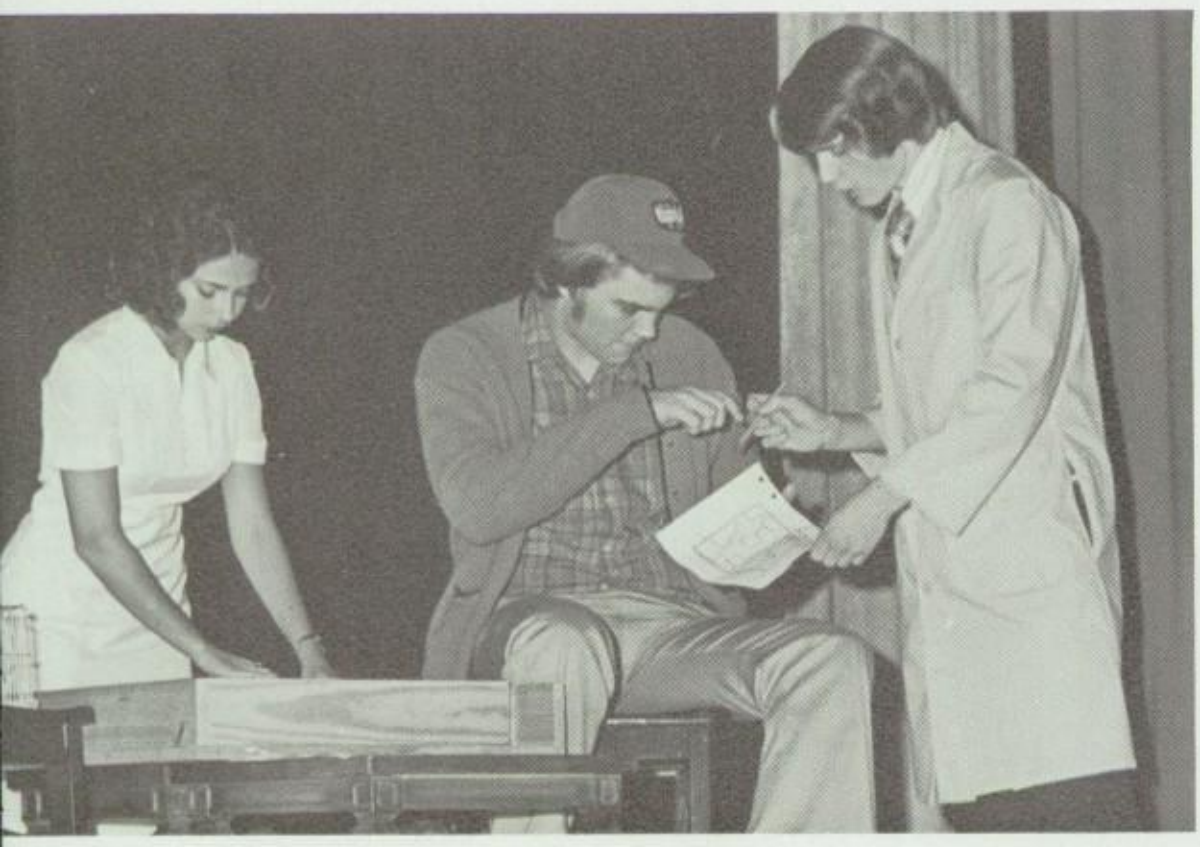
Senior Mark Lewis, as Charlie, explains the luck of his rabbit's foot.

Burt, played by sophomore Jon Nettles, explains to Charlie, portrayed by senior Mark Lewis, as junior Laurie Miller, the nurse, prepares Algernon for the test.

Mrs. Donner, played by senior Sherry Wilson, Charlie's employer, explains why he can't work at the shop anymore.

Portraying Child Norma, freshman Kelly McLennan asks her mother, senior Debbie Niblack, if she can have a dog after Teenage Charlie, freshman Joe Carpenter, was told by his father, sophomore Mike Delaney, he couldn't have one.





Thespians feature annual production

In this recollection of Charlie's childhood, freshman Kelly McLennan, playing Child Norma, Charlie's sister, argues with her father, played by sophomore Mike Delaney, in the Thespian fall presentation of "Flowers for Algernon."

Sophomore Mike Delaney as Mr. Gordon, is unknowingly visited at his barber shop by his son Charlie Gordon, portrayed by senior Mark Lewis.

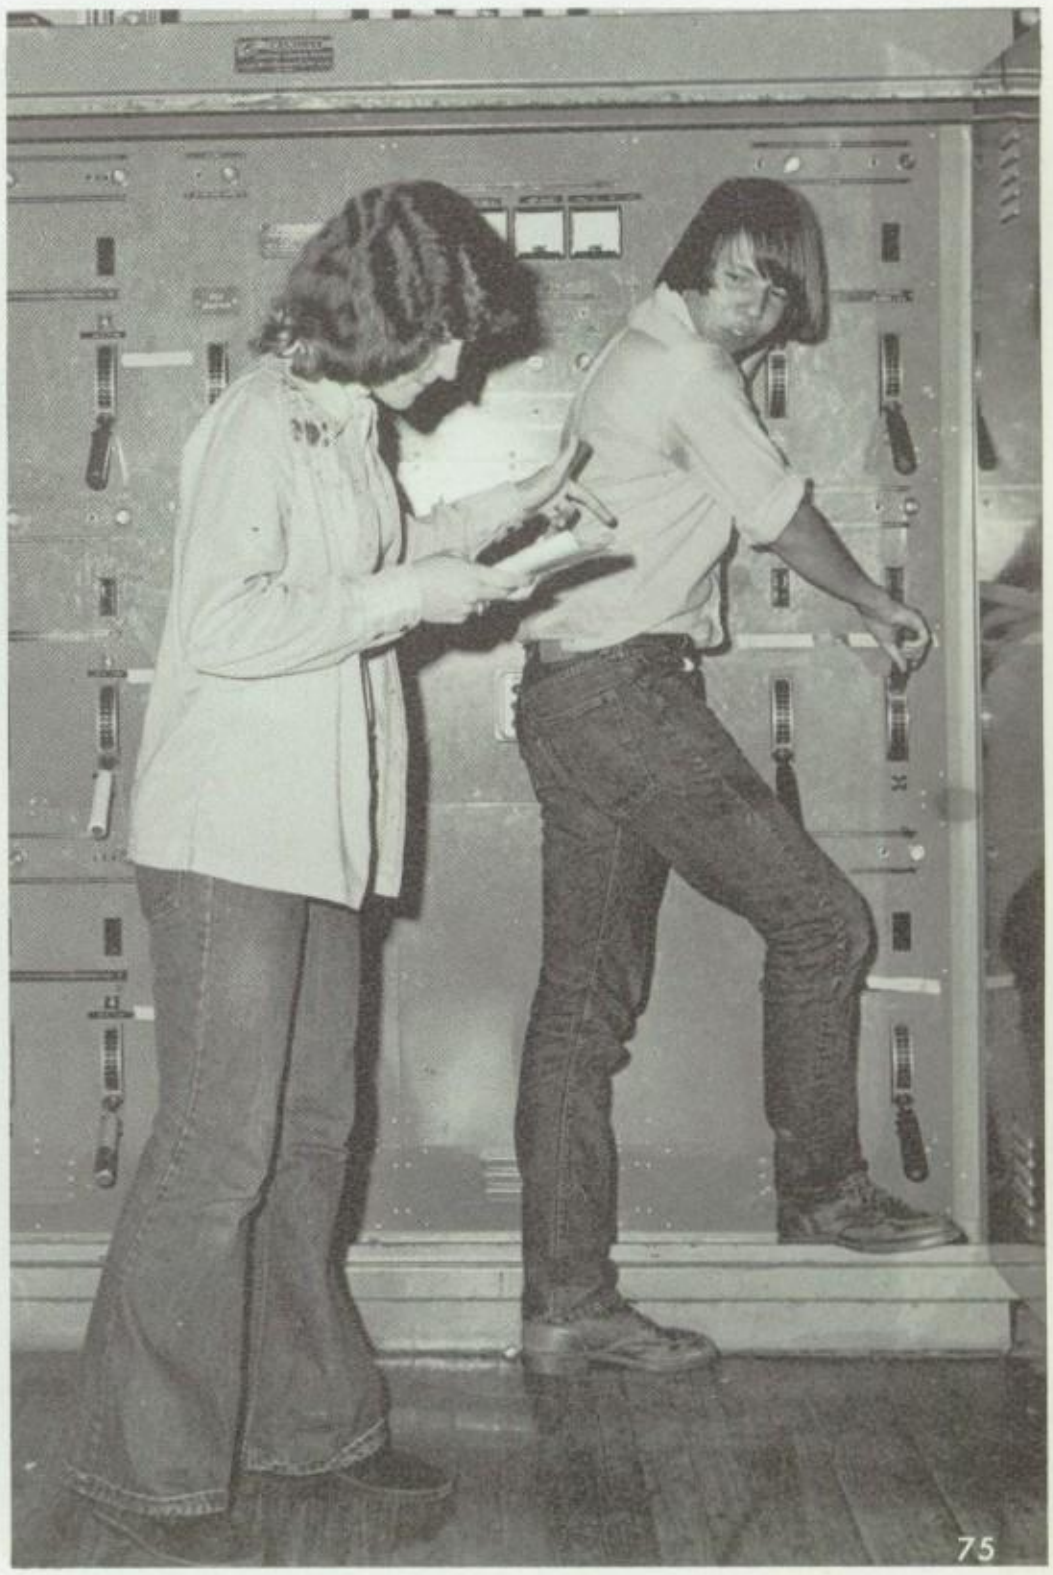
While attending an outdoor concert, Charlie and Miss Kinnian, junior Denise Tittle, discuss Charlie's rapid intellectual development.

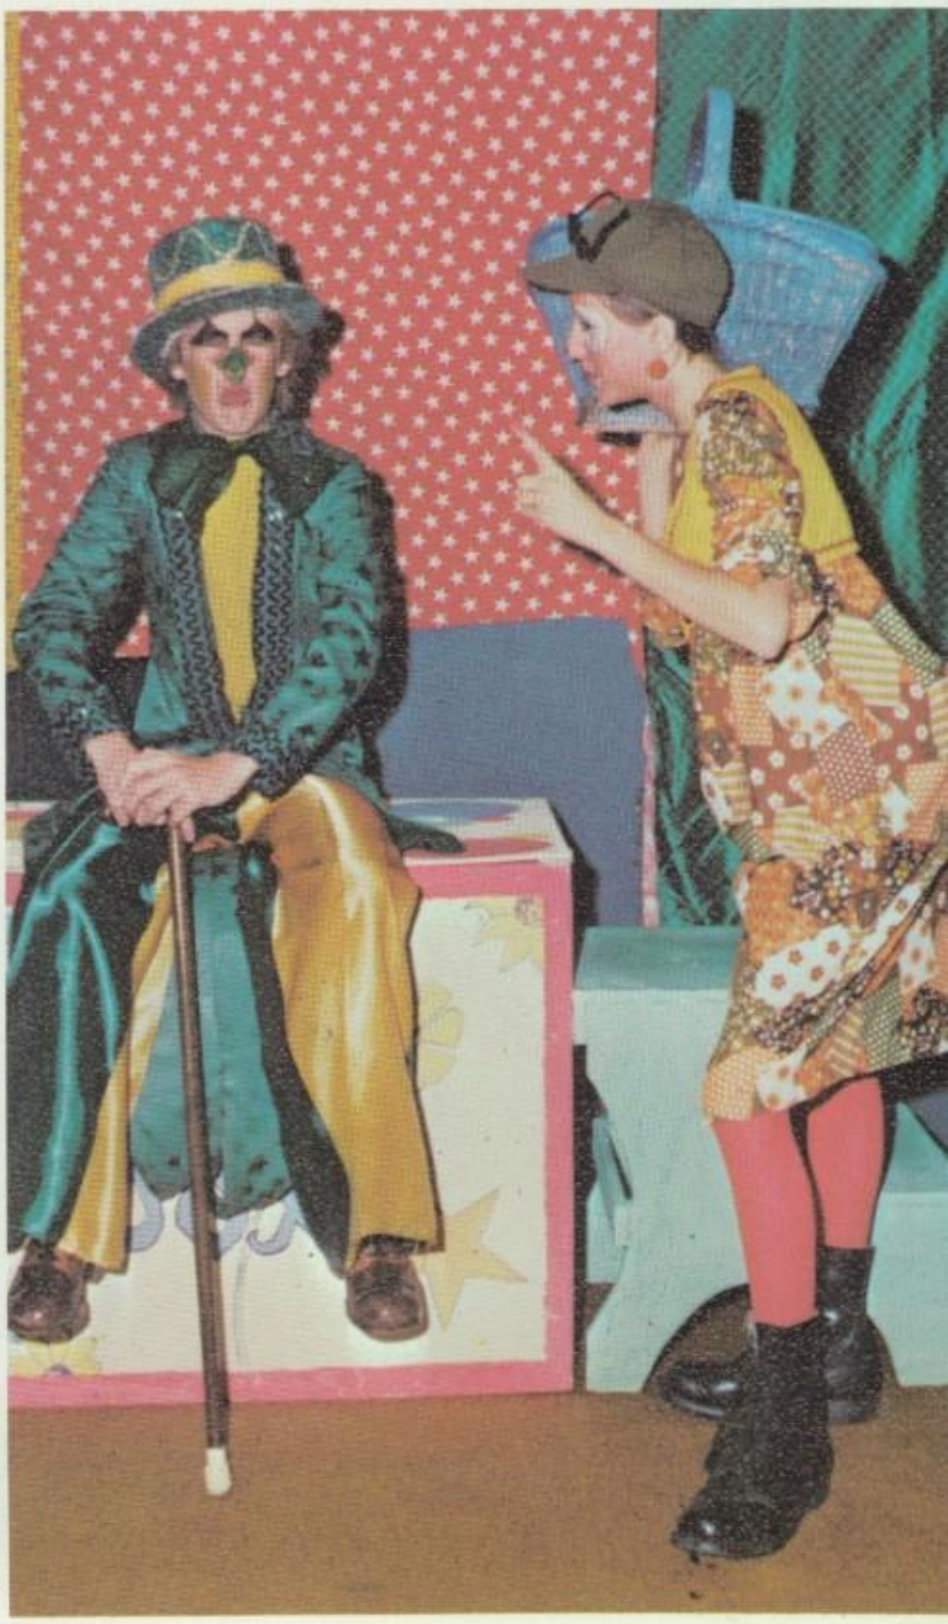
Alice Kinnian and Charlie Gordon, depicted by junior Denise Tittle and senior Mark Lewis, argue about attending a convention for which Alice feels is beyond her capabilities.

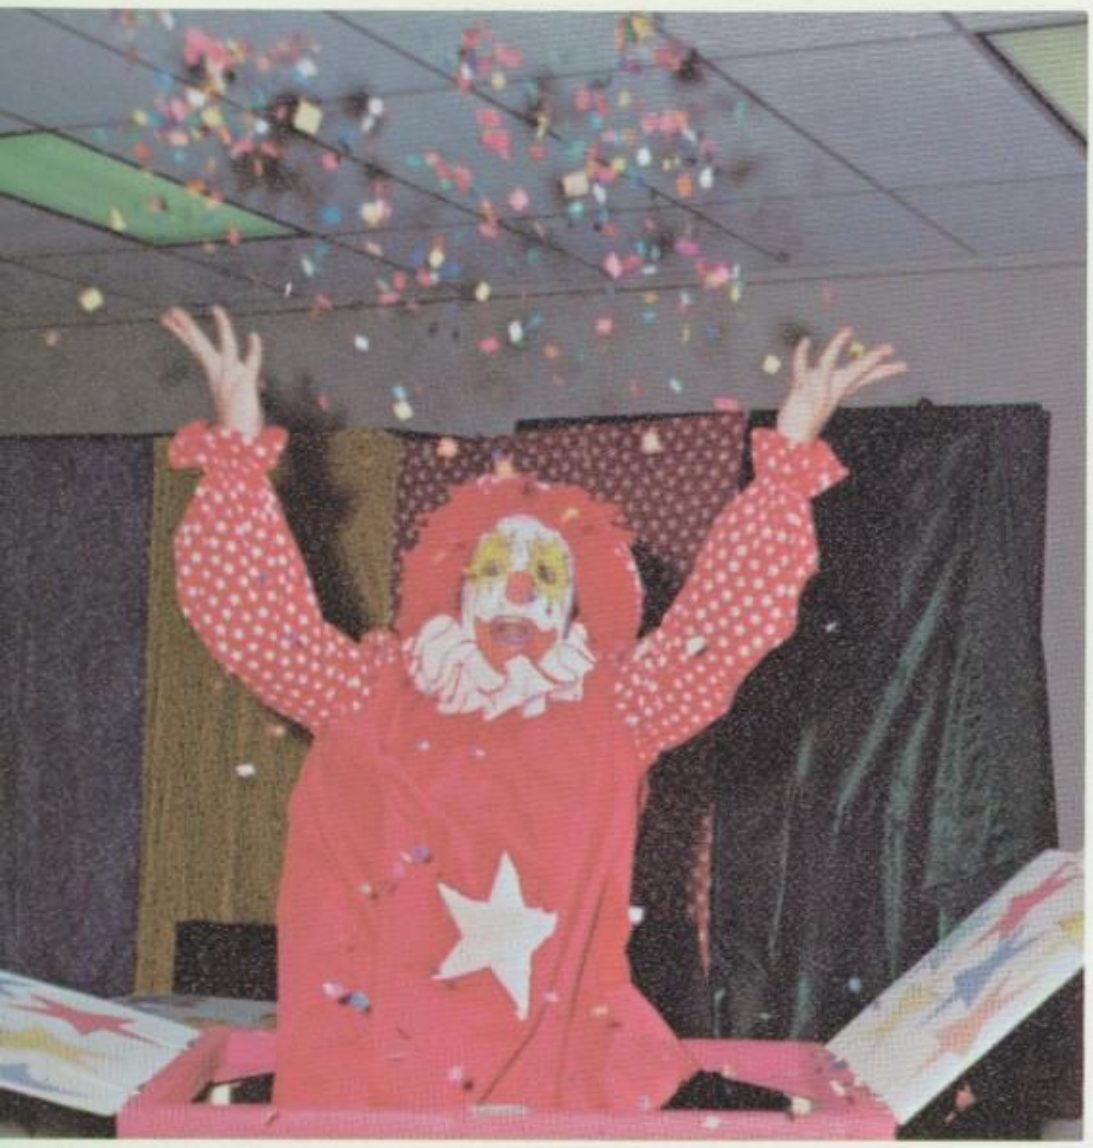
Junior Denise Tittle readies herself for the next scene in the play.

Mrs. Donner and Mrs. Feldman, played by seniors Sherry Wilson and Dianne Skarke, have a disagreement over merchandise bought at the Donner Bakery.

Thespian members Bob Mabry, sophomore, and Pam Smith, senior, co-workers on the backstage crew, coordinate the lighting.







Competitive cast features unity

Senior Debbie Niblack and junior Denise Tittle comfort Wilfred M. Wolf, senior Jim Lewis, in the belief that he is an old grandmother sheep.

Senior Lance Lichnerowicz as Horace Hopper gloats over having won the race between Thadeus Tortoise and himself.

Portraying the part of Jack, of Jack-in-the-Box fame, is sophomore Rusty Holmes.

Mod Mouse, junior Denise Tittle attempts to persuade Beth Sherbrook, senior, as Matilda Mouse, to join her in the life of the city.

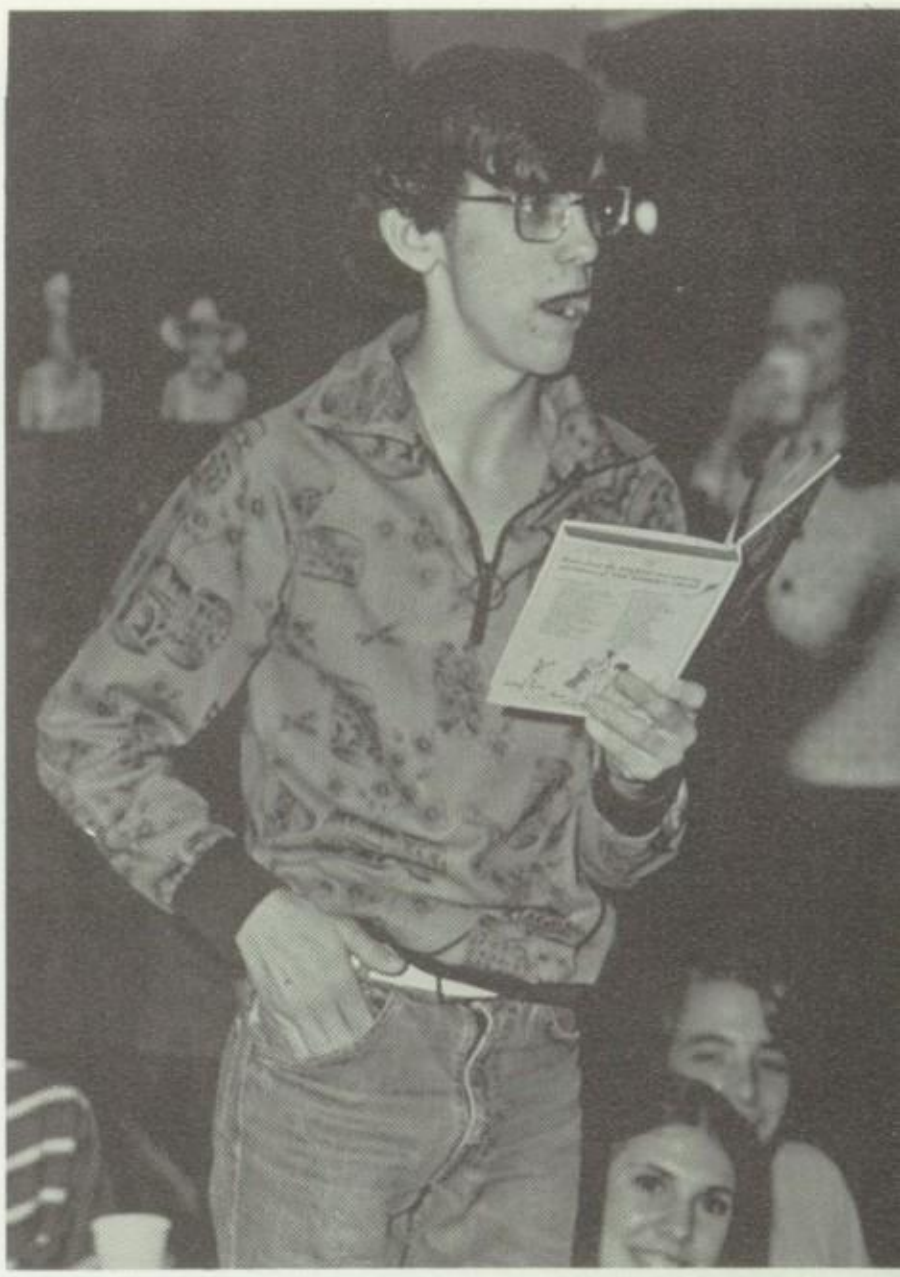
Gina Taylor, sophomore, as Miss Ant, warns Mr. Grasshopper, freshman Joe Carpenter, that winter is approaching.

Thadeus T. Tortoise, sophomore Jon Nettles, staggers along in an attempt to win the race between himself and Horace Hopper.

The three sheep, enacted by sophomore Sheree Kemp, junior Denise Tittle and senior Debbie Niblack discuss the assets of being "glamour sheep."

Speech, drama enact 'Peanuts and the Gang'

On Dec. 20, students of drama combined to present "A Charlie Brown Christmas" during the Christmas assembly. With the yuletide holidays came a party for Thespian members held at the home of Mrs. Charlene Poole, speech instructor. Throughout the year drama students attended local productions of musical, comedy and dramatical plays. Highlighting the season, members attended opening night productions at the Alley Theatre.



Ray Freeman, sophomore, reads the nursery rhyme book he received as a white elephant gift at the NFL party.

Freshman Tim Kirby, juniors Craig Adams, Sherry Swinney, and sophomore Shereé Kemp get a kick out of the rubber gorilla Sherry got as a gift.

Acting as "Sally" in the Christmas skit put on by the Speech Department, senior Angela Hurry cries because her friends left her behind.

Sheree grins as she holds up her gag gift as sophomore Jon Nettles looks on.

Lance Lichnerowicz, senior, playing "Charlie Brown" in the Christmas skit, recites his lines to the audience while juniors Meritt Novack as "Lioness" and Laurie Miller as "Snoopy" listen.

Deer staffers work toward unification

Faculty and index editor Vickie Wright, senior, removes an order form from the files.

Covering her mouth in astonishment, junior Robin Van Sickle, senior editor, unwraps her Christmas gag gift as junior Cindy Conley, business manager, shares her surprise.

Junior Rosemary Petrie, typist for the yearbook, stamps photograph labels for staffers to attach to pictures.

Assistant organization editors Cindy Crisp and Alicia Chappell, juniors work together in preparing cutlines for their layout.

Junior Randall Jeter, second year staffer, serves as typist to staff members.

School bowlers form competitive league

Beginning their first year as an organized bowling team, students under the direction of Mrs. Barbara Robinson and Miss Mary Bearden got off to an advantageous start. Practice sessions were held weekly at the Fairlanes Bowling Center in Pasadena. A total of 63 students showed their interest in bowling by taking part in local bowling tournaments.

Junior Janett Claussen and freshman Karen Beard take turns keeping track of the score while other members of the team bowl.

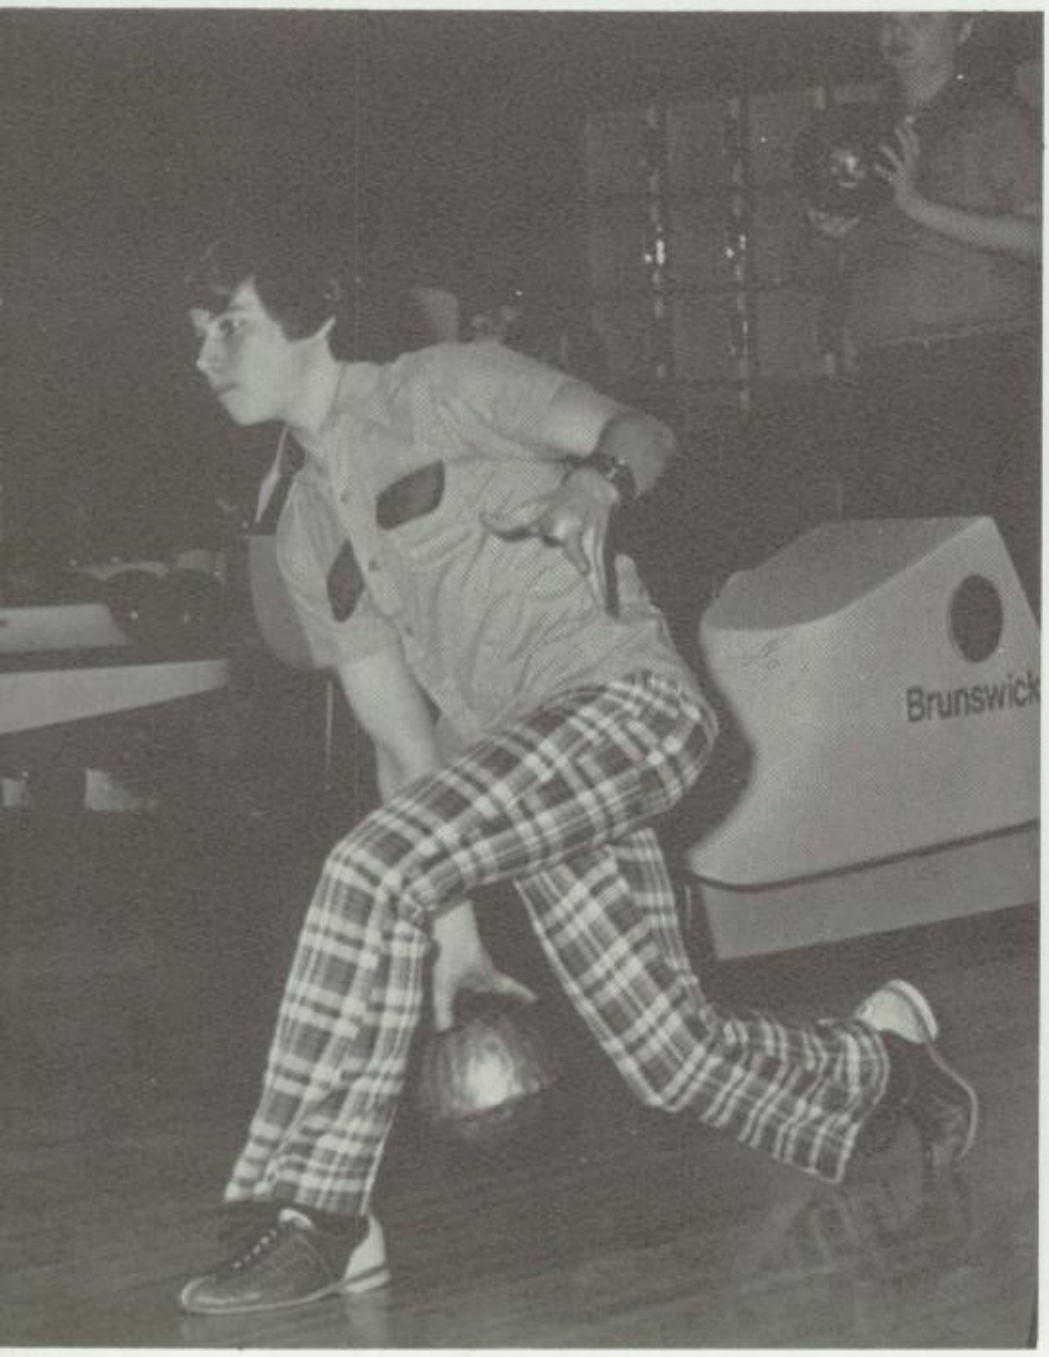
Gliding the ball smoothly yet forcefully down the lane is freshman Linda Hedrick.

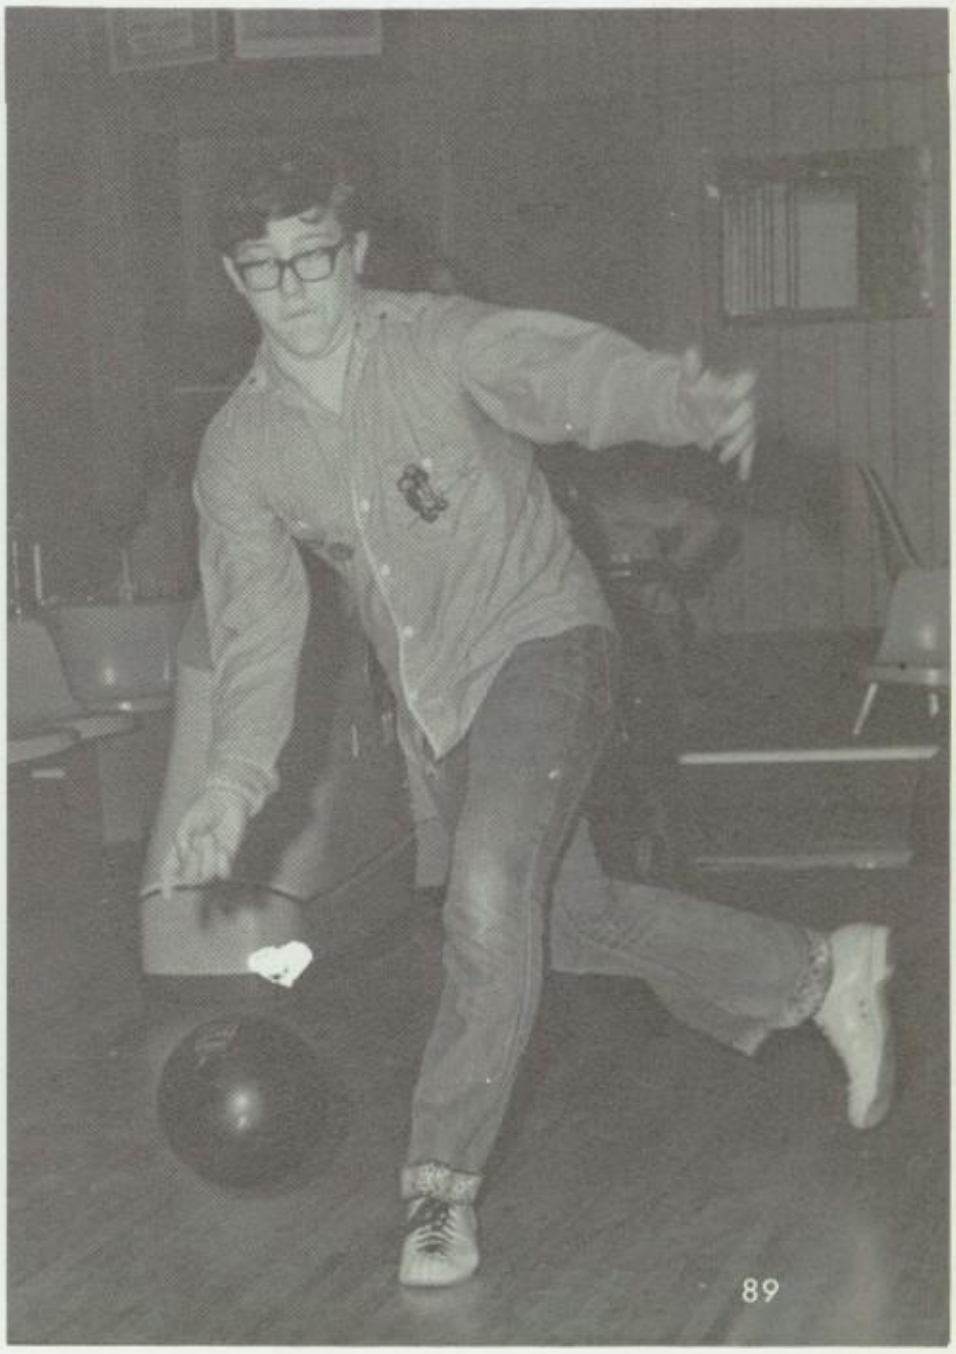
Ronald Sommer, sophomore, proving that correct balance is a necessity for successful bowling, takes his turn.

Sophomore Randy Voltz performs one of the duties of his job as both president and bookkeeper by accurately keeping score.

Along with other members of the Bowling Club, Mike Jones, freshman, practices weekly at the Fairlanes Bowling Center.

Randy Voltz practices on his form in preparation for the approaching tournament.





Bowlers practice on weekly basis

Senior Sandra Tholen works to improve her "81" bowling average at the Tuesday afternoon practice.

Rick Reynolds, sophomore, perfects his techniques after many weeks of practice.

Waiting for the second set of pins, senior Leslie Taylor uses the hand dryer before getting her ball.

Team captain, sophomore Ronnie Meade, stops to watch his partner bowl his frame.

Killing two birds with one stone, senior Tina Fincher, a team captain for the club, sells a senior play ticket to sophomore Tammy Bush.

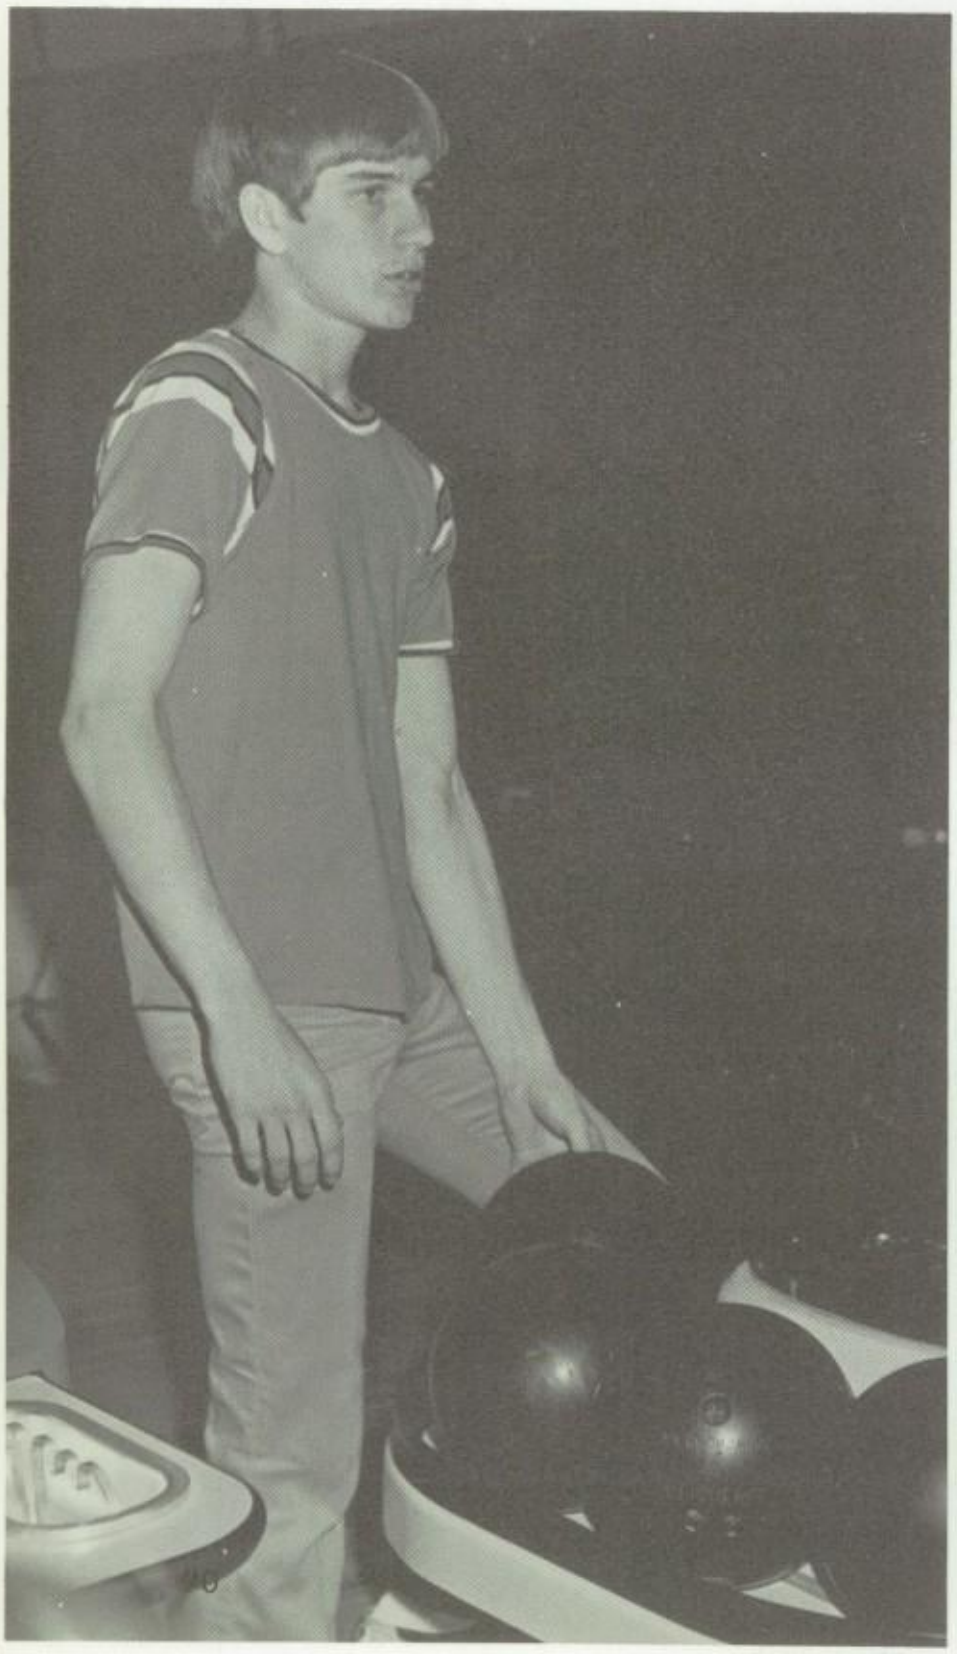
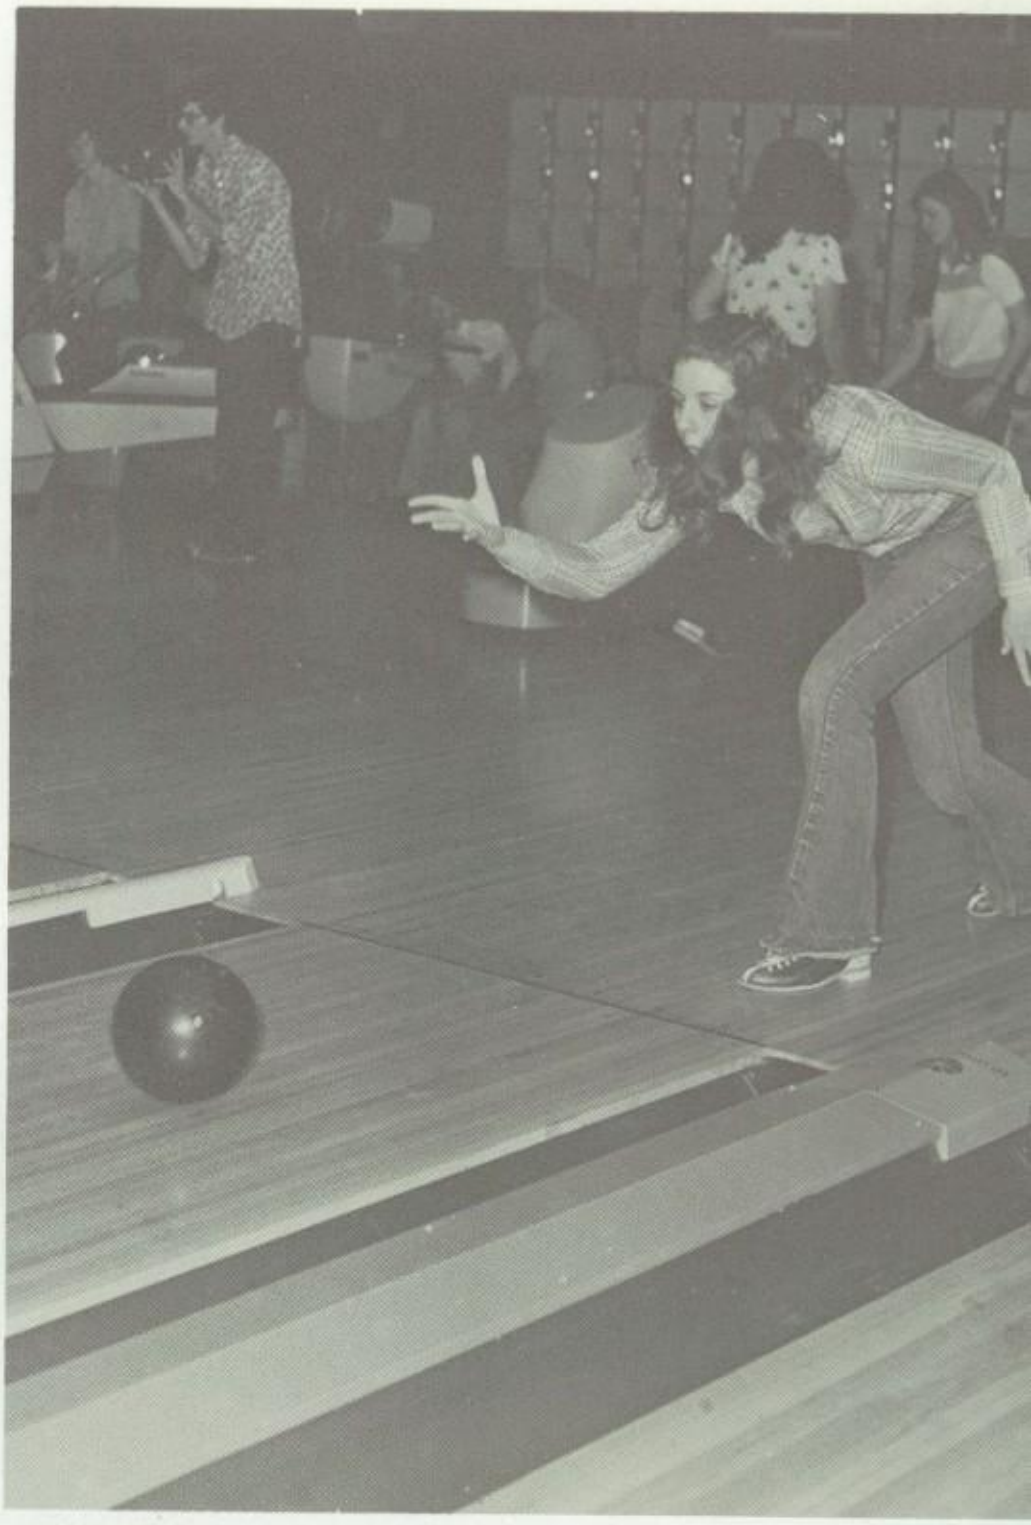
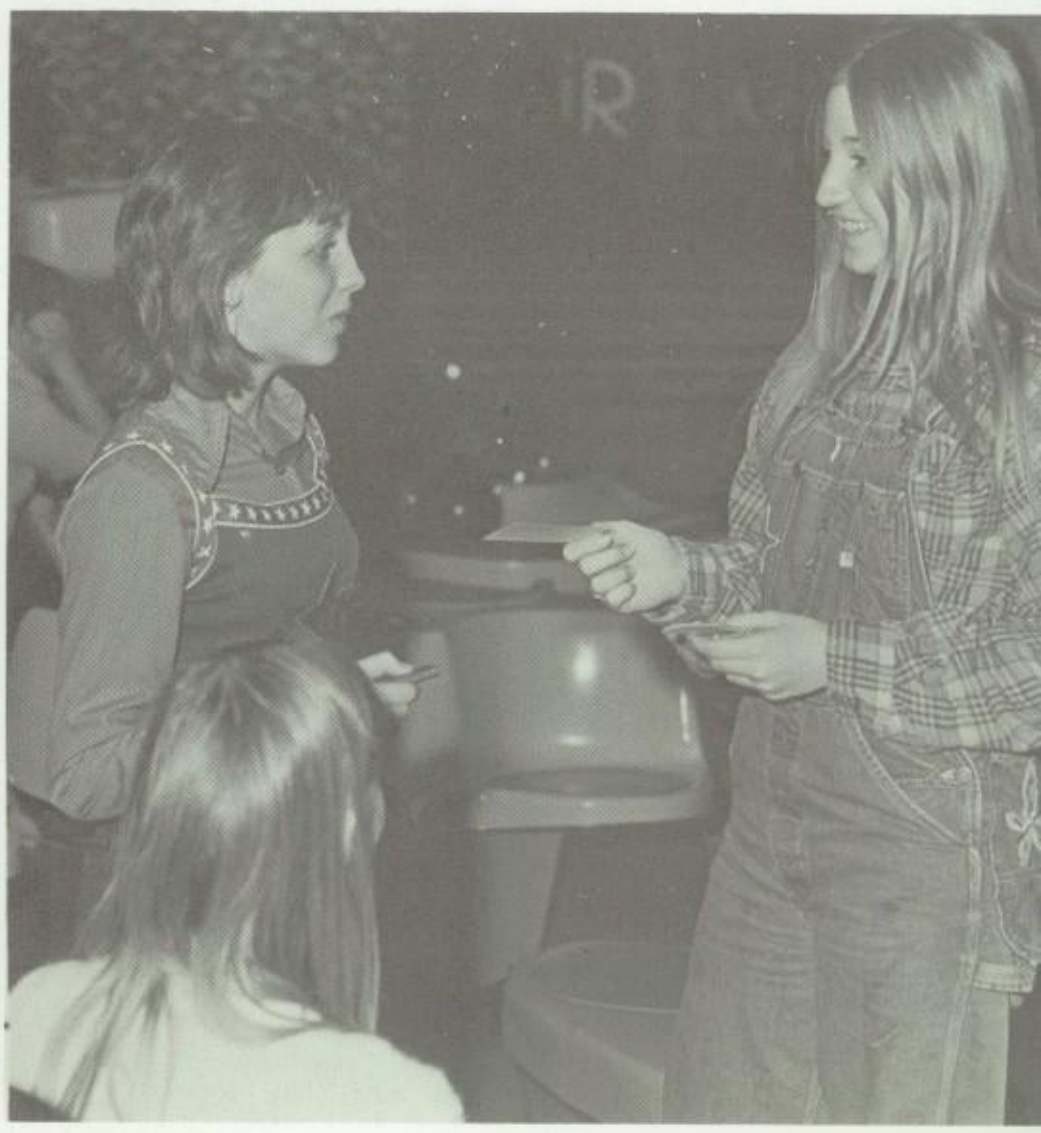
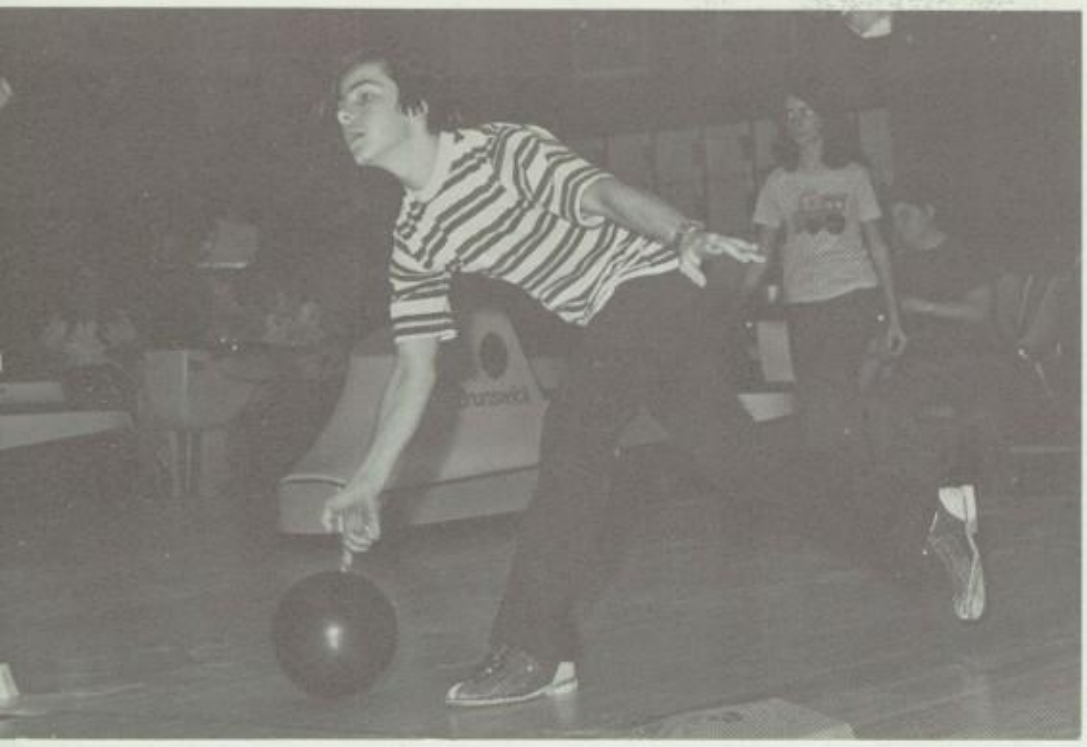
Agility is a prerequisite for bowling as shown by sophomore Brenda Murray.

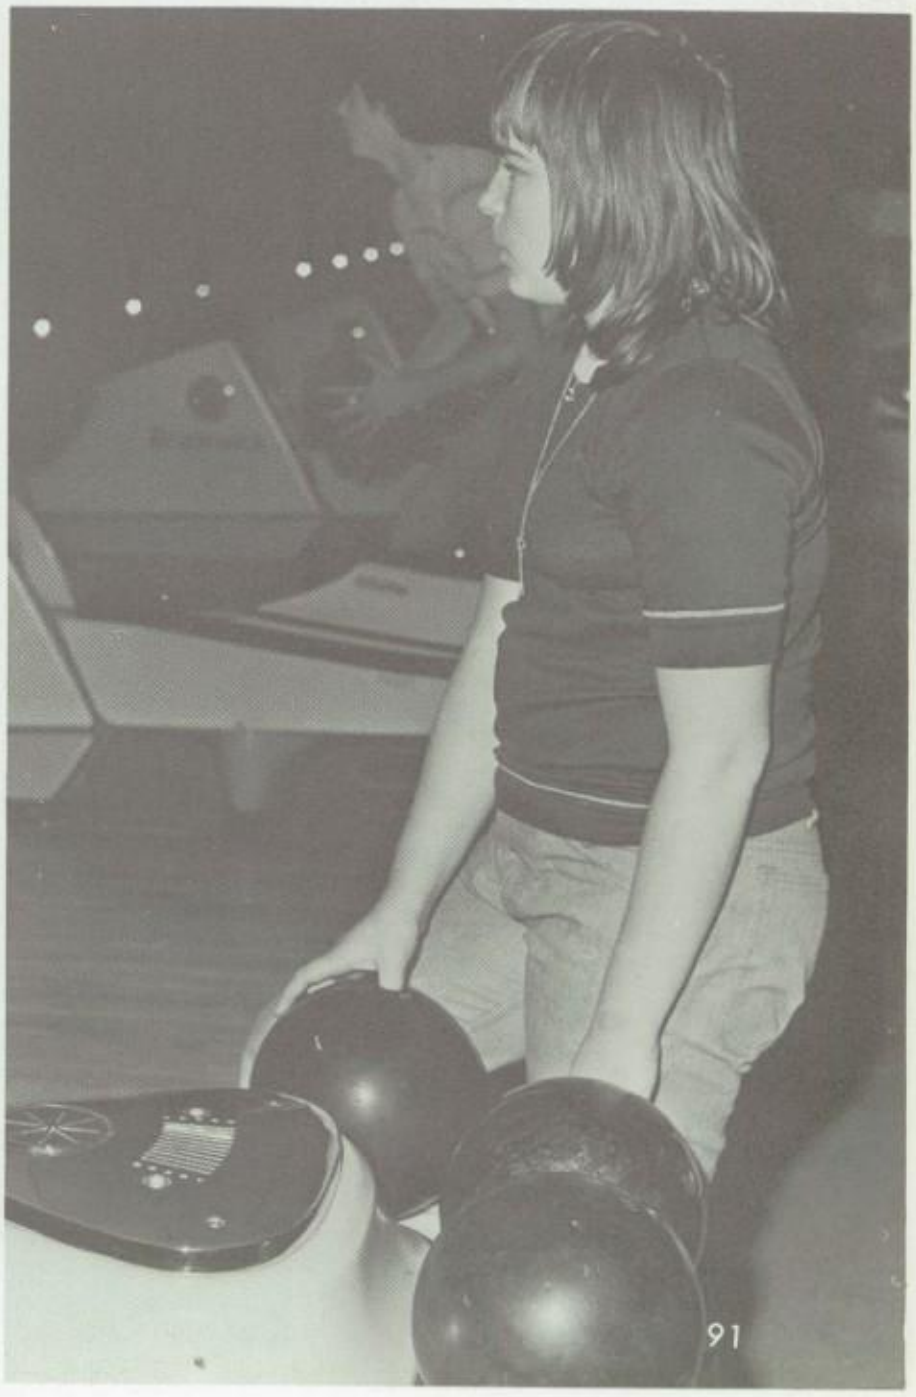
D'anna Swindle, freshman, watches her partner bowl, while she retrieves her ball from the return.

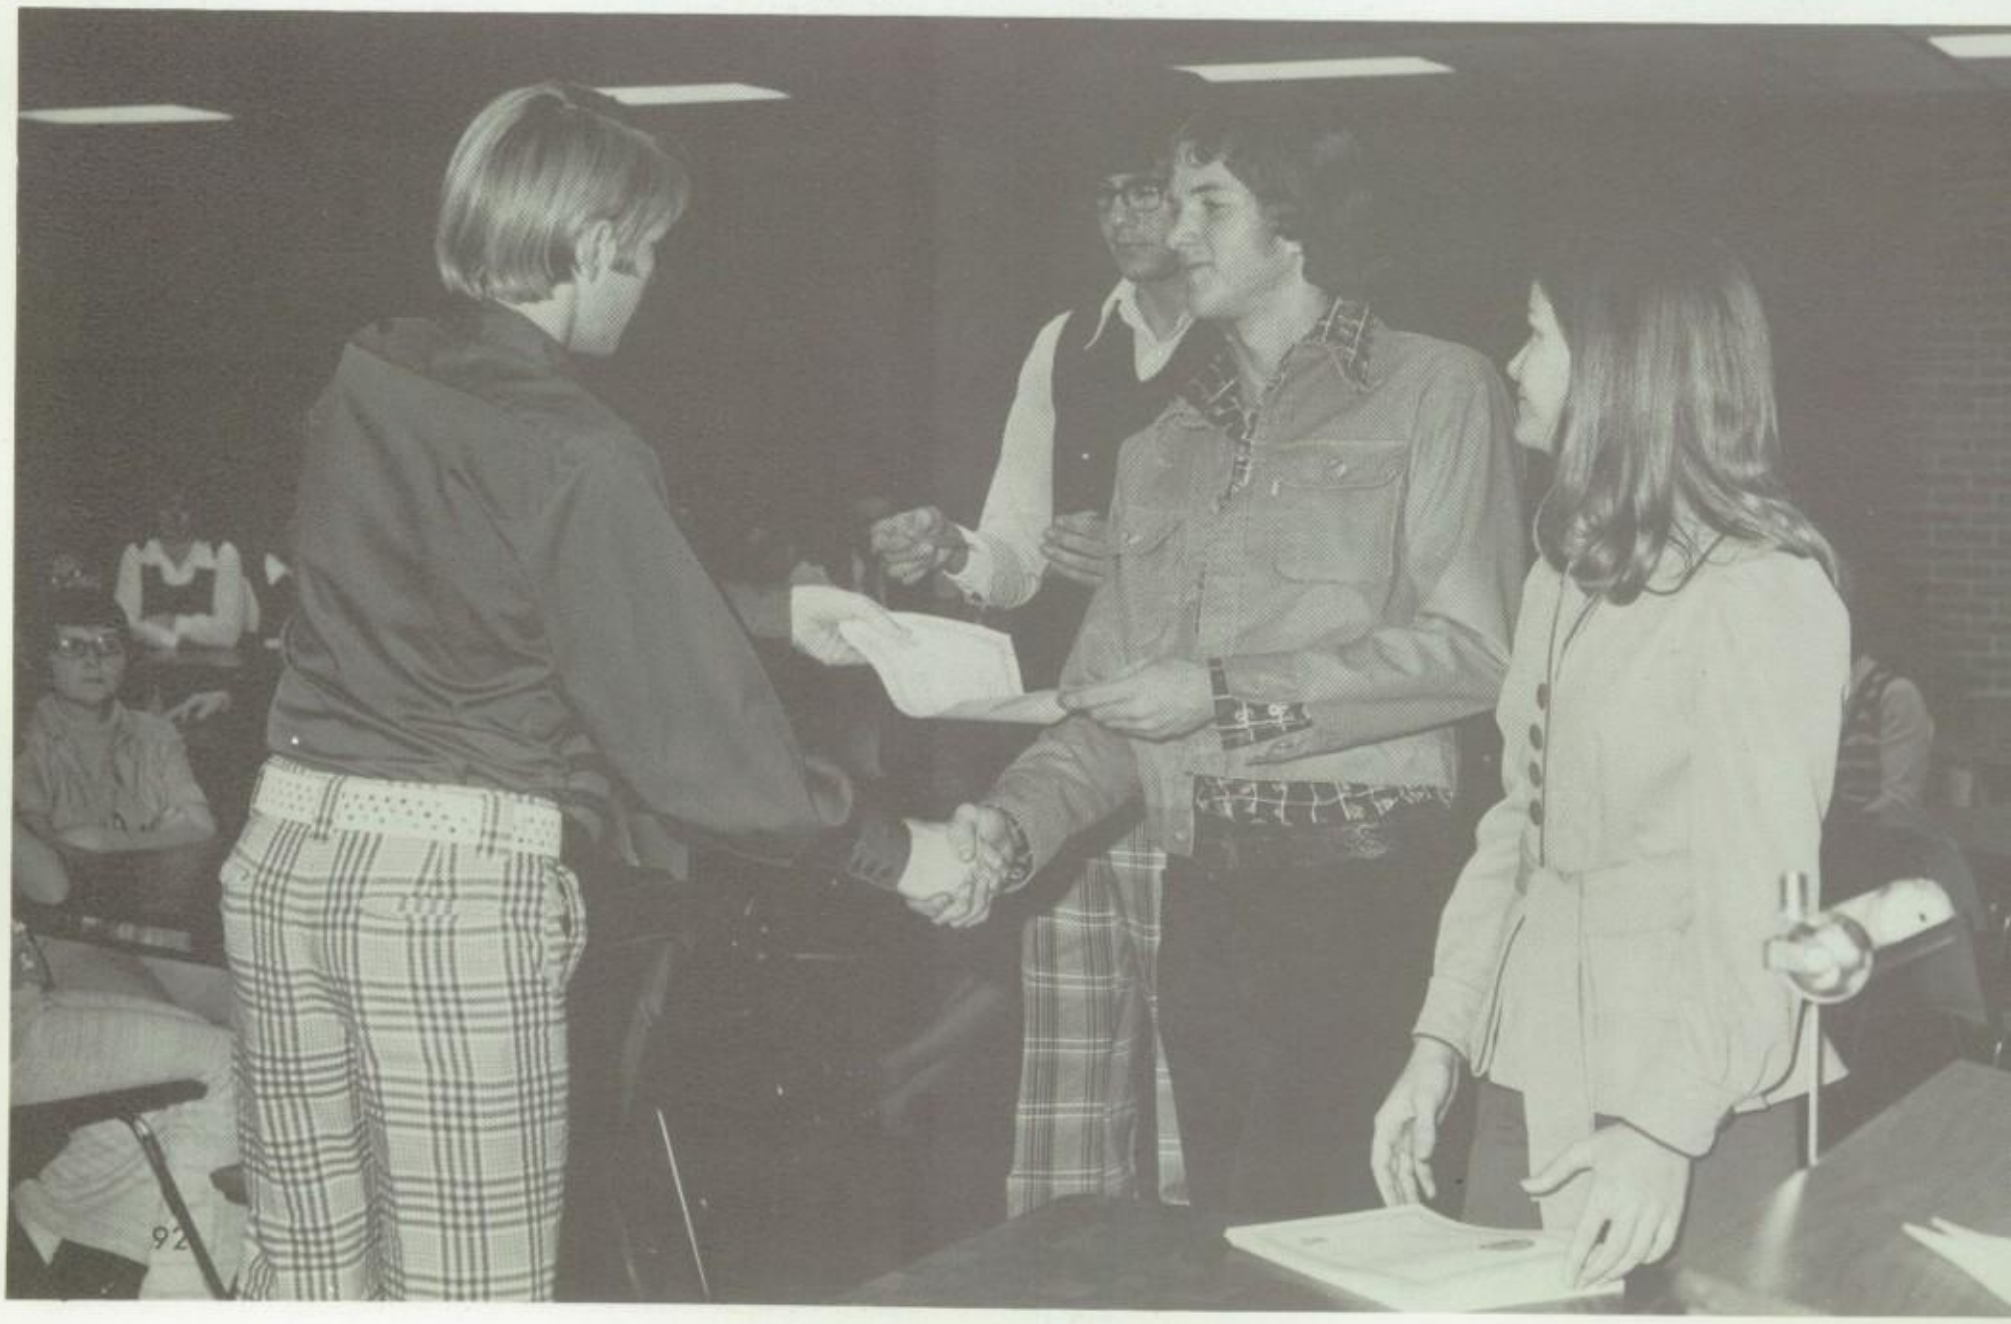


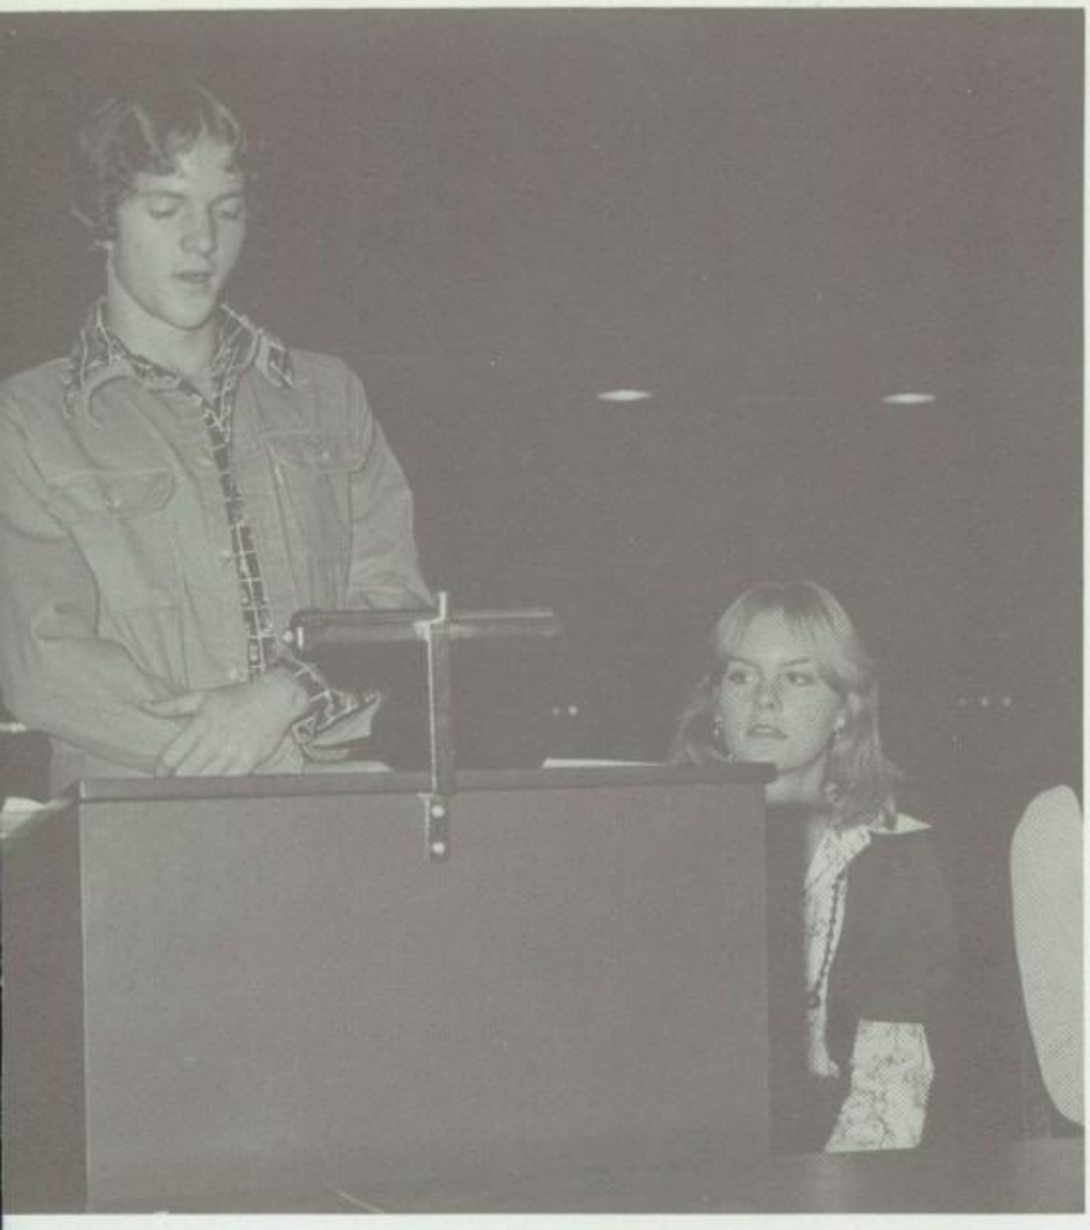












Mathematics Club holds induction

During the meeting held Nov. 12, 48 members were inducted into the Mu Alpha Theta. Serving as officers were Joe Payne, president; Todd Culbertson, vice-president; Karen Ballard, secretary; Leslie Taylor, treasurer; and Debi Milburn, reporter. The club, consisting of a total of 114 members, held a banquet May 5 at Jimmy Walker's Seafood Restaurant.

Junior Kathy Guyse helps herself to some of the cookies served at the Mu Alpha Theta installation.

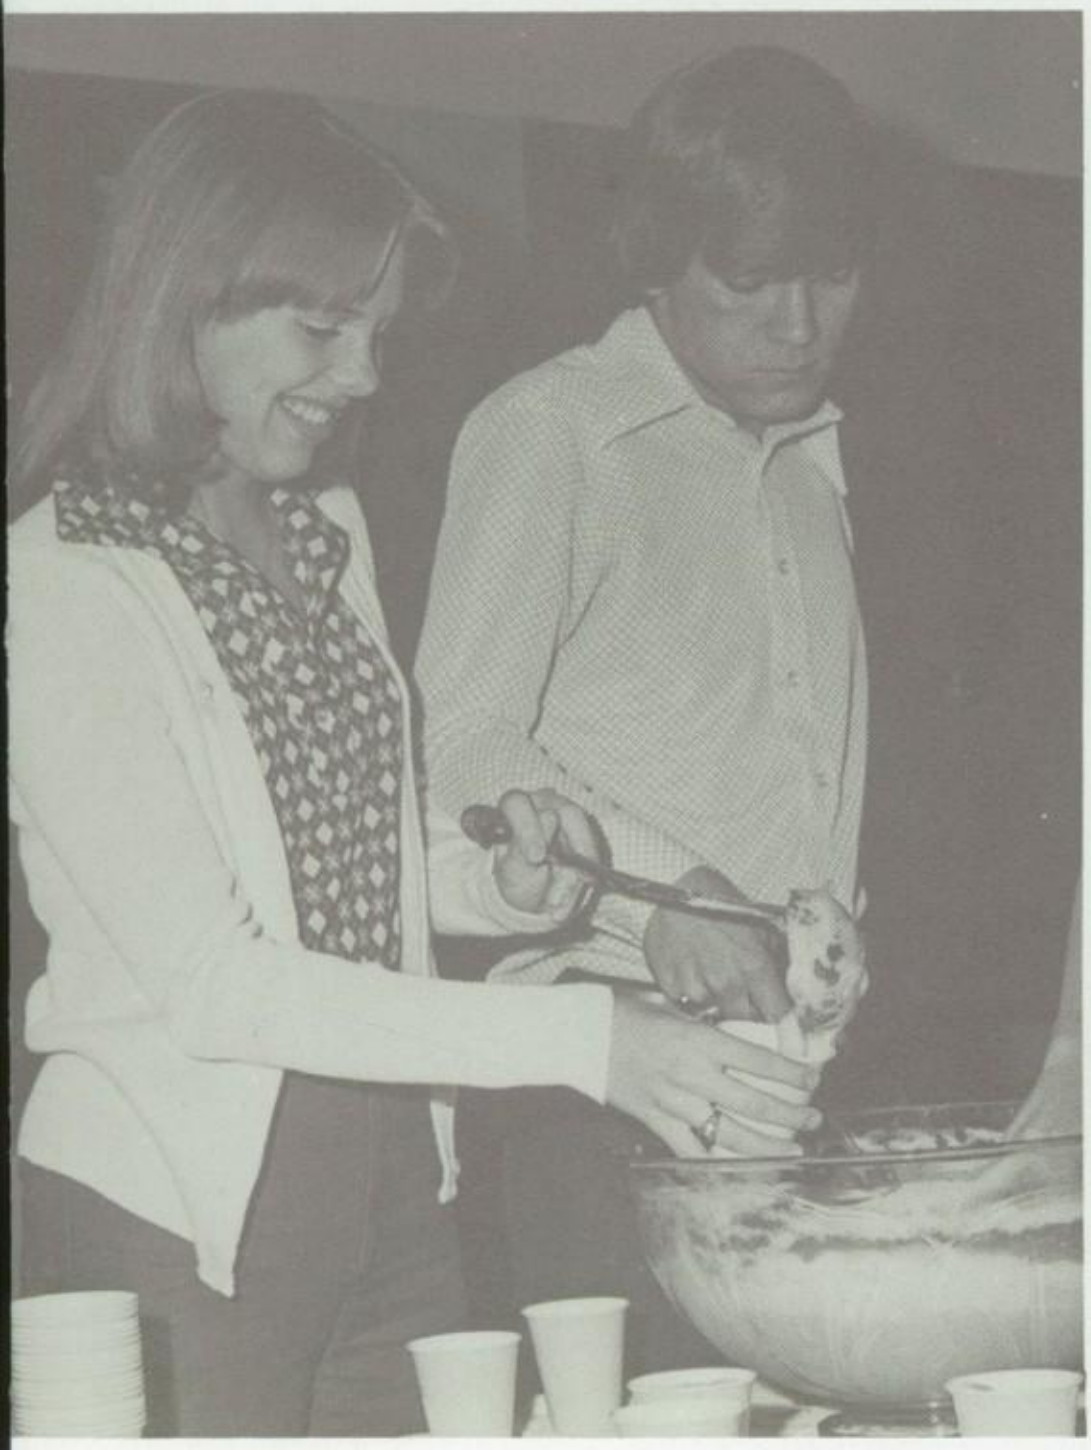
Senior Karen Ballard, secretary, removes a bag of ice to add to the punch.

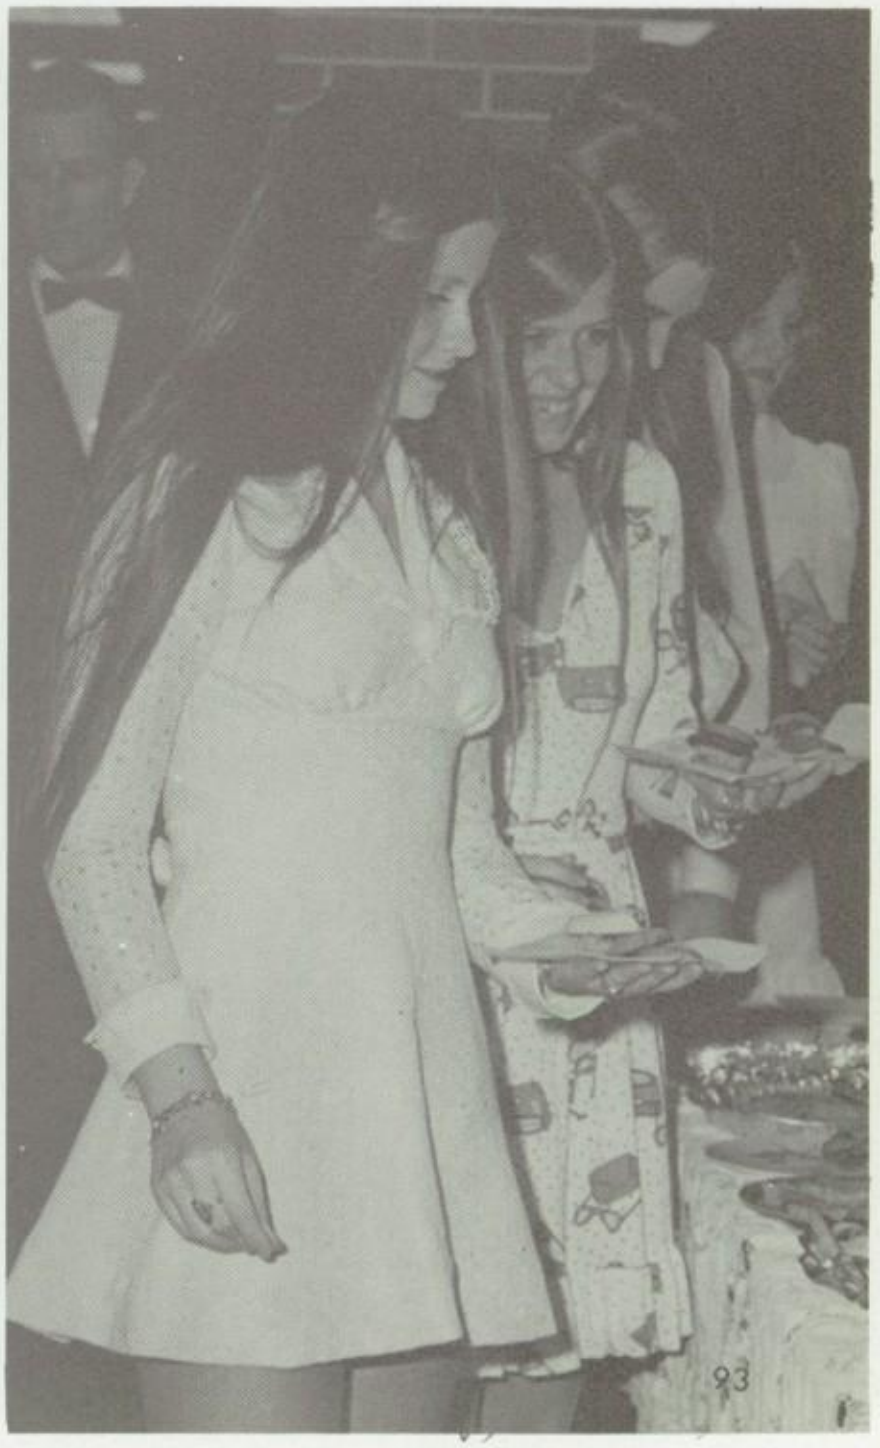
President Joe Payne, senior, addresses the math club members on the purposes of Mu Alpha Theta.

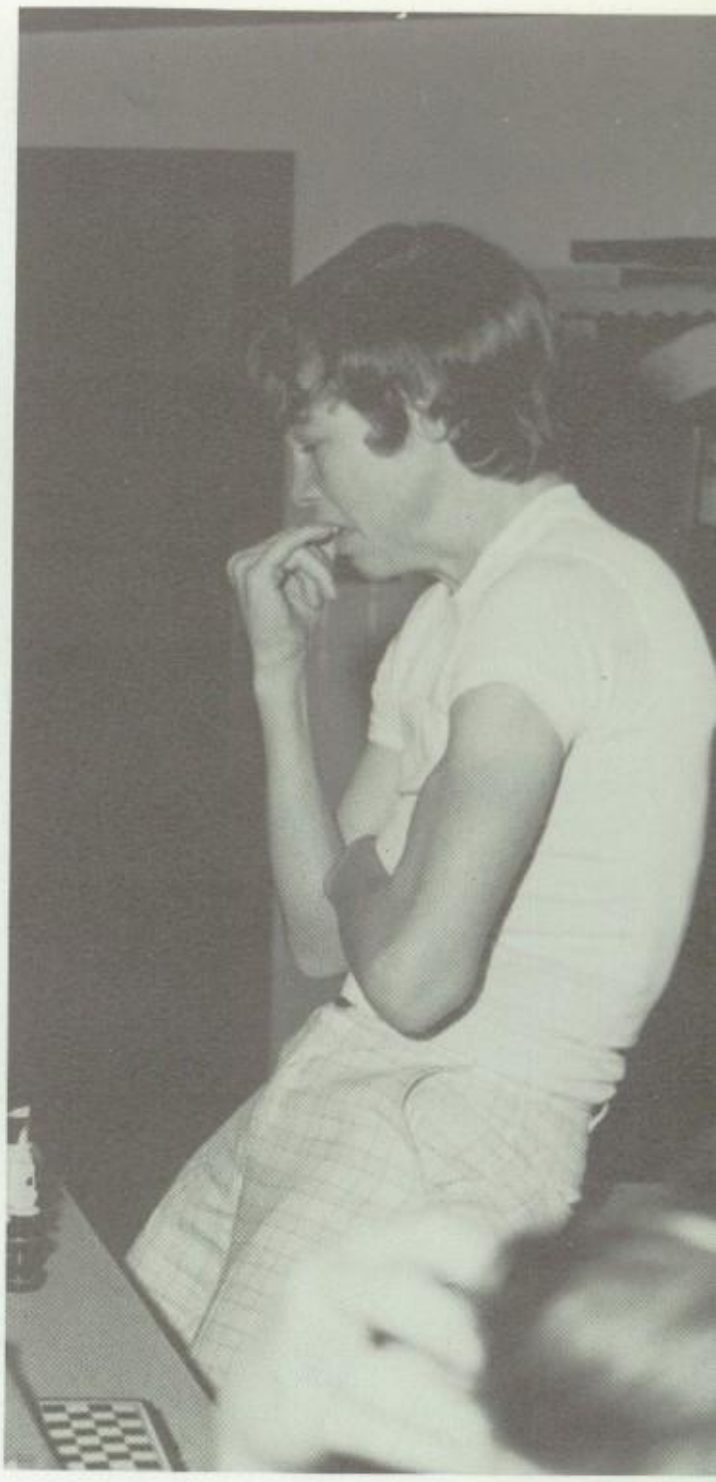
David Baty, junior, receives his certificate and membership card from senior officers Todd Culbertson, Joe Payne and Karen Ballard.

Senior Dianne Skarke serves punch to senior math club member, Henry Krebs.

Following the induction, juniors June Straka and Diane Rose pass through the refreshment line.

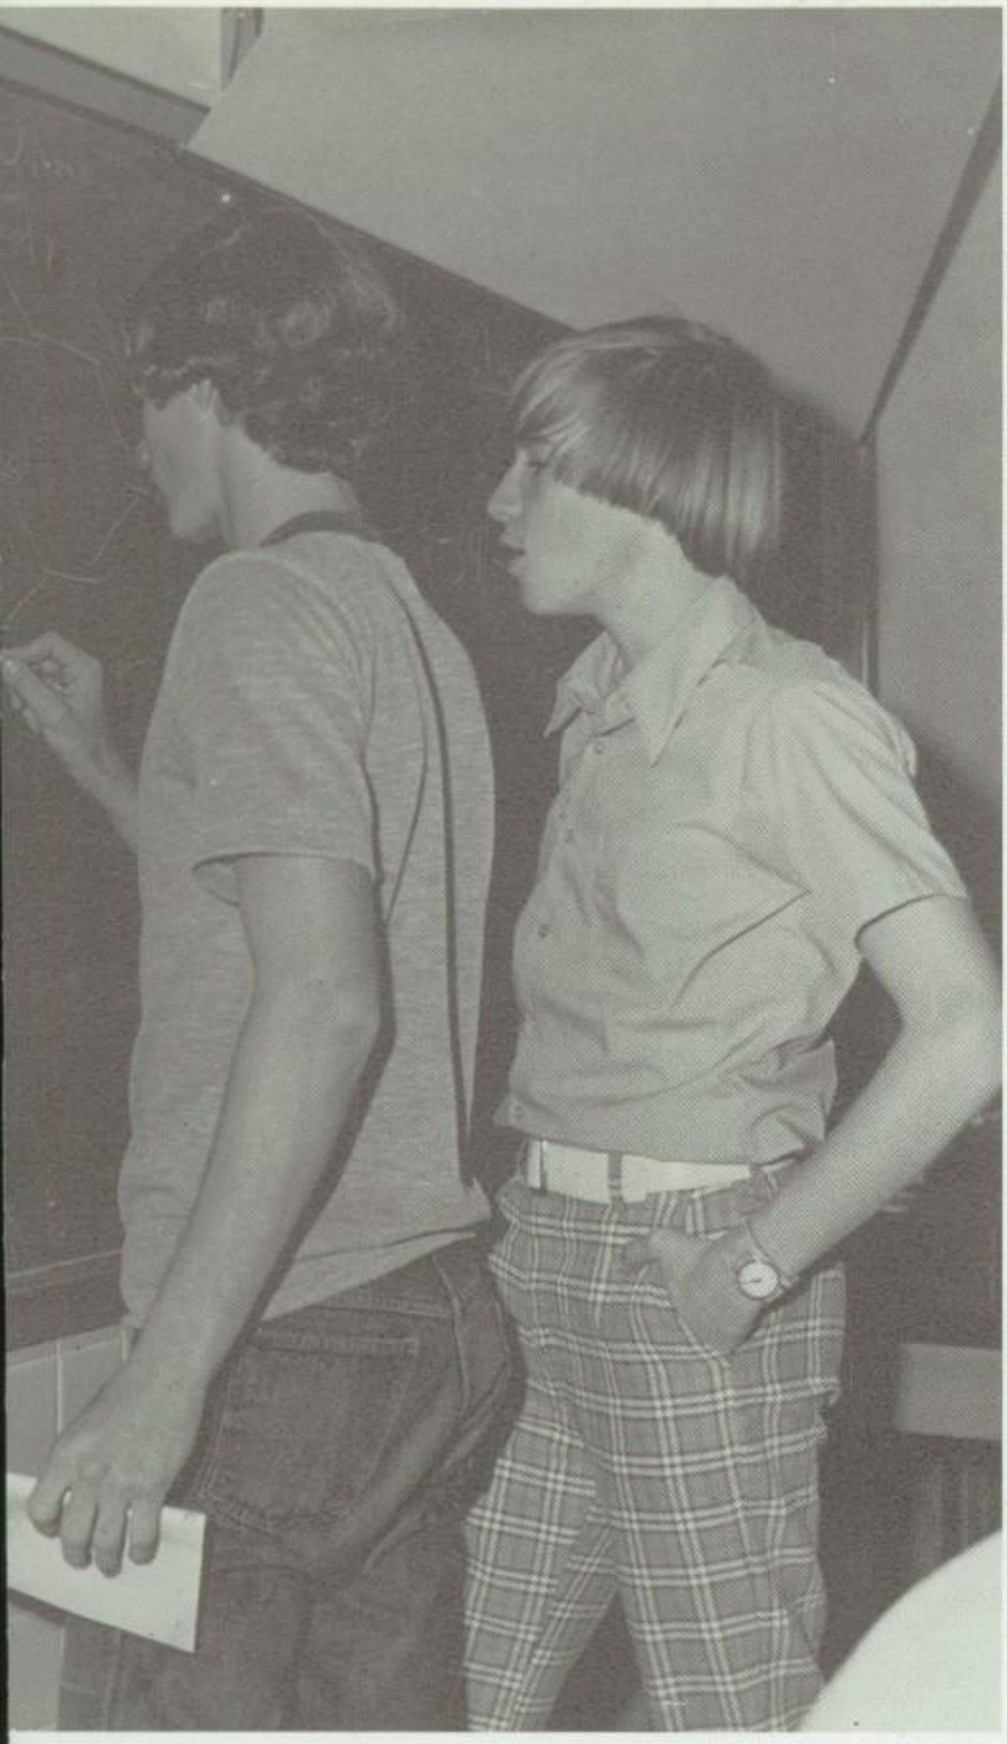






Chess Club faces tourney challenge

Five major tournaments were attended in the initial year of the Chess Club. Freshman Allen McHenry acts as president and Mr. Fred Pagel is the club's sponsor. The team as a whole won a first place trophy plus many individuals. The club meets twice a week after school on the north campus in order to practice for tournaments.



Junior Billy Sims mentally records the moves made by sophomores Dennis McHenry and David Benfer for future reference.

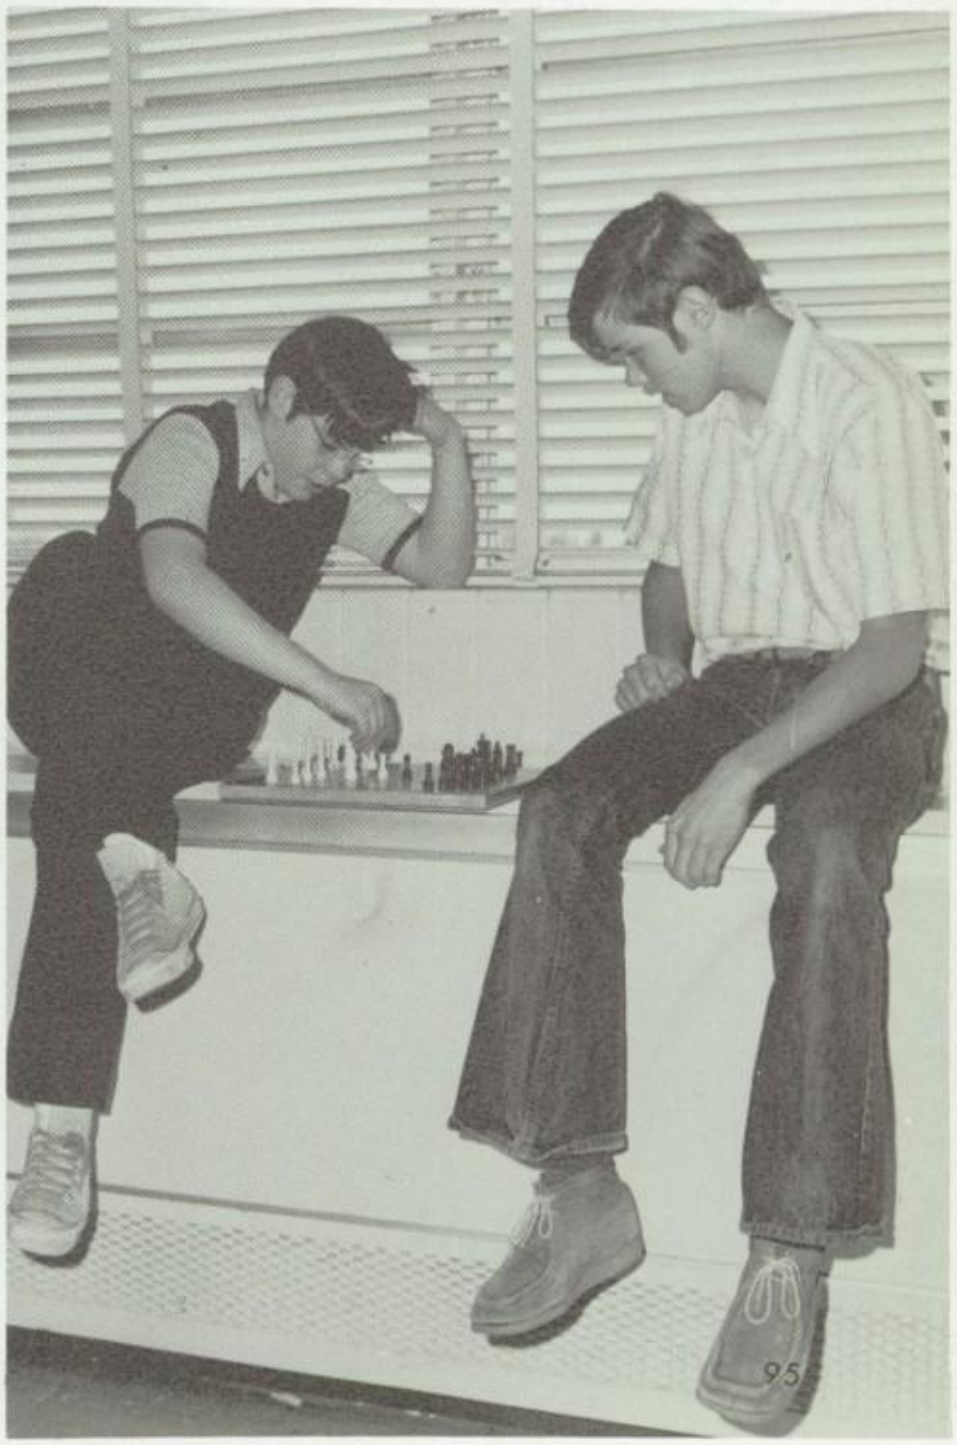
Nervously awaiting the move, sophomore Stephen Legg finds his next maneuver a difficult decision.

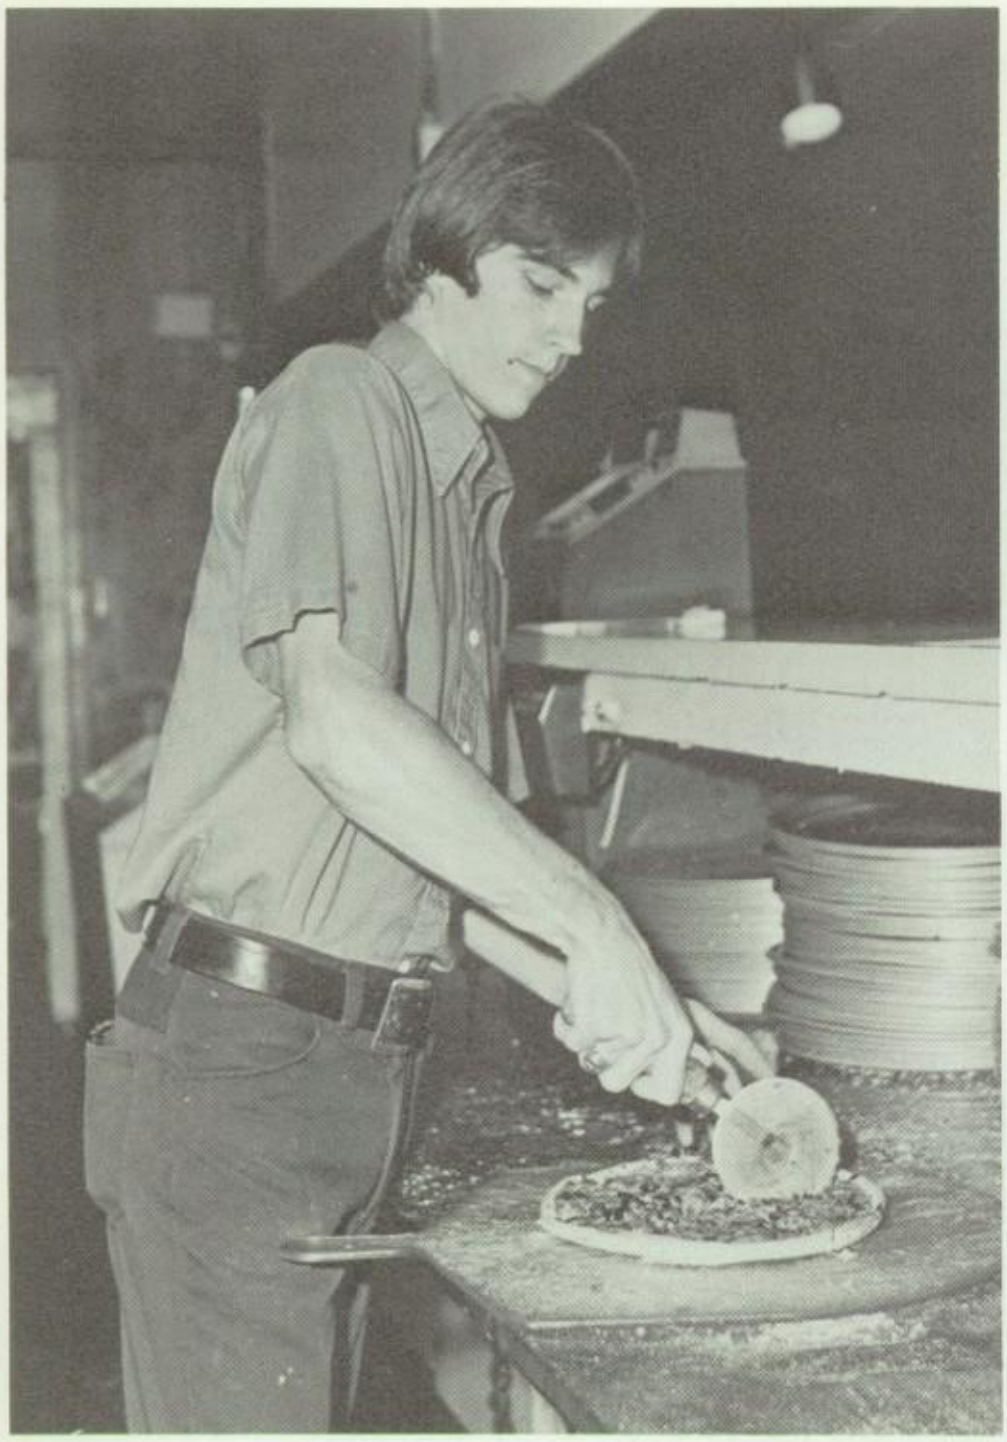
While drawing the tournament bracket, junior Mickey Henley and freshman Michael Burk fill in the winners of the preceding game.

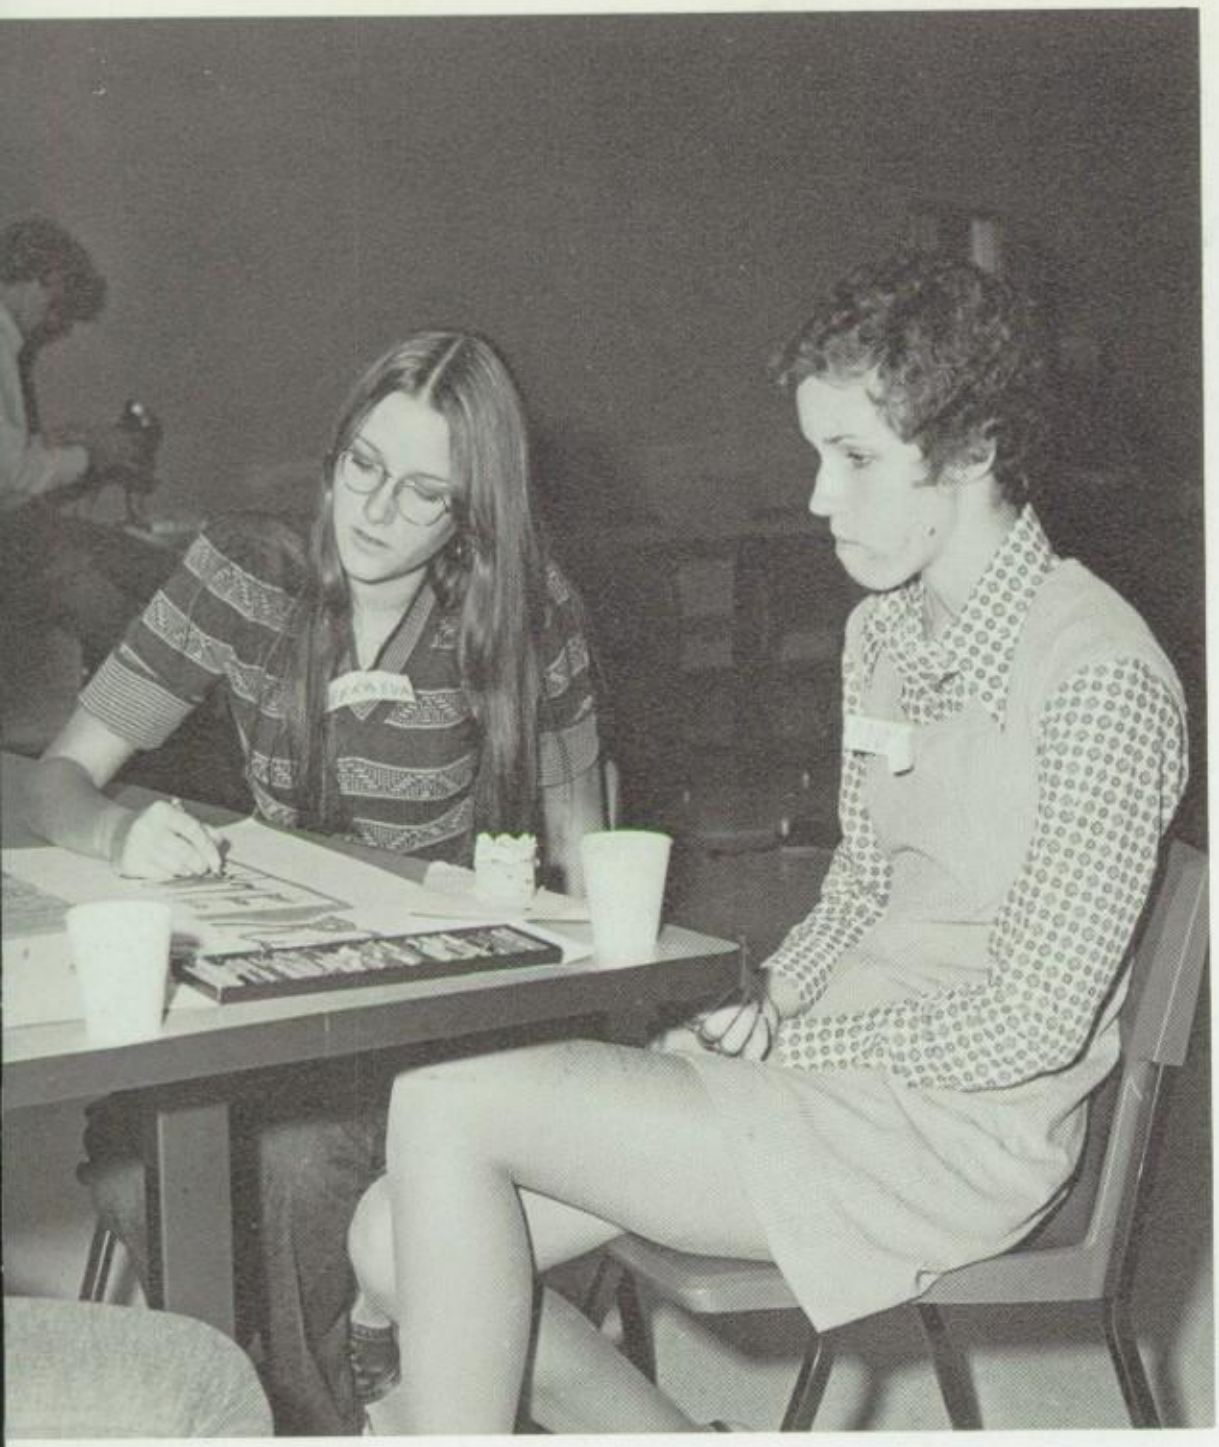
Chess Club members, freshman Michael Burk and junior Mickey Henley prepare for the tournament to be held the following weekend.

Robert Lowrie, junior, hesitates a moment to think out his next move.

Freshmen Layne Hazlip and Allen McHenry find the air conditioner a comfortable place for a game of chess.







Programs offer on job training

Vocational programs combined early in the year to present a Halloween Dance for the entire school. The dance was held at the north campus, Oct. 19. This program which served as a fund raising project included a balloon stomp, apple bobbing, a cake walk, and a spook house.

Vocational students and their employees combined to attend the Employer-Employee Banquet, April 15, at the San Jacinto College Ballroom. Spokesman for the DE class was Mike Rasmussen, followed by Agnes Petrie of VOE, Sharon Riehl for ICT, and Jimmy Thiboeaux of CVAE.

CVAE student, senior Mike Patterson performs many tasks as manager of the Pizza Inn at 3217 Center Street.

Announcing her platform for secretary is DE student Charla Mynheir, senior.

Preparing campaign posters for DE officer elections, juniors Debbie Evans and Ann Bradley combine both business and pleasure.

Junior Debbie Evans, DE student, is employed by Sears in Pasadena as a sales girl in Housewares.

Seniors Marcia Gilmore and Cyndy O'Bannon, members of the VOE program, are employed in clerical positions at the Campbell Building on Southmore.

Vocational clubs combine efforts

Donned in a "Count Dracula" costume, junior Robert Farmer claps to the music at the Vocational Halloween Dance.

Acting as the mummy, senior Danny Williams rises from his coffin while playing a part in the spook house.

Senior Tommy Knox, student body president, congratulates the winning couple in the costume competition, sophomores Ronnie Liggett and Gina Clark.

Jimmy Griffey and Pam Powell, seniors, try to burst each other's balloons in order to be the champ.

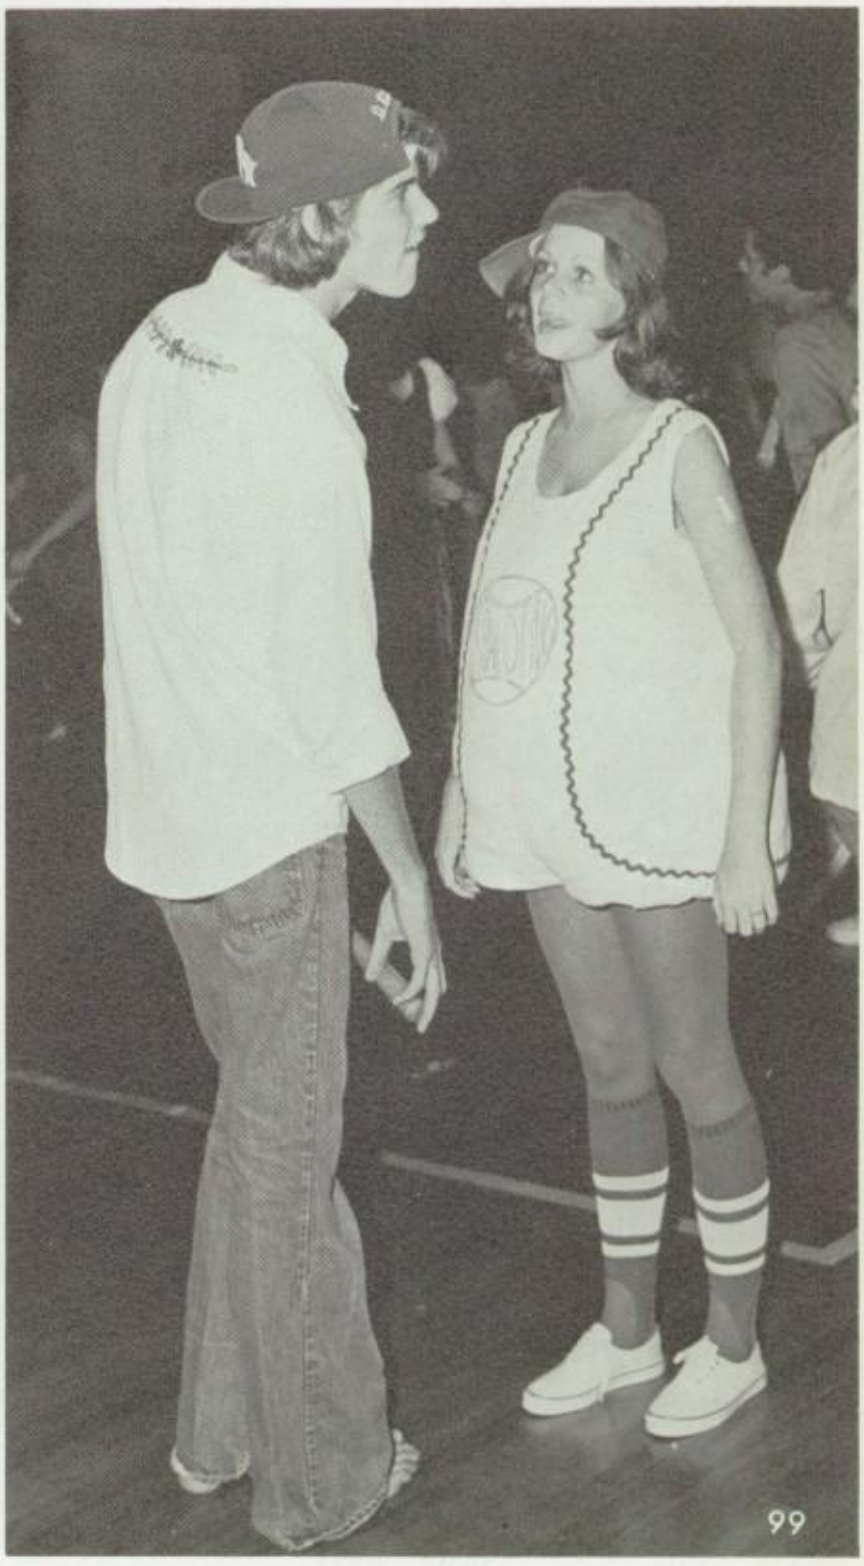
Juniors David Biehl and Ginger Holmes, dressed as a baseball player and his baseball, pause between dances.



Employers participate in vocational banquet

Merrit Novak and Glenn Bellows, DE students, work at Foley's.

Senior Wendy Rogillio, of VOE, dines with her employer at the banquet.

As entertainment, Debbi Gilbertson sings a solo, "Can't Help Loving that Man."

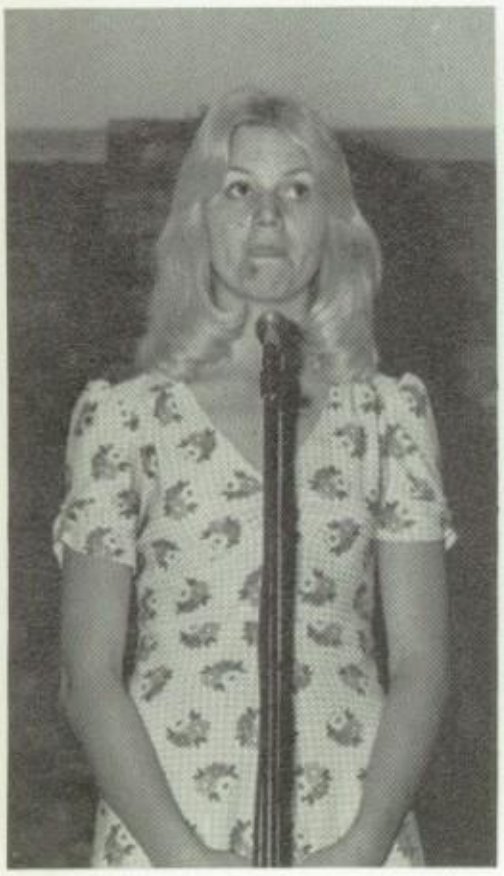
Sharon Riehl acts as speaker for ICT at the banquet held Tuesday, April 15.

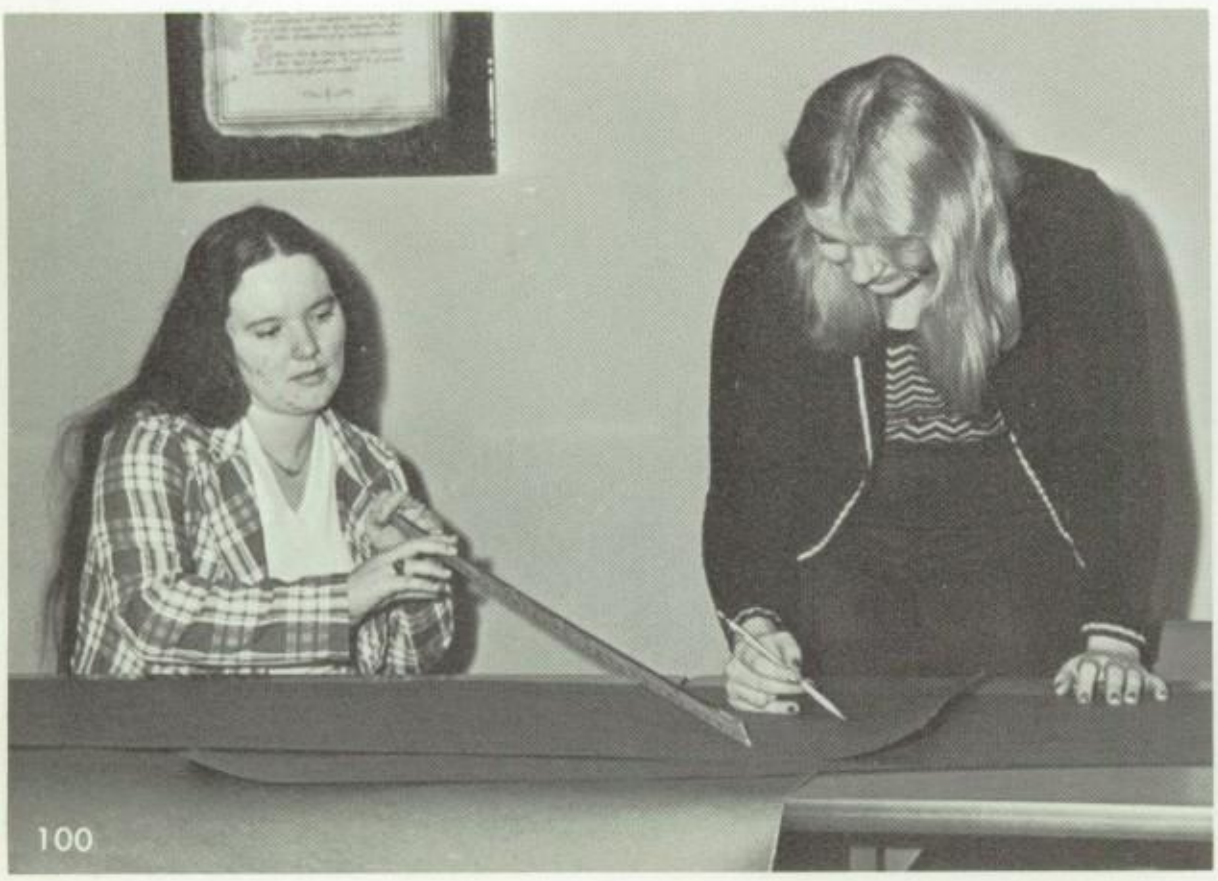
Juniors Sheryl Humphrey and Susan Muldrow, DE members, work together in preparation of a display for which the Vocational Department is responsible.

As mistress of ceremonies, senior Cindy York makes a speech thanking all employers at the annual banquet for the vocational clubs.

DE member, junior Tina Watson strings cardboard fish for part of the decorations put in the showcase at the east end of the mall.

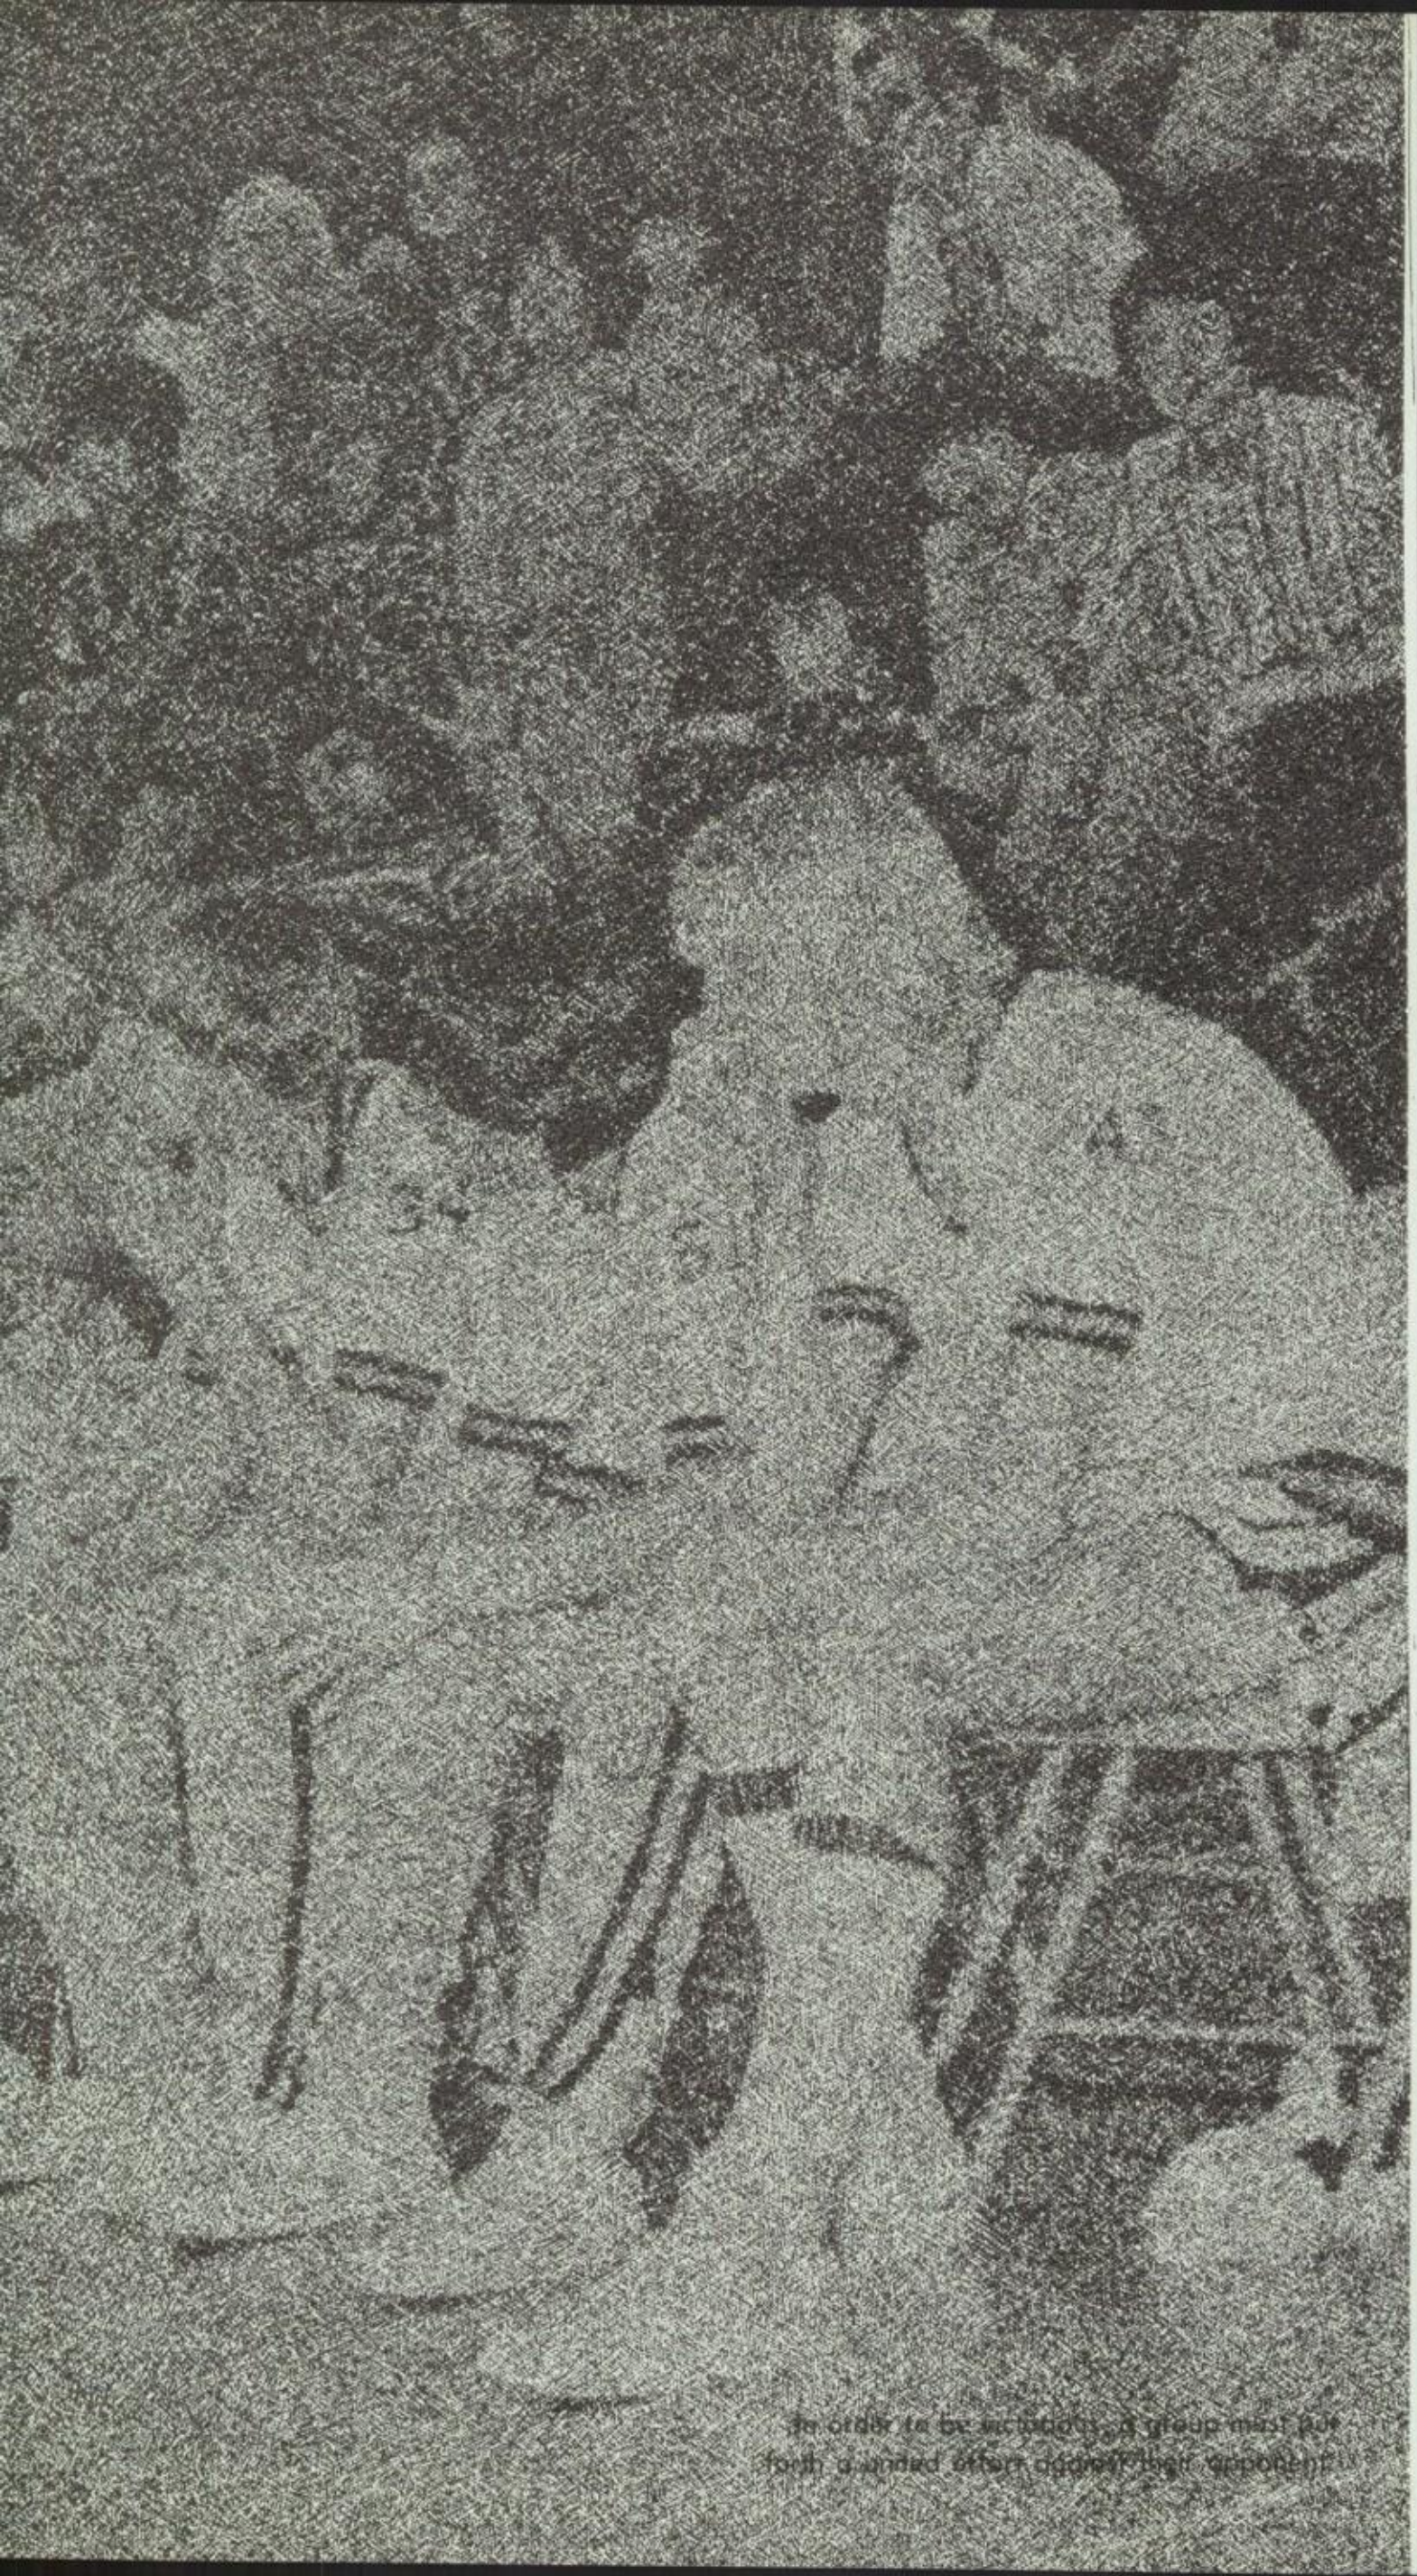
Senior Georgia Walker, VOE student, is employed as a typist for Shell Oil. Her mother attended the banquet with her.





Mixed emotions are generally found at an athletic event. The bench of the sophomore team shows various feelings ranging from concern to concentration.

Athletics



In order to be victorious, a group must put forth a united effort against their opponent.

Grid squad team up for first 4-A title

Morris Andress struggles to maintain his balance after breaking for long yardage against Alvin.

Split end Duane Walker makes a leaping reception of a perfectly timed pass in front of his Dulles defender.

Paul Kent linebacker heads in to stop this Stingaree's progress.

A united effort and common goal led to the success of this year's varsity.

Diving over a Deer teammate, senior quarterback Tommy Knox attempts to gain yardage.

A year's growth, maturity and dedication seemed to be the catalyst that changed last years 3-7 team into this year's district champion.

Offensively, the Deer were led by senior QB Tommy Knox who completed 43 passes and rushed for 419 yards. Lance Lichnerowicz rushed for over 1,000 yards, an effort which earned him the district's Most Outstanding Back Award. Receiver Duane Walker led the team in receptions, making 25 and turning eight into touchdowns. None of these stats would have been possible without an excellent line anchored by Bruce Jones and Mike Kellogg.

Defensively, Paul Kent led the squad in tackles making some 128 with fellow linebacker Gary Cornelius bringing down 112. Up front the line was led by Tim Vaughn and Hector Saldivar who gave opponents trouble all season long. In the secondary, John Weidig and Terry Cruce combined to intercept nine passes for the year. A twelfth defensive man not recognized was punter Jim Liggett who kept the opposition pinned with his towering kicks.

The Deer dominated the All-District Team selections with first teamers Walker, Lichnerowicz, Vaughn, Saldivar, Kent, and Cruce making the second team were Jones, Kellogg, and Greg Sherry, honorable mention selections were Knox, Butch Henderson, Le Grande Bloutn, Cornelius, Weidig and Tim Cobb.

Deer dominate Creek, 21-0, for third District victory

Randy Riggle, junior quarterback, charts plays for the coaching staff on the sidelines.

Lance Lichnerowicz bursts through a big hole in the Wildcat line to score one of three touchdowns.

Senior Scott Bell strains to regain his balance after being tackled by a Wildcat defender.

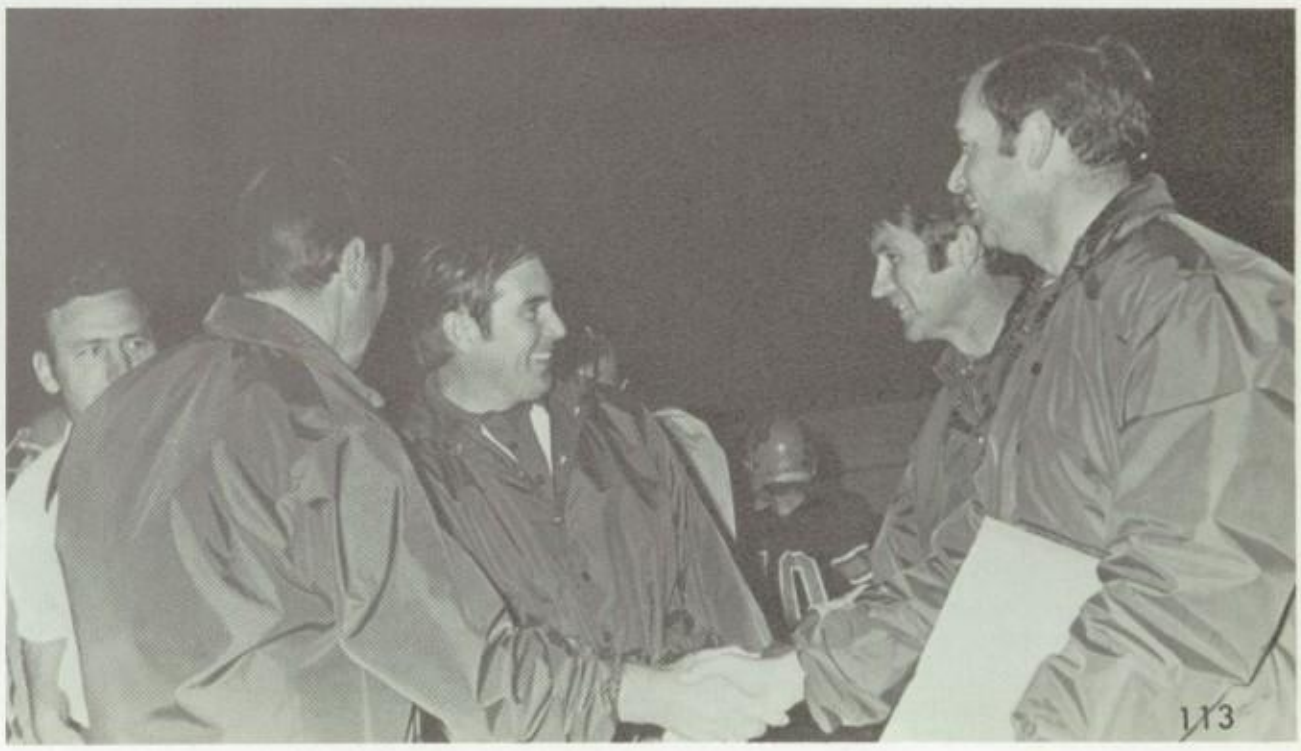
Senior Sammy Quisenberry concentrates on his next blocking assignment while the defense is on the field.

Trainer "Doc" Smith attends senior Gary Cornelius as Kent Farr looks on after Cornelius suffered a leg injury.

Dino Demetrio, senior center, waits for action from the sidelines.

Morris Andress, junior halfback, and a Creek defender struggle to retrieve the fumble.

Varsity coaches Wesley Frosch, Frank Orsak, Gary Berry, and Jack Gibson congratulate each other defeating Clear Creek, 21-0.



Unity of grid squad overpowers Longhorn as Deer advance to tie for district lead

Senior John Weidig sprints away from Dobie's Jerry Willbanks with a stolen Longhorn pass.

All the players prepare to throw head coach Gary Berry into the showers to celebrate their tie for the district lead.

Alan Karl, senior split end, watches in amazement as the Deer are penalized by officials.

Senior Royce Freitag relaxes as the Deer slowly put the game out of reach of the Longhorns.

Paul Kent, senior linebacker, accepts the congratulations from Dobie's Chris Haynes after winning 23-13.

Coaches Billy Thames, Gary Berry, and Wesley Frosch sense the victory after the Deer's final touchdown put the game away.

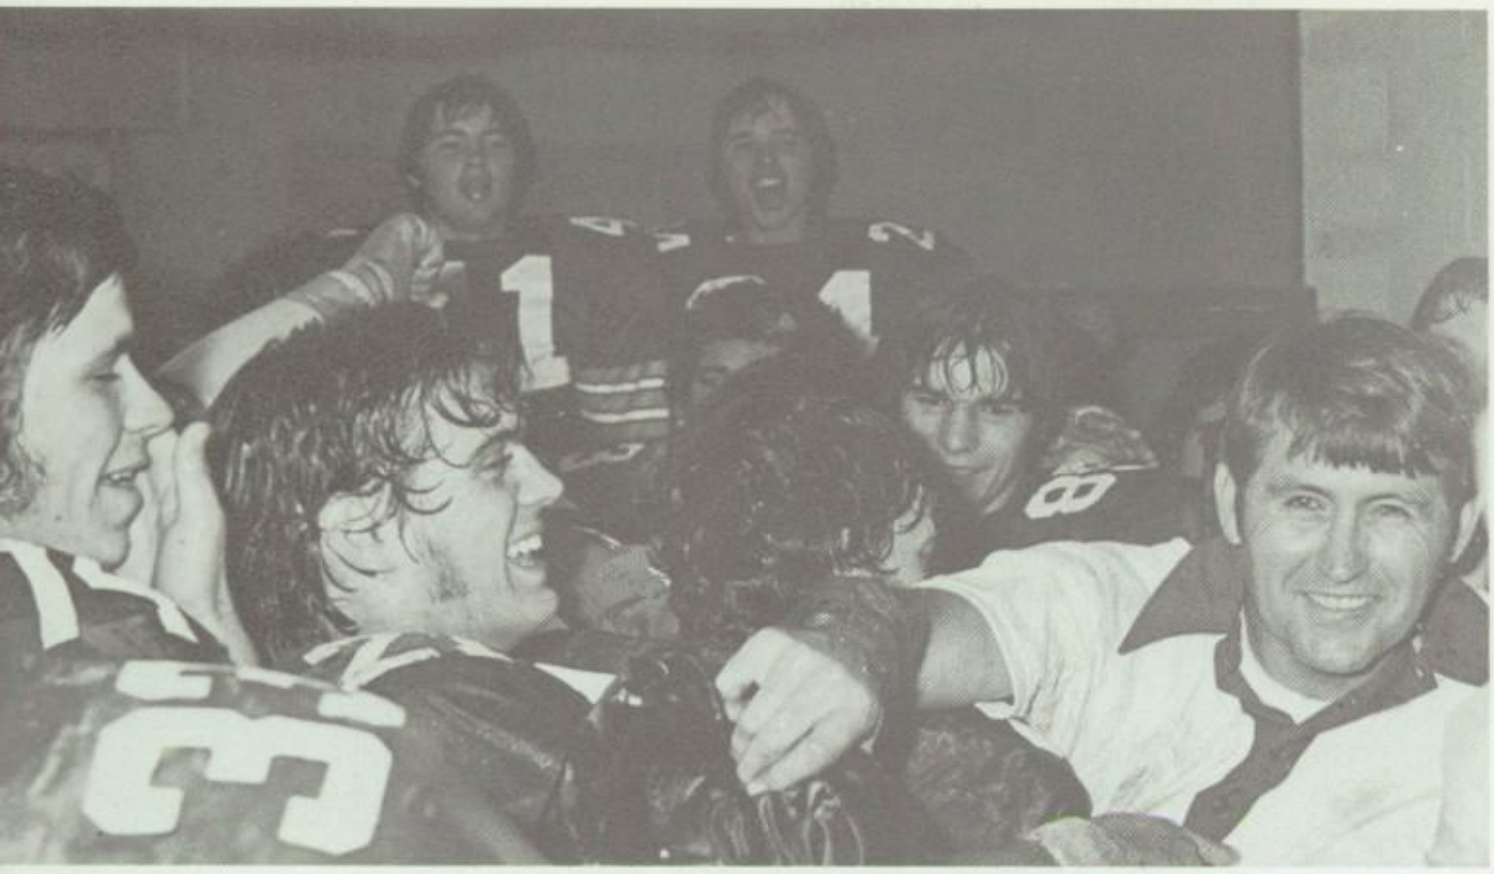
Confidence is the key expressed by senior Terry Cruce as he looks across the field at his opponents.

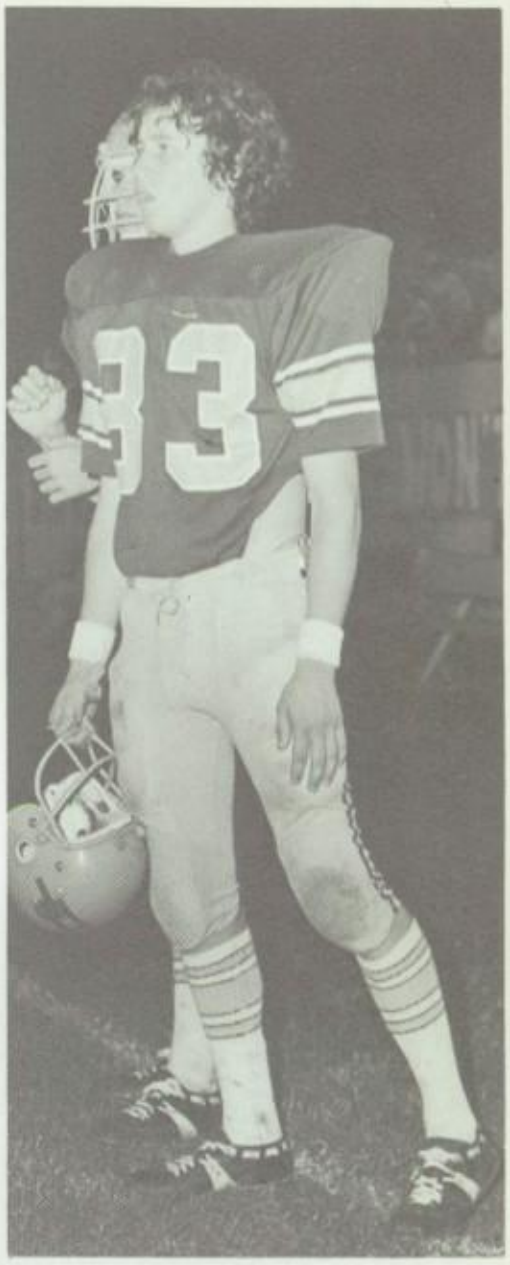
Kent comes across to help Cruce drop the Dobie ball carrier after a short gain.

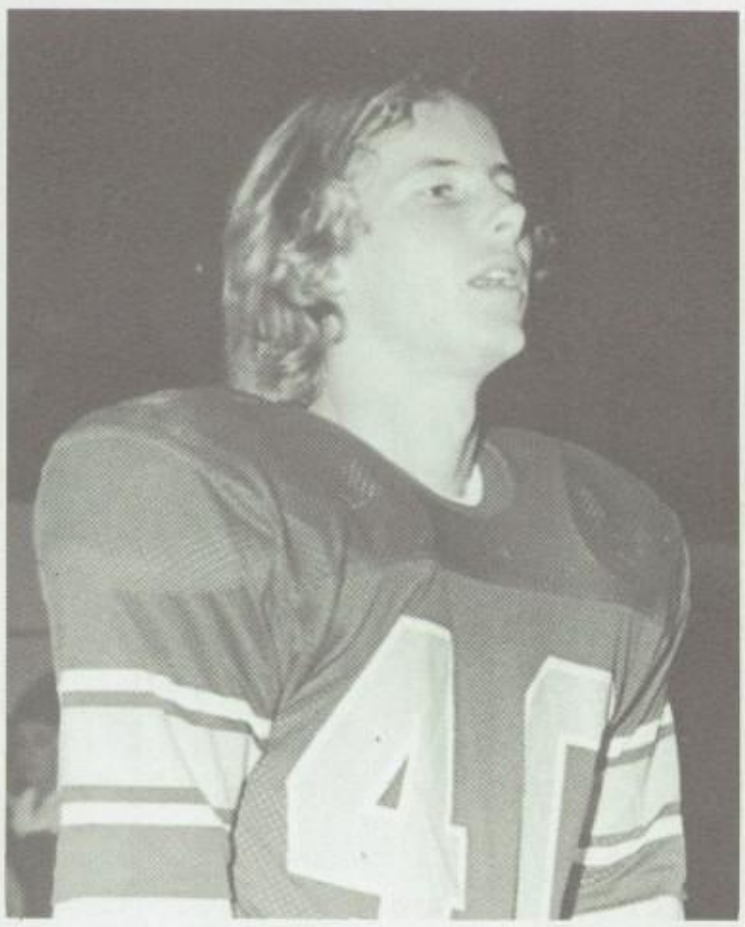
Junior Morris Andress breaks away from the Longhorns for big yardage.

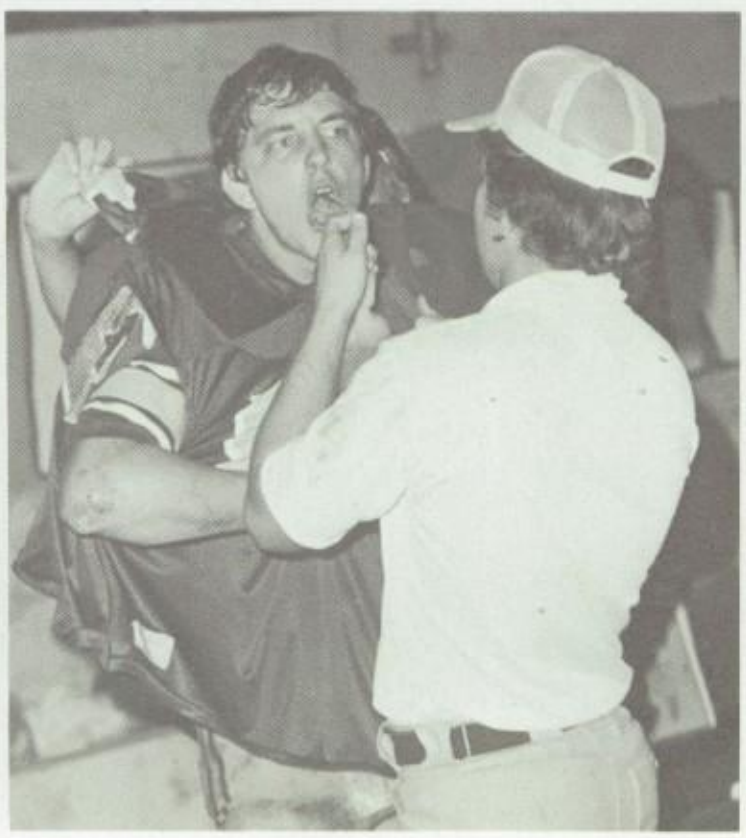
Trainer Kent Farr helps tightend Tim Vaughn get ready to go in with the punting unit.

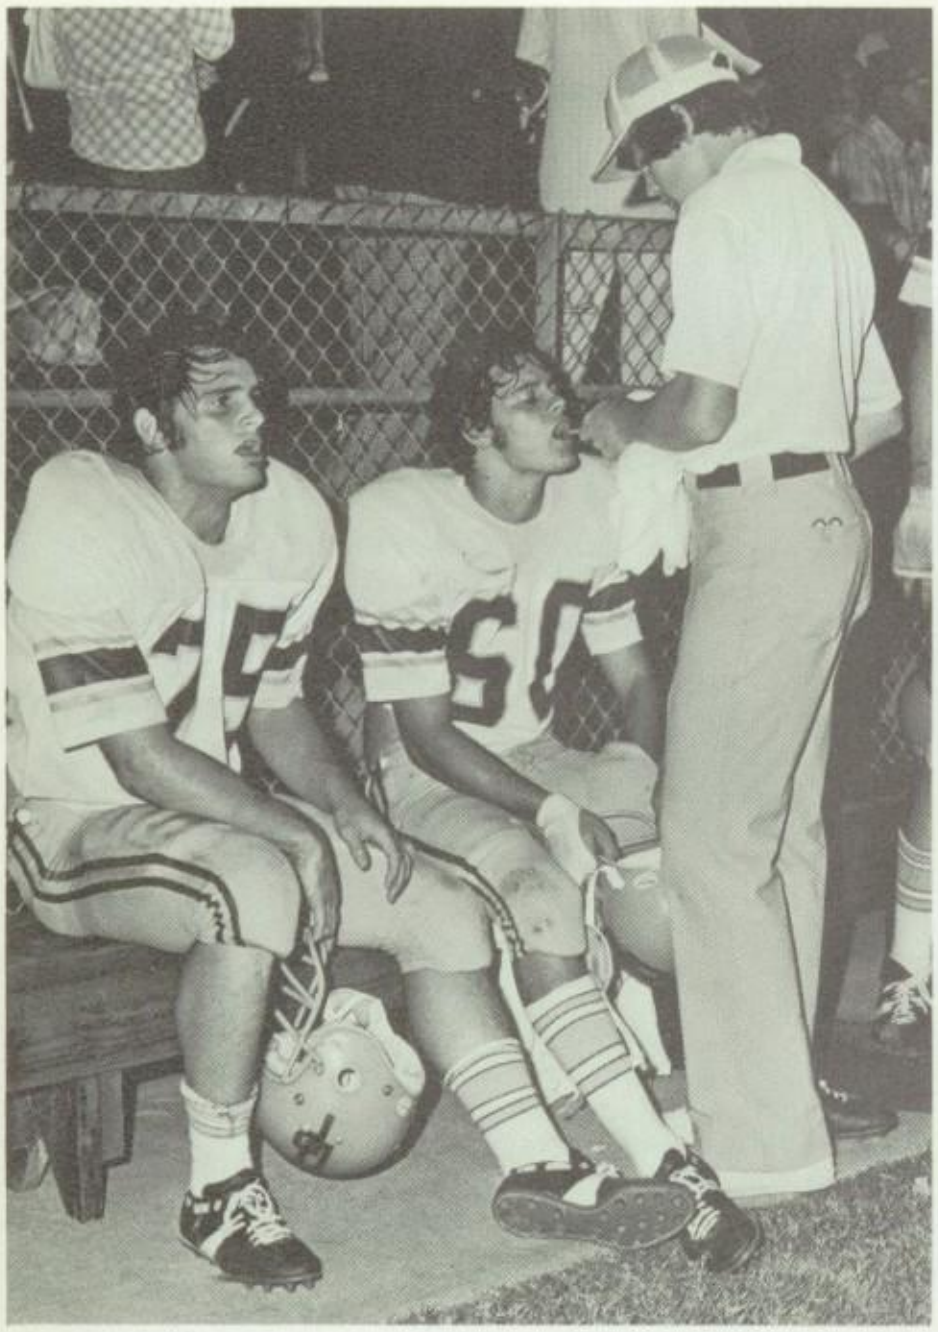
Senior Danny Cunningham observes the Deer defense shutting down Dobie's offensive series. Danny's teammates elected him to receive the Good Sportsmanship Award at the annual football banquet.

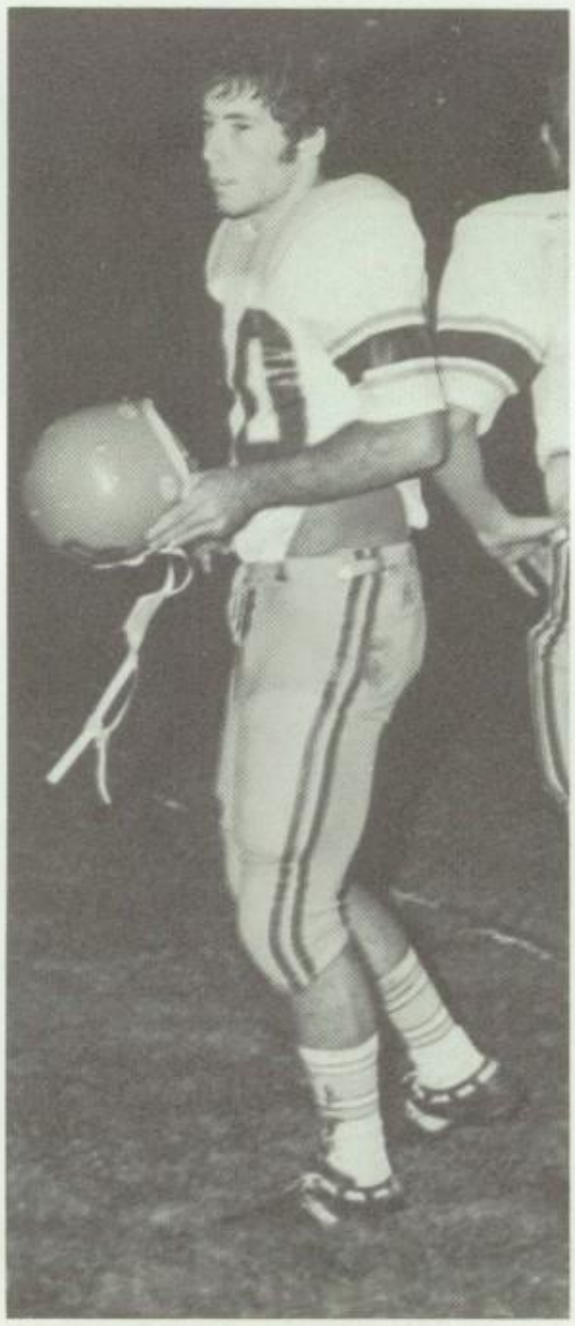




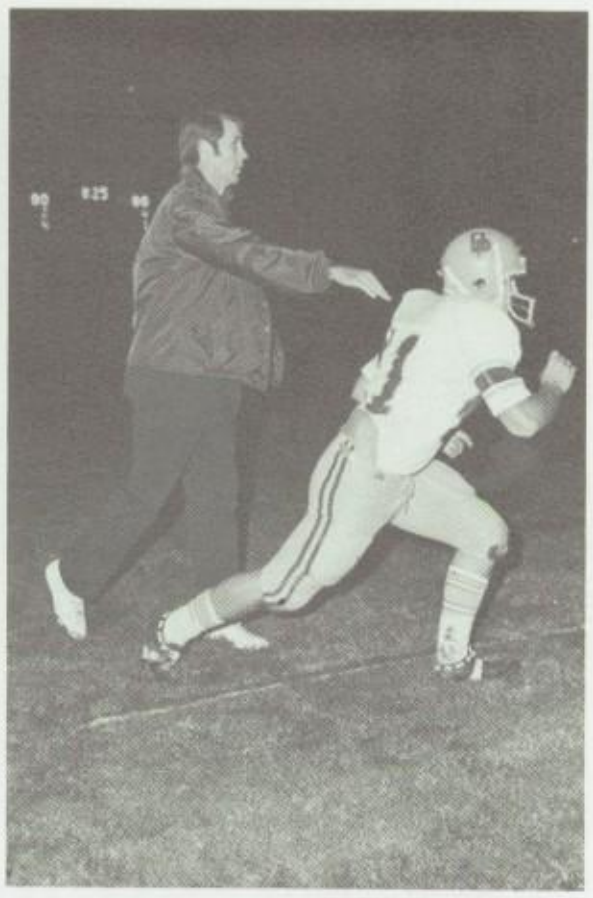








Deer defensive folds Clear Lake Falcons



Tackle Mike Kellogg awaits his turn as trainer Donnie Smith gives senior Pat Cornor a sip of Gatorade.

Quarterback Tommy Knox turns upfield, past a fallen Falcon.

Senior Tommy Knox hits a knee to concentrate on the next Deer offensive.

Head coach Gary Berry sends in a play by way of junior David Forbes.

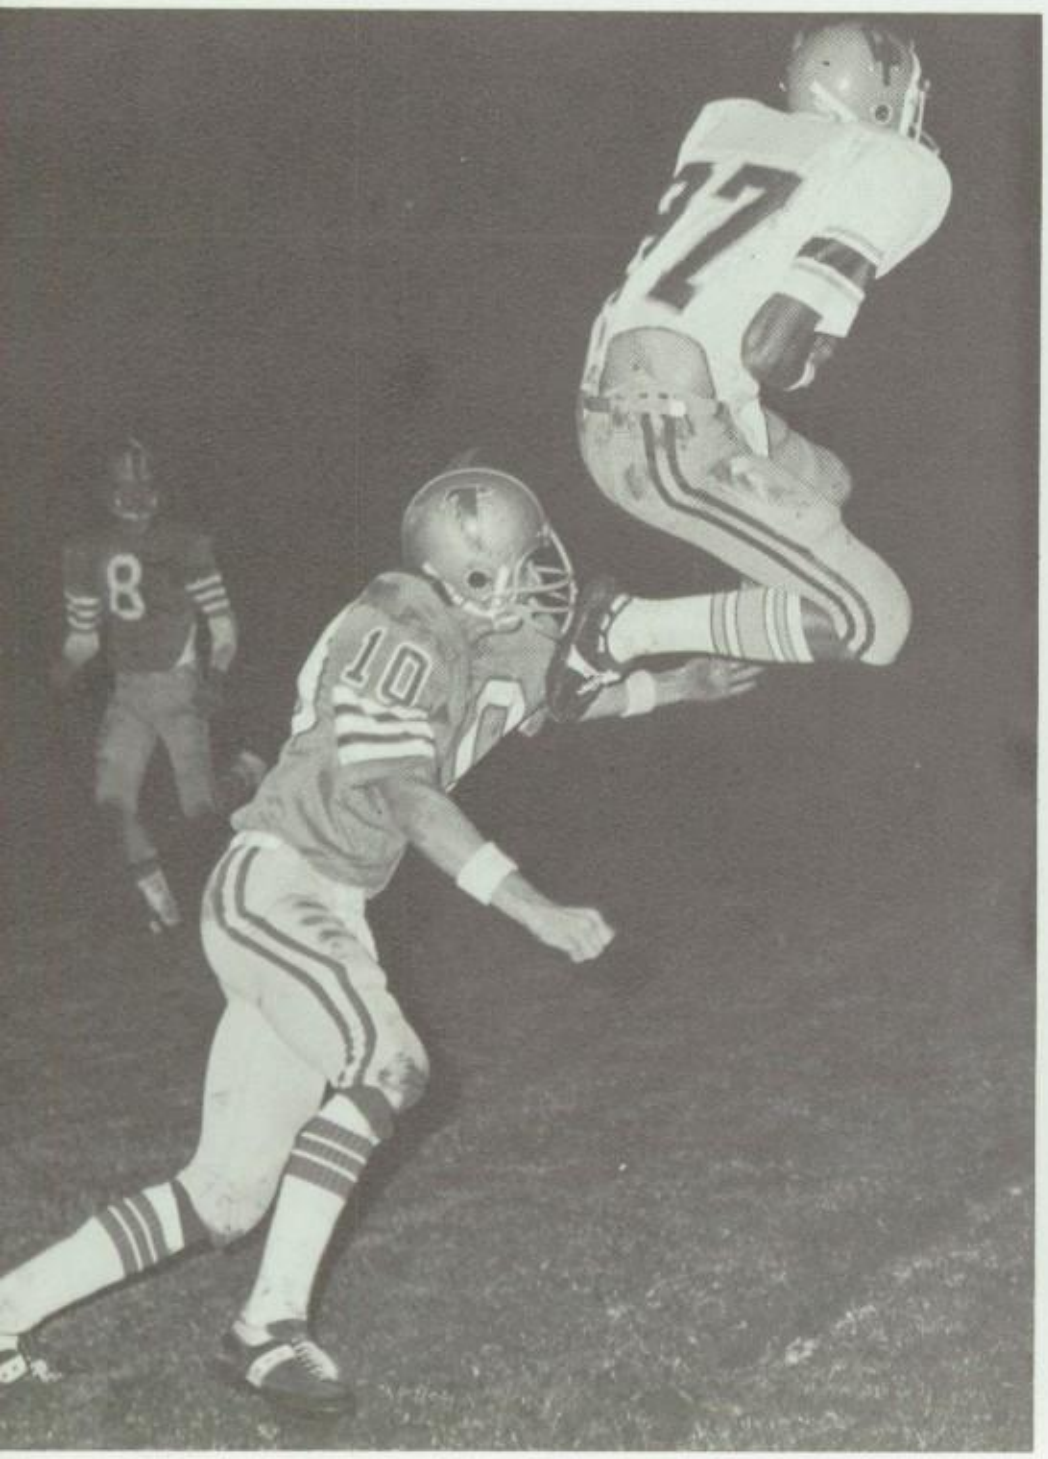
Danny Cunningham, senior tackle, keeps an eye on the Deer's progress.

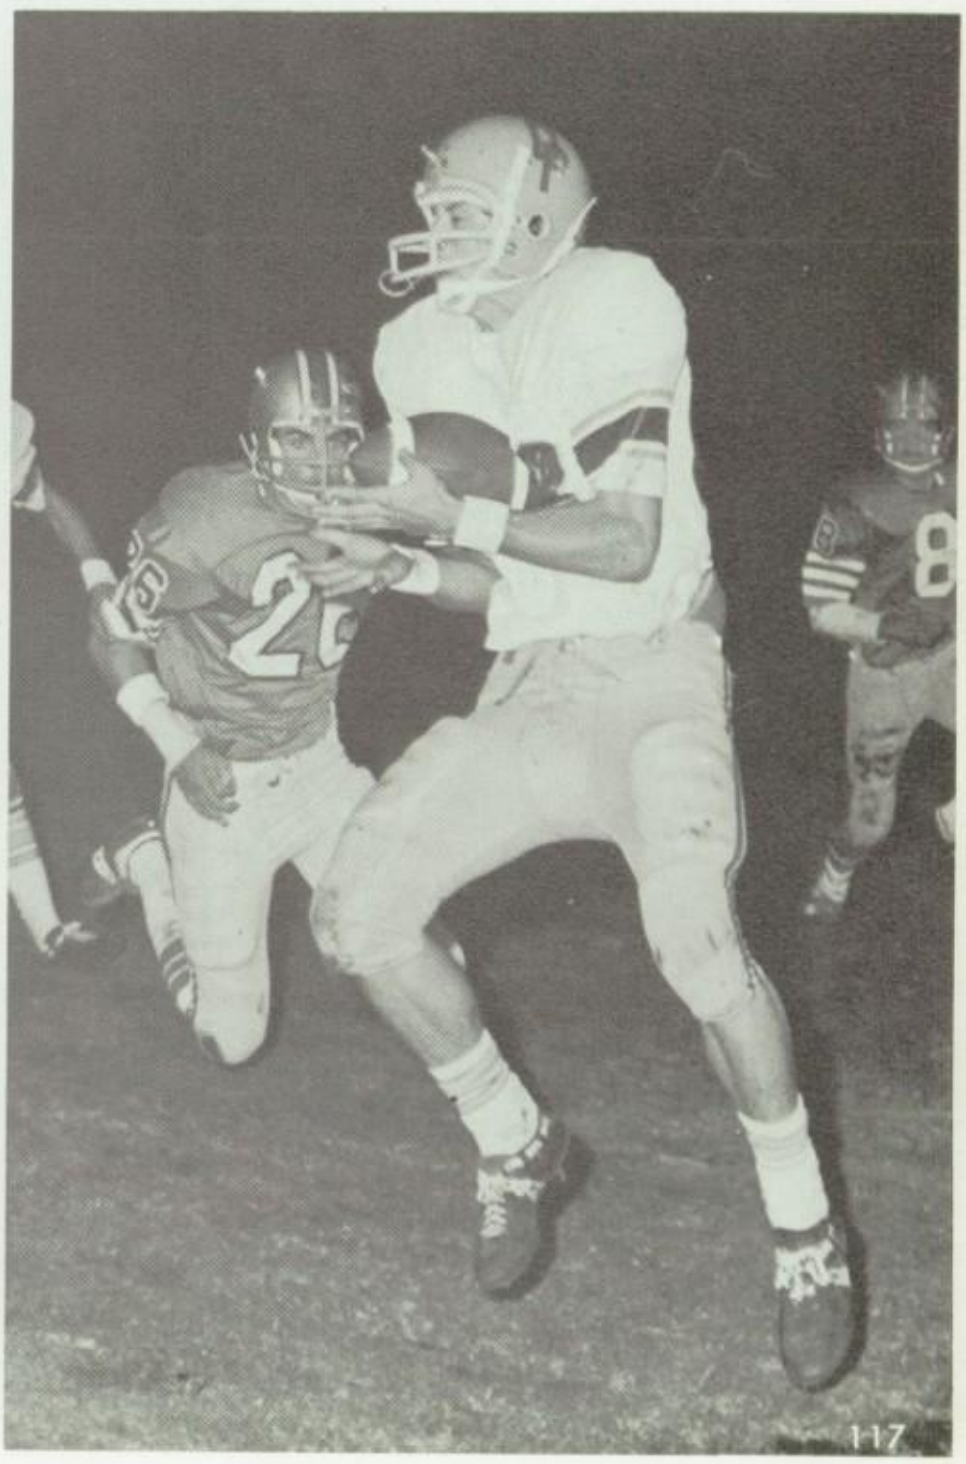
Senior Paul Longley readies himself to return to action.

Coach Wesley Frosch gives his last minute instructions to fullback Lance Lichnerowicz.

Up and away goes Duane Walker to make the reception in front of his Falcon counterpart.

Butch Henderson gets by a Falcon defender to receive a Knox pass.





Knox passes Bucks over Bulldogs, 40-7

Tim Cobb, senior defensive end, gives chase to a La Porte player as he tries to stay in bounds.

Randy Riggle, junior quarterback, turns it upfield past the Bulldog defense for a quick gain.

Senior Ronny Templeton sweeps right end and tries to duck out of a Bulldog's grasp.

Tackles Mike Ritter and LeGrande Blount look across the field at the officials as they measure for a first down.

Sophomore David Berry helps junior Millard Johnson change jerseys as he goes on with the punting team.

Morris Andress and Sammy Quisenberry discuss offensive strategy while LaPorte has the ball.

Senior Mickey McGhee was a vital part of the offensive line until an elbow injury sidelined him late in the year.

Robert Anderson and Gary Cornelius chase a Bulldog out of bounds as tackle Greg Sherry comes to assist.

Senior Greg Sherry catches his breath after the defense stopped a La Porte drive deep in Deer territory.

Deer feel sting from Texas City

Seniors Greg Sherry and Robert Anderson combine to stop Texas City's Cal Ray Anderson.

A desperation pass to Duane Walker sets up the final touchdown in the last few seconds.

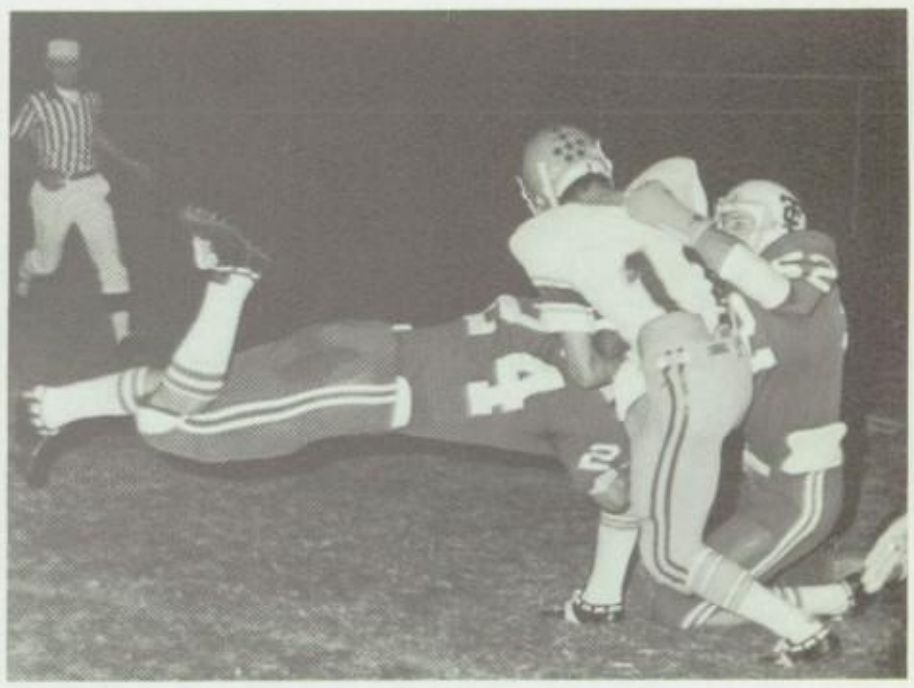
Tommy Knox scampers around the end to score the first Deer touchdown.

David Bourgeois and Sherry bring down a Stingaree for a loss.

Knox is sandwiched between two Stingarees as the offense fails to move.

In honor of all graduating players, managers, and trainers, the seniors were elected honorary captains by their teammates.

Taking their first district championship in 10 years and their first ever as a 4-A club, the Deer ended their season with a disappointing loss to a very fired up Texas City team. Hampered by mistakes, fumbles, and a very stiff wind, the Deer offense continually played with their backs to the wall as a sell out Texas City crowd cheered on the Stingarees. The Deer gave a valliant effort to salvage an excellent season; however, in vain as Texas City took bi-district honors 27-14.



Juniors take third in district play

Showing streaks of brillance in their playing, the junior varsity team made costly mistakes at the wrong moment that ended their hopes for a district championship. The defensive unit was outstanding all season long only giving up an average of eight points per contest. The offense had a well balanced attack thrashing out a little over 16 points per game. Nevertheless, the team ended up placing third in the district after losing hard fought contests to both Pasadena and Clear Lake who placed first and second, respectively.

TD separates sophs from district crown

Rolling up a 7-3 record, the sophomore squad ended up with a 6-1 district slate. Their only loss was a 7-0 defeat at the hands of the Clear Lake Falcons, as the Deer took second place in the district.

The defensive unit enjoyed an outstanding season, averaging only 5.8 points allowed per game. In league competition, Clear Lake's lone touchdown and extra-point were the only points allowed.

Defensive linemen Steve French, Duane Mayberry, Dean Vyoral, and Marcus Turner plugged up enemy running attacks effectively throughout the season. Linebackers Wayne Elliot and Stuart Douglass roved all over the field, calling the defensive backfield of Manuel Araujo, Greg McDonald, Mike McClennan, and Rod White stopped passing threats.

The offensive unit also enjoyed a fine year, averaging 18.1 points scored per game. In the Rayburn game, they totaled more than 375 yards total offense in the 35-0 thrashing which they administered.

David Carroll and Ricky Cormier formed the nucleus of a crushing ground game, each breaking the 100 yard barrier over five times.

Sophomore David Carroll attempts to sweep end with a Texan in pursuit.

Mike McLennan played an important part in the sophomores tough defensive unit.

Running back Ricky Cormier races all alone down the sidelines, for a touchdown.

Chris Santiago follows the blocking of Lannis Blount and Bobby White.

Frosh set goals toward winning sophomore season

On offense, linemen Richard Gonzales and Mark Kirchmer proved themselves outstanding. Backs Russell Wood and Shannon Jones ground out the majority of the Deer yardage.

Allen Westmoreland and Jones led the defensive unit.

The A Team averaged 250 total offensive yards per game. "They were an outstanding group of freshmen with lots of ability," Coach Garcia said. Also coaching the team was Coach Glenn Bondy.

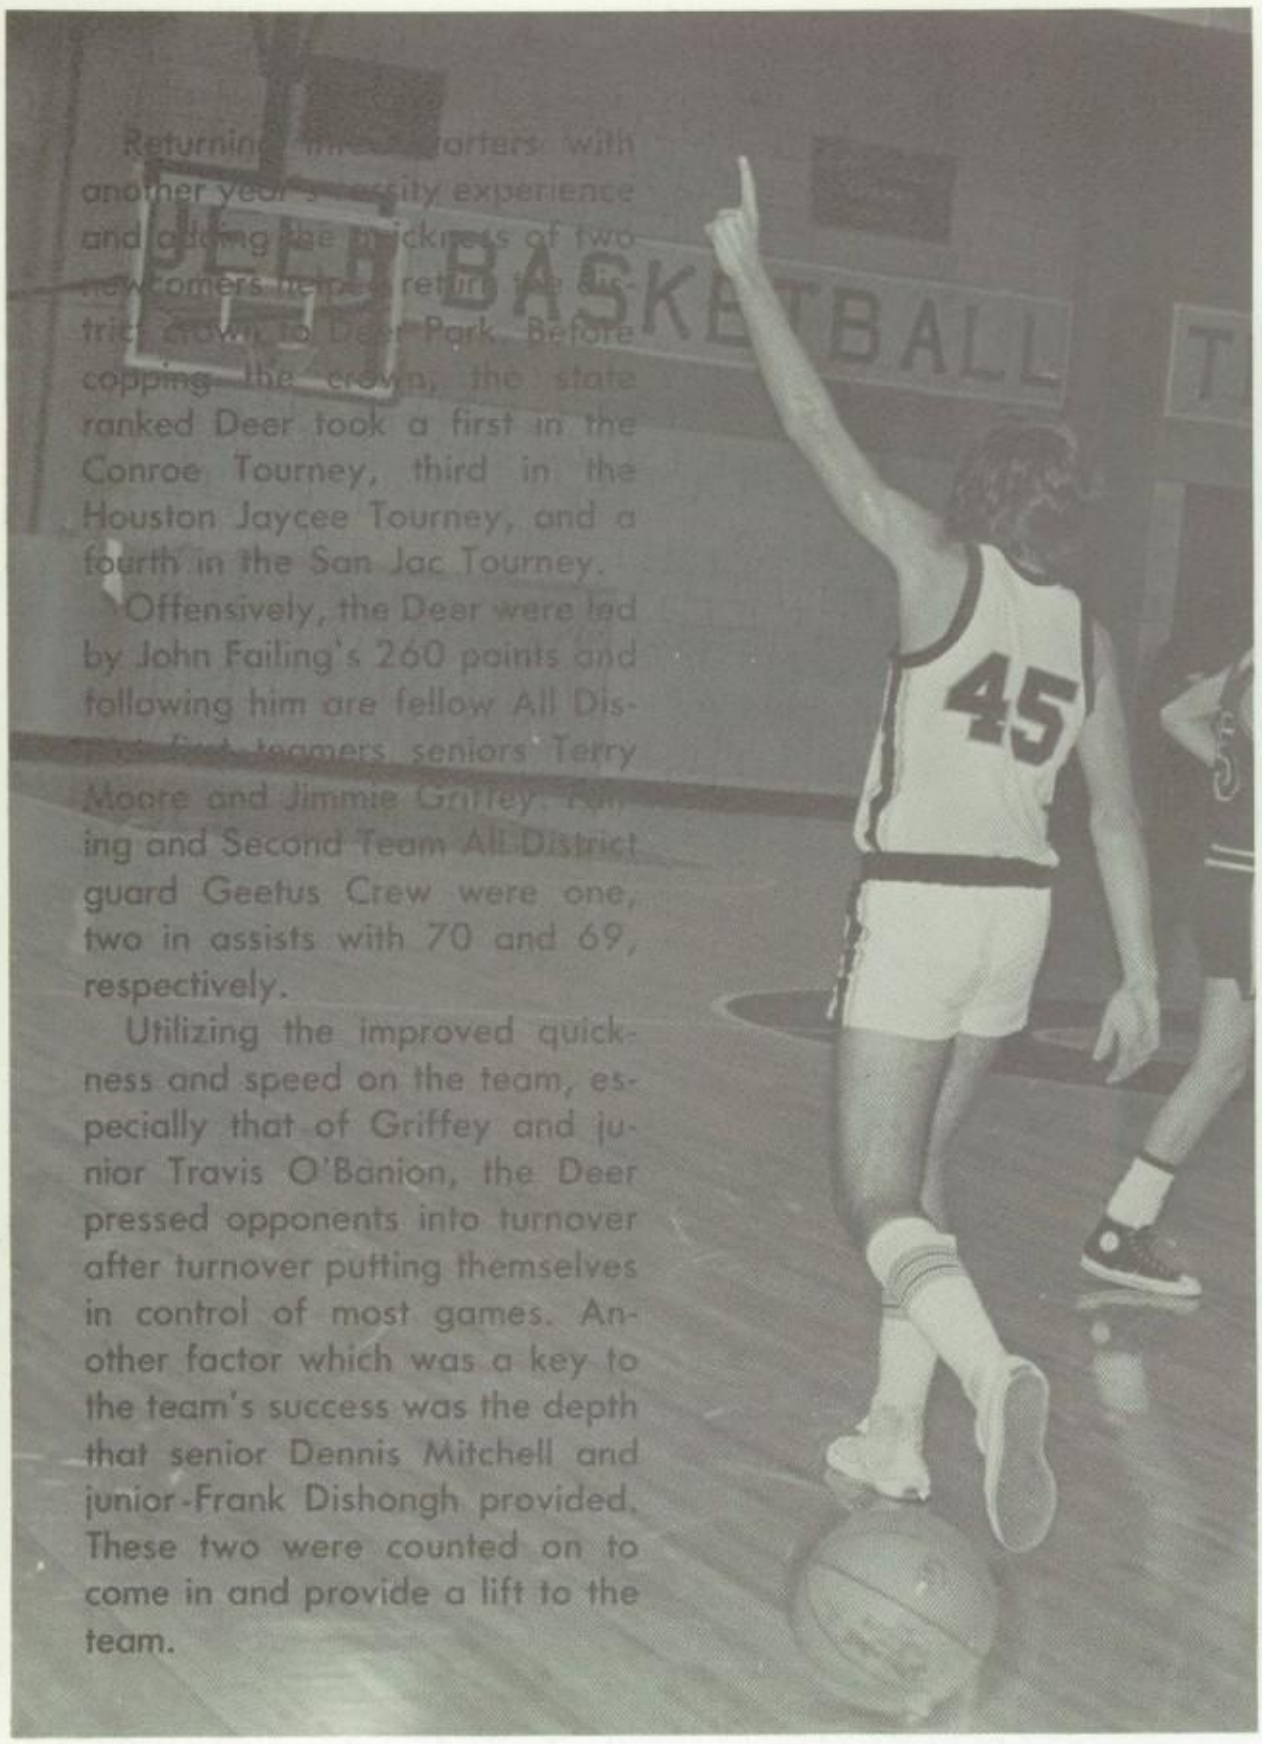
Ricky Trahan carries the ball as teammate Billy Dodson blocks for him.

Tough defense is exhibited by lineman Richard Gonzales as he brings down Trojan ball carrier.

David Camp, split end, and his defender both struggle to gain possession of the pass.

Running back Butch Pate fights for more yardage as he's tackled by two La Porte defenders.

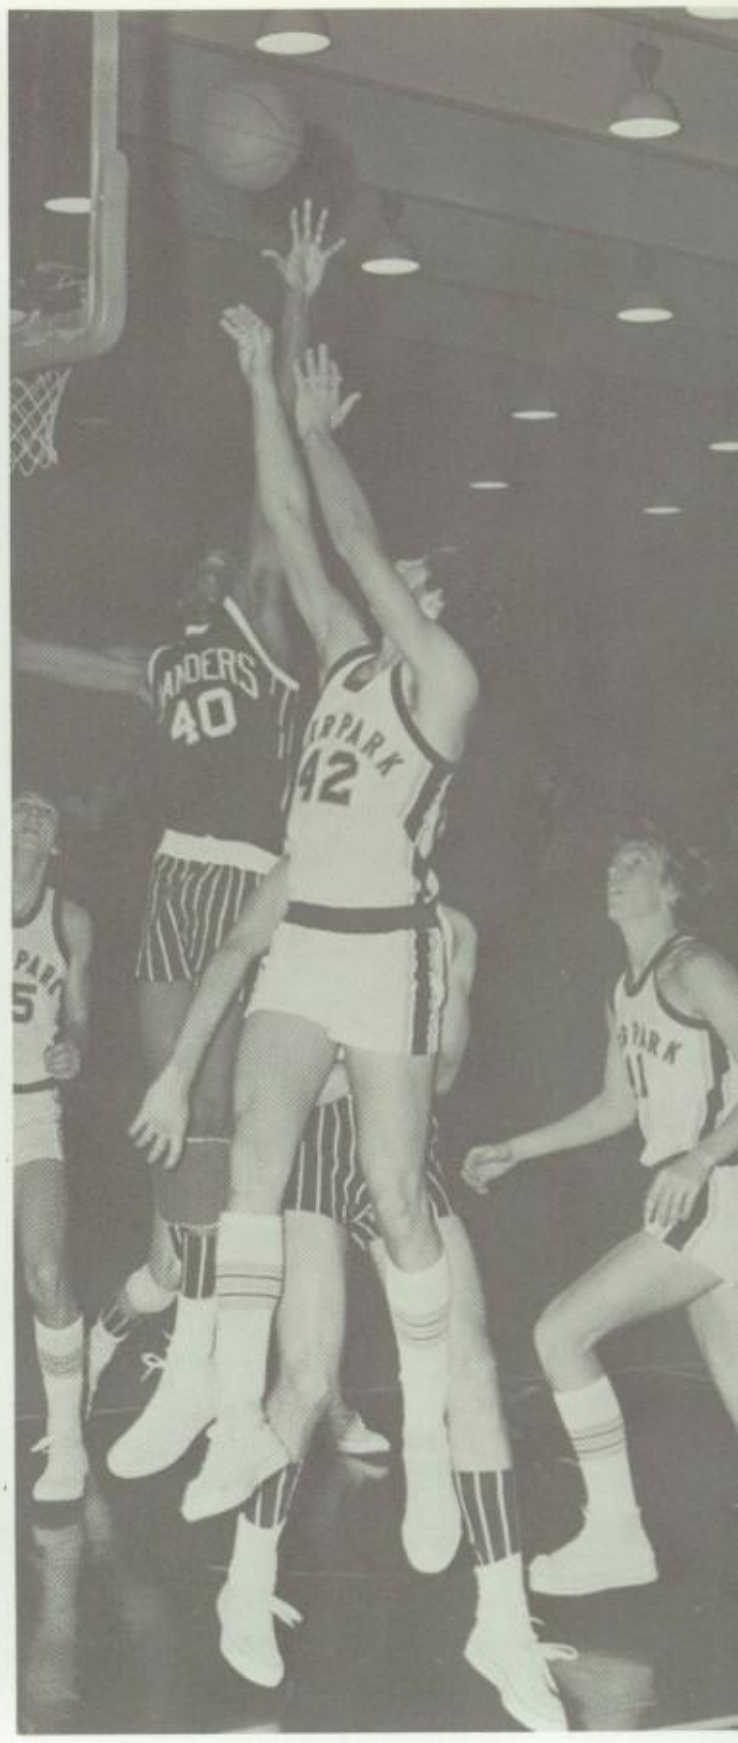
A Deer defender makes an open field tackle on the opposition's ball carrier after the kick off.

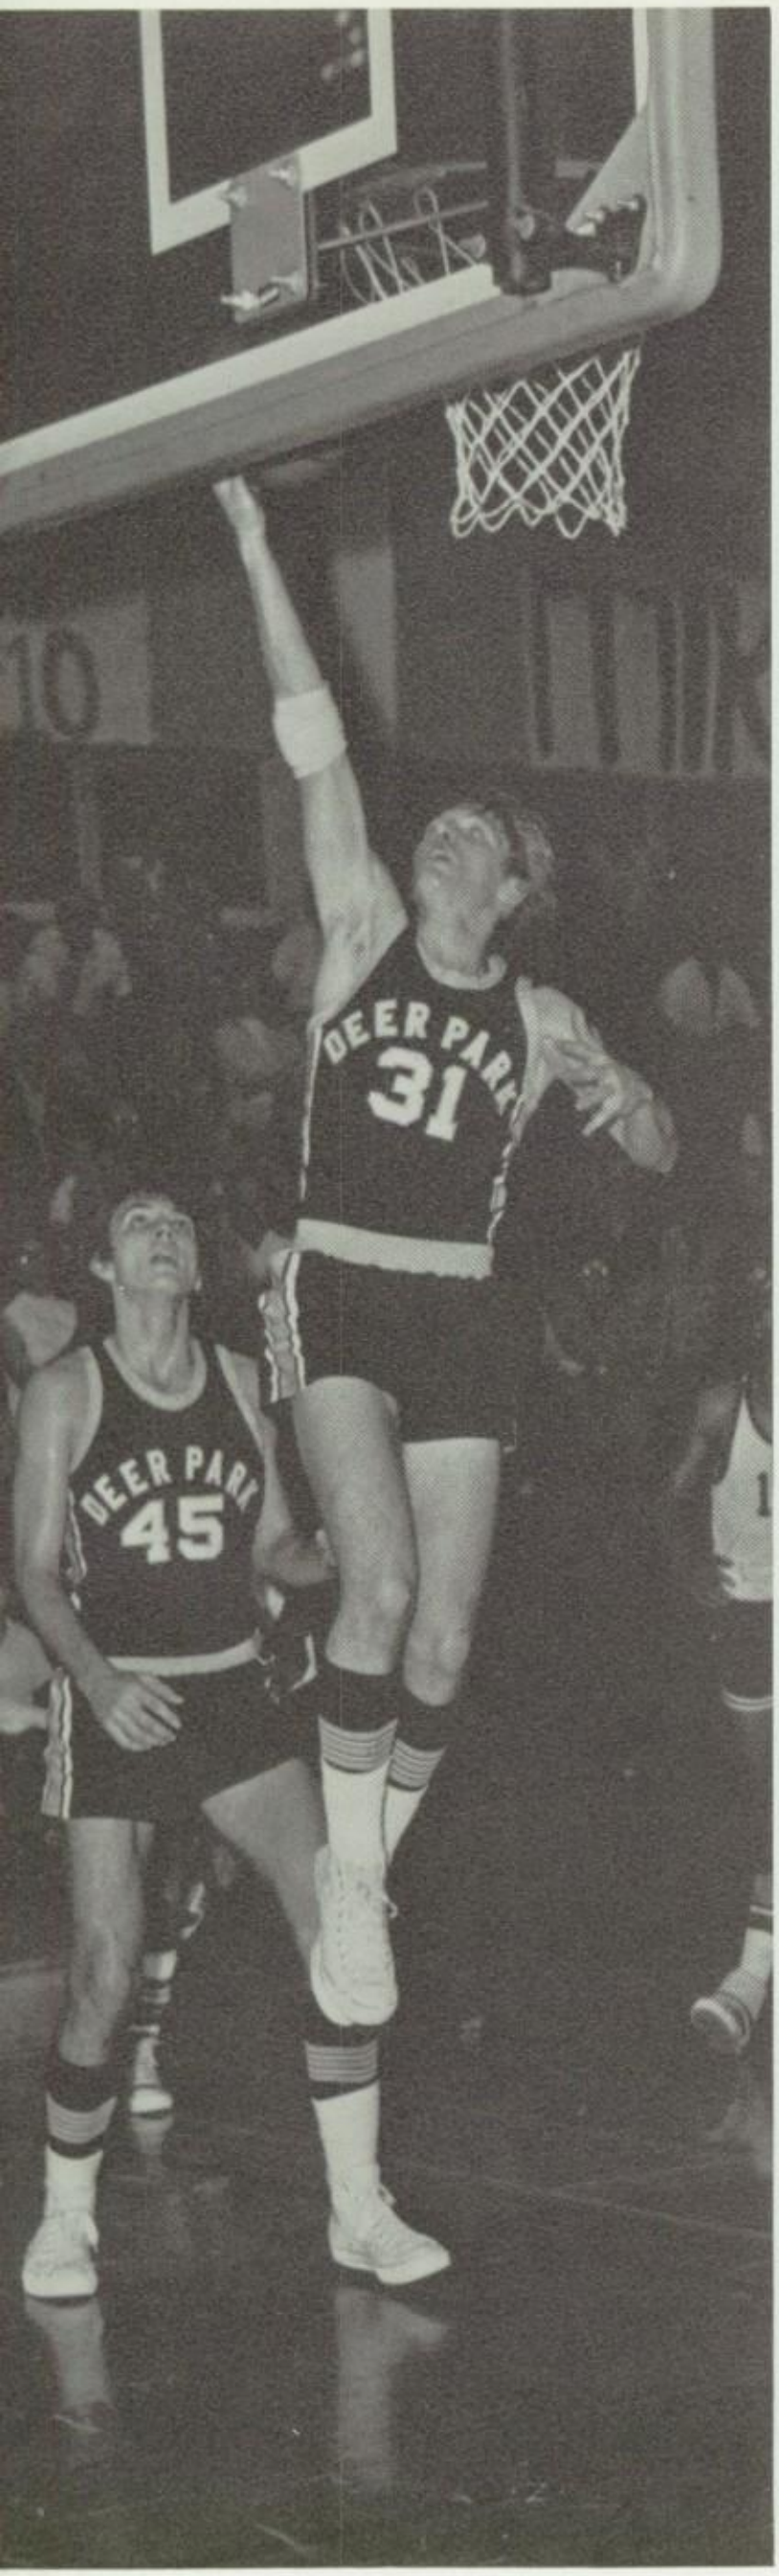


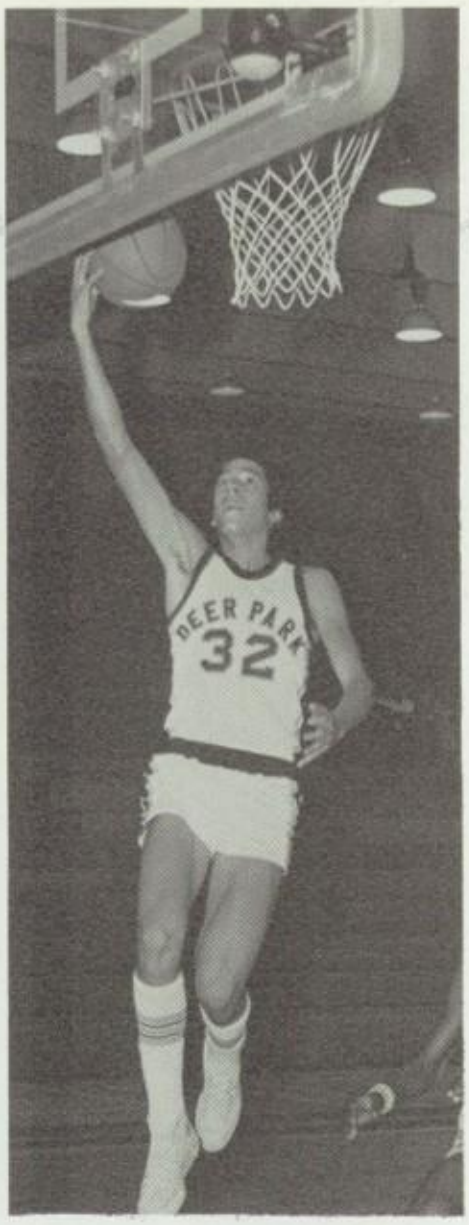
Returning three starters with another year's varsity experience and adding the quickness of two newcomers helped return the district crown to Deer Park. Before capping the crown, the state ranked Deer took a first in the Conroe Tourney, third in the Houston Jaycee Tourney, and a fourth in the San Jac Tourney.

Offensively, the Deer were led by John Failing's 260 points and following him are fellow All District first teamers seniors Terry Moore and Jimmie Griffey. Failing and Second Team All District guard Geetus Crew were one, two in assists with 70 and 69, respectively.

Utilizing the improved quickness and speed on the team, especially that of Griffey and junior Travis O'Banion, the Deer pressed opponents into turnover after turnover putting themselves in control of most games. Another factor which was a key to the team's success was the depth that senior Dennis Mitchell and junior Frank Dishongh provided. These two were counted on to come in and provide a lift to the team.







Six players earn honors

Senior John Failing expresses what Deer fans have felt all along. Failing was chosen third team All State by Texas sportswriters.

Battling against the Baytown Lee defender, Terry Moore releases his shot before it can be blocked.

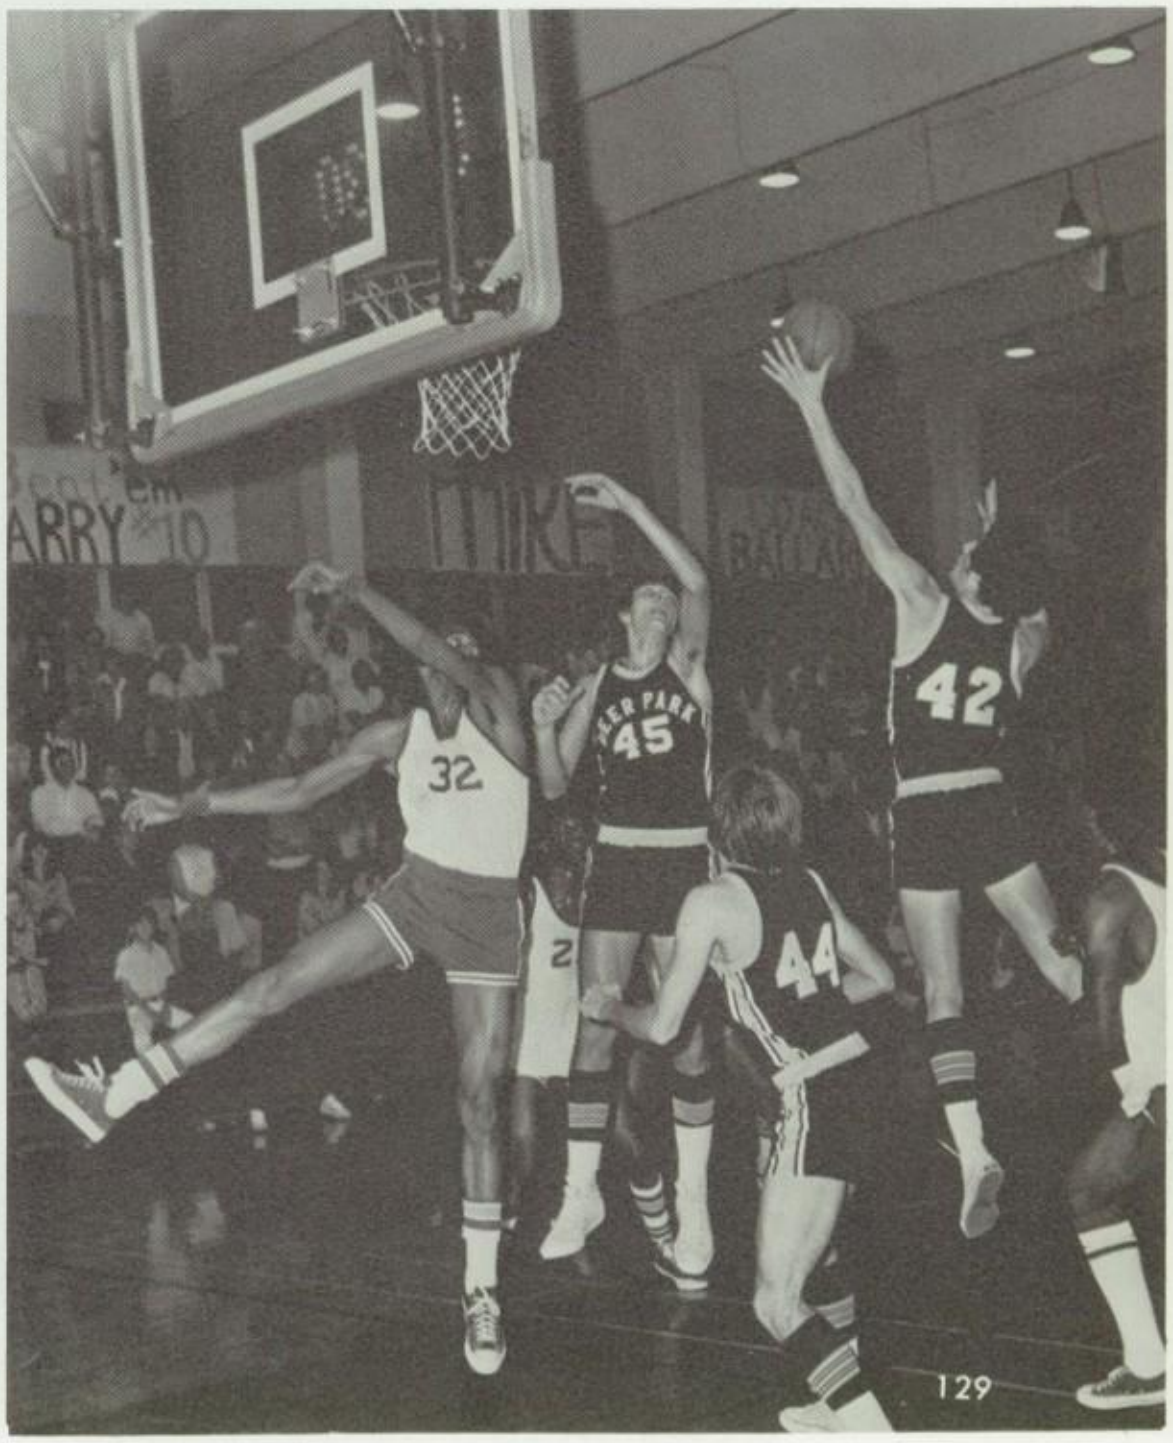
Working a full court press to perfection, senior Dennis Mitchell puts in an easy lay-up.

Jimmie Griffey soars to another basket. Griffey's sharpshooting and quickness made him an asset to the team's pre-season success.

Failing shows the type of play which enabled him to be named the most valuable player at the San Jacinto College Tournament.

Surrounded by Lee defenders, junior Frank Dishongh has hard time trying to handle the loose ball.

Moore's long reach enables him to haul in the long rebound as Failing and Travis O'Banion provide ready assistance.



Varsity outlasts Pasadena stall

Senior Dennis Mitchell finds himself trapped by the Eagle defense.

Third year varsity performer Geetus Crew harasses an Eagle cager.

John Failing kept the Deer on the boards with his tough rebounding.

Junior Frank Dishongh searches for an open man underneath the basket.

Tipping off district play and controlling it are the Deer Park five.

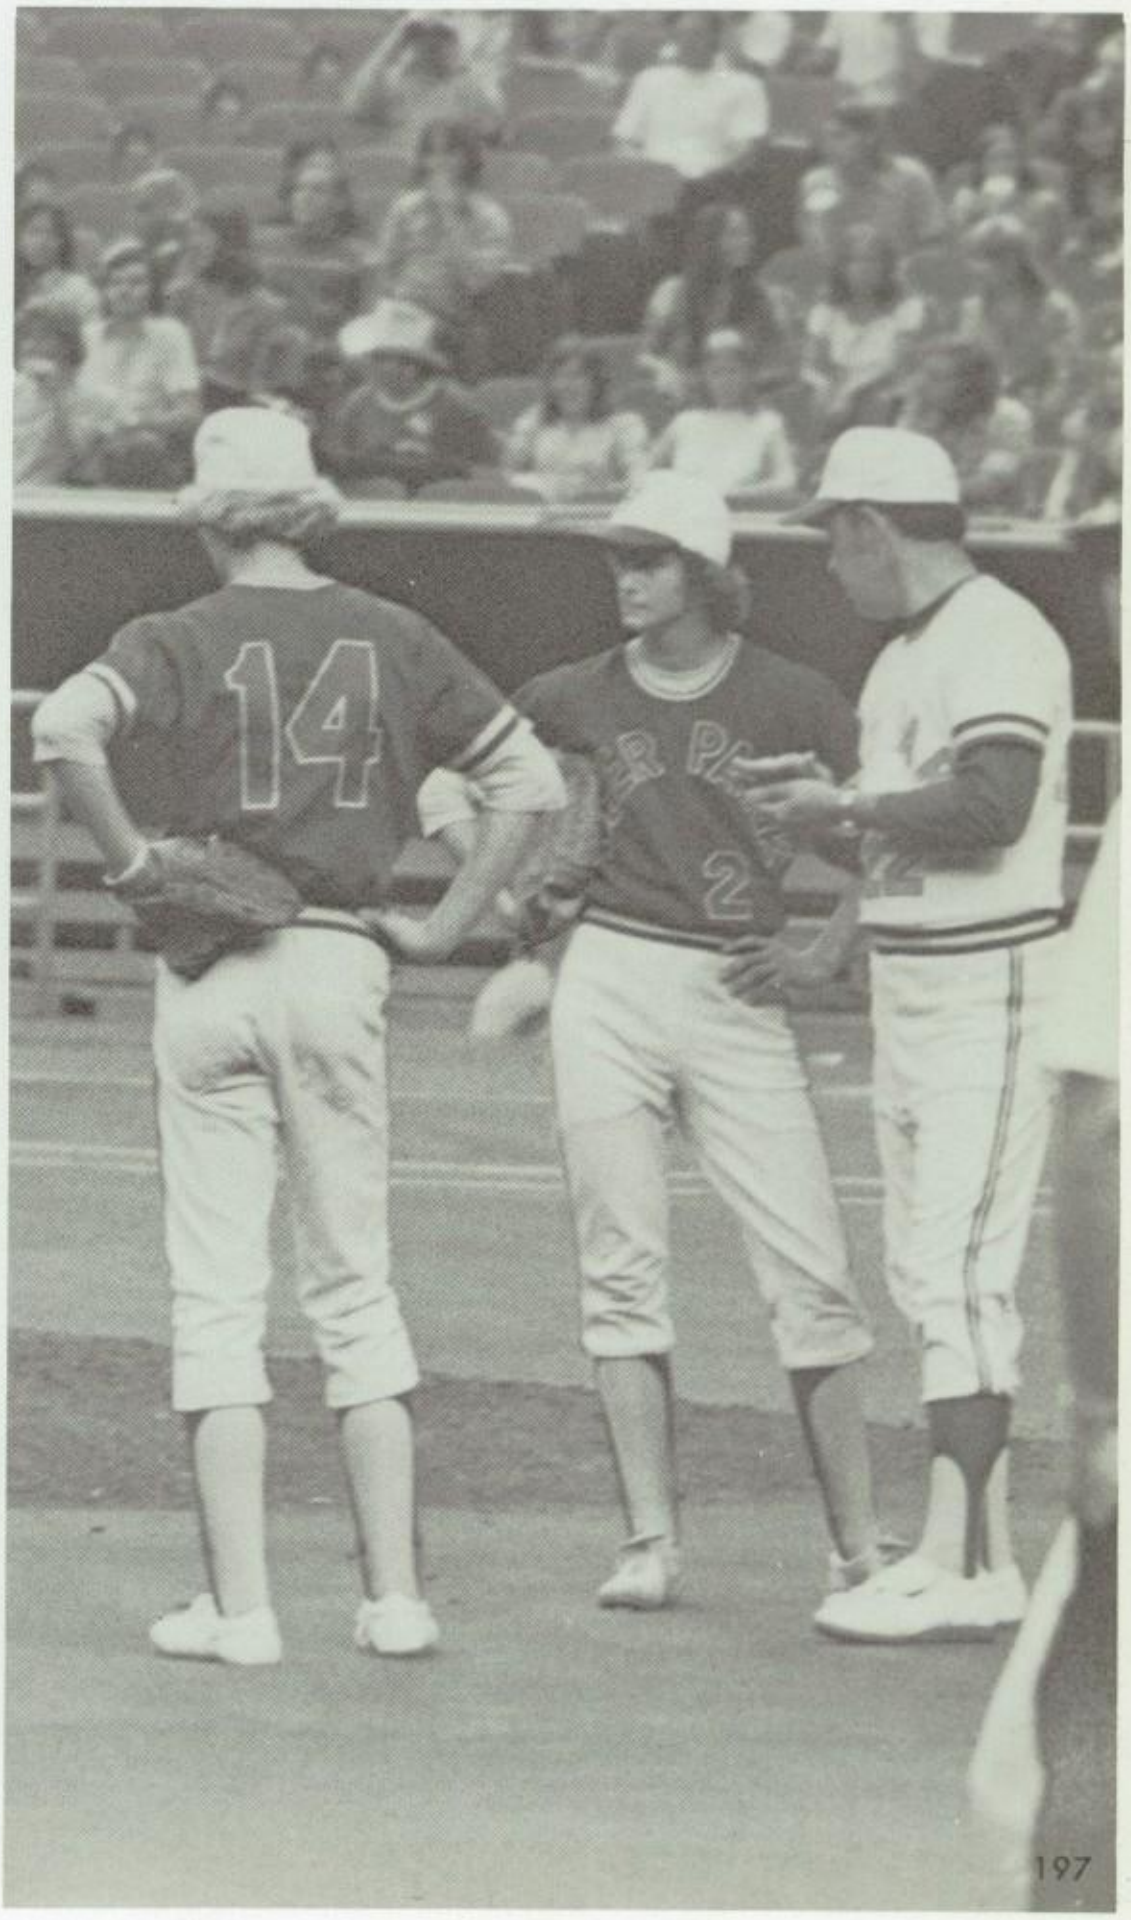
Foiled in his attempt for an inside the park homer, senior ace Duane Walker is tagged out at home.

Pitching in the second game of the Westbury doubleheader, Walker shakes off Knox's signals.

Westbury's four run sixth inning rally sank the Deer's hope for a series sweep. The Deer took the nightcap of the doubleheader 6-0 for the regional championship.

Coach Art Pettit confers with pitcher Wallace and third baseman Jimmy Liggett during the dome games.



Deer falter in Austin, shutout by South San

The starting nine gather around Coach Pettit before hitting the field.

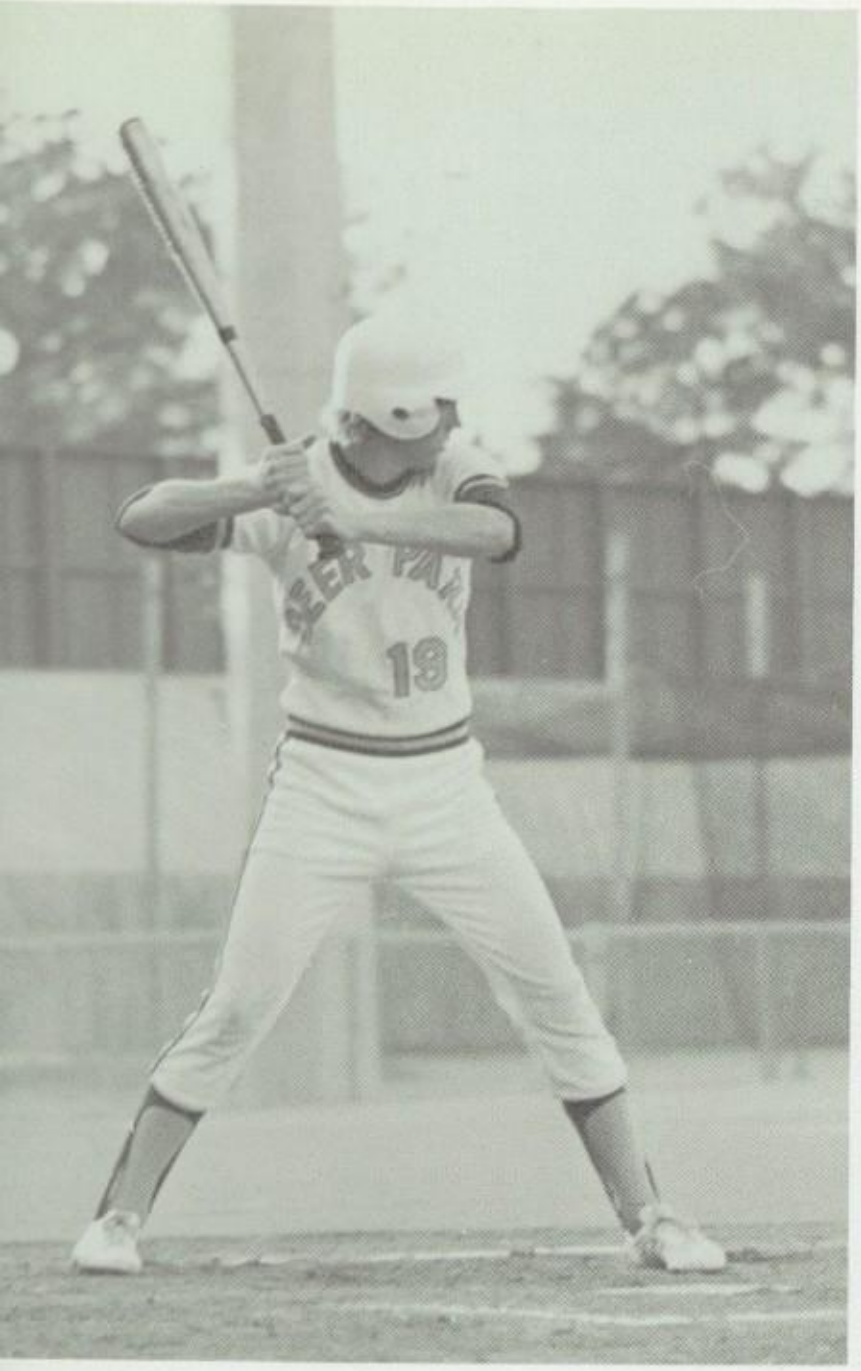
First baseman, Frank Dishongh waits for the South San pitch.

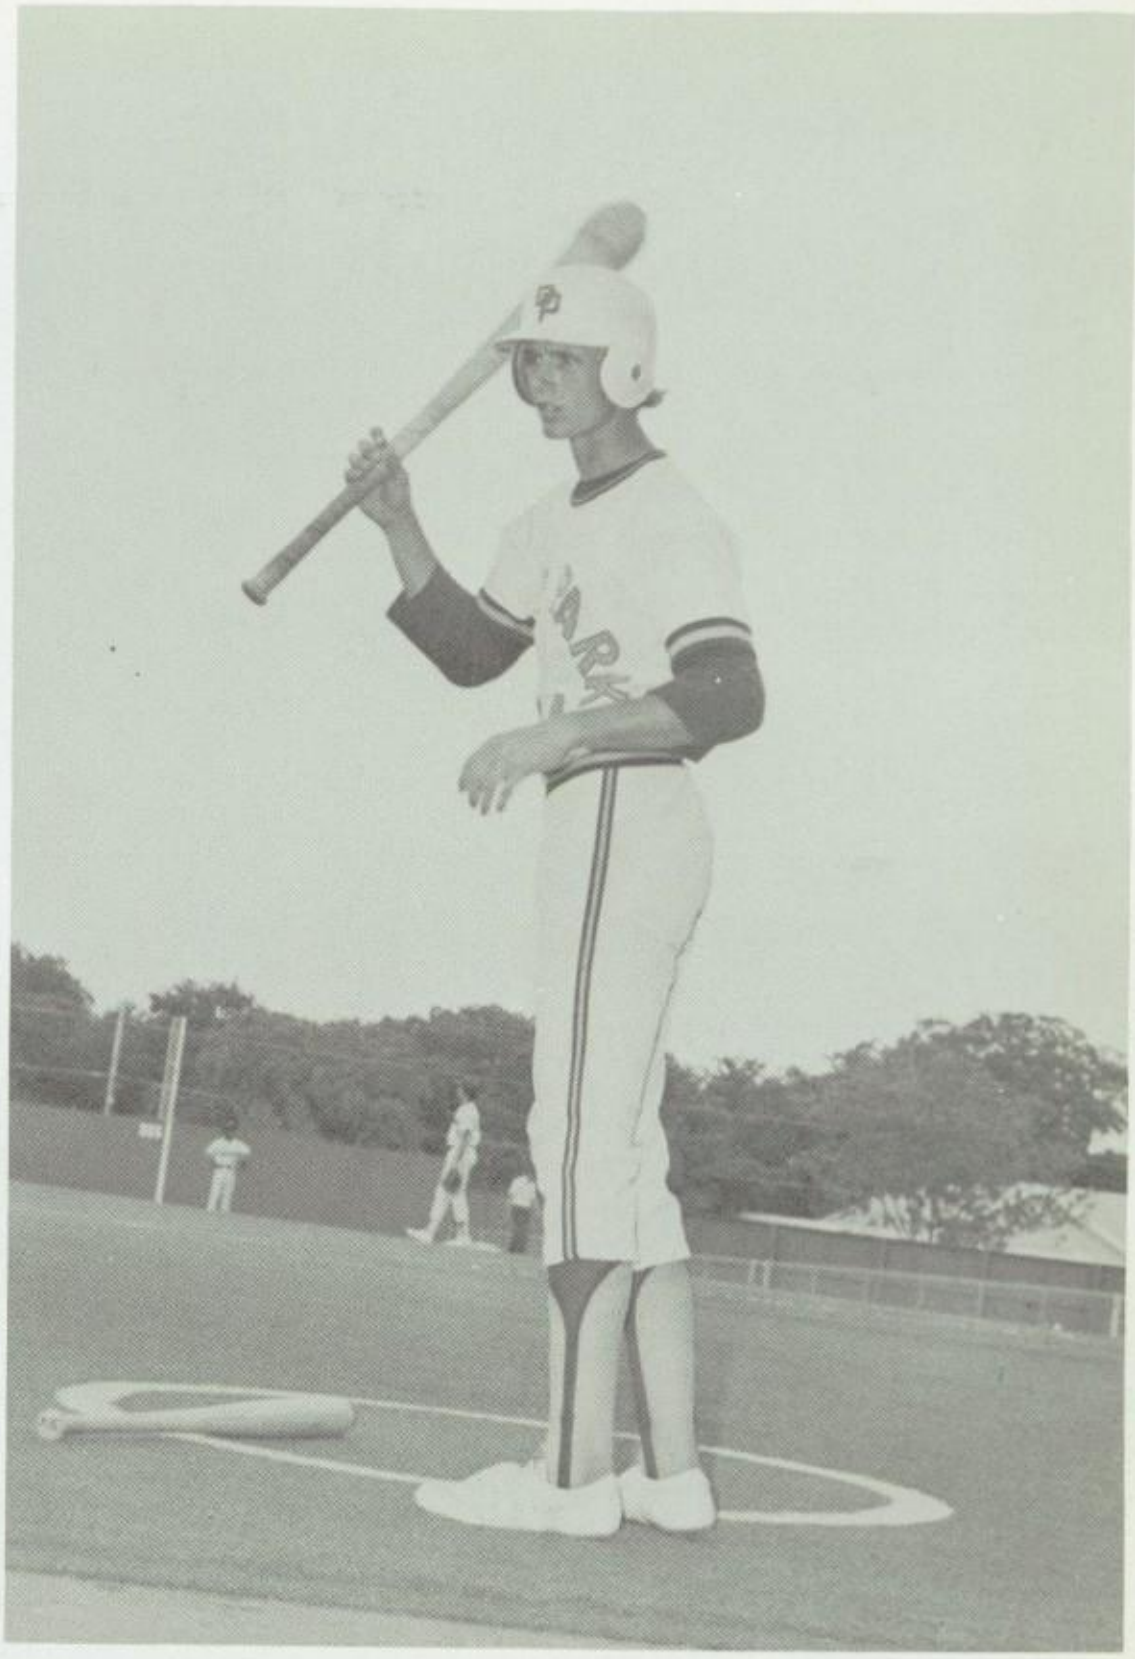
Senior Jimmy Liggett warms up on deck as the Deer come to bat.

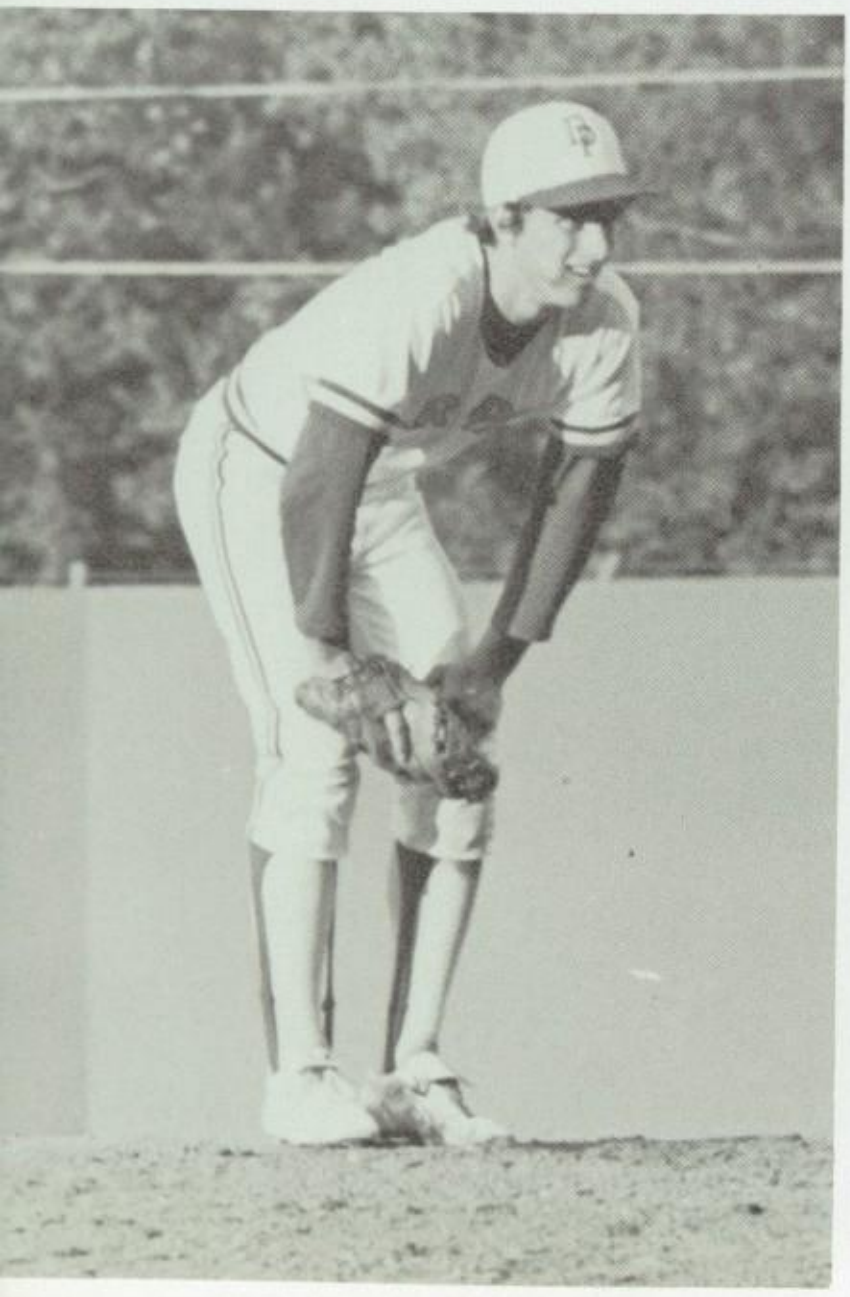
This year's varsity which advanced Deer Park to the state meet for the first time ever as a 4-A school were: 1st row Duane Mayberry, Tommy Knox, Mike Bounds, Doug Pettit, Alan Wallace, Robi Willis, Kenny Dickey, Bobby Dover, mgr.; 2nd row Cliff Griffin, Steve Blakely, Randy Riggle, Tim Cobb, Alan Karl, Norman Walker, Duane Walker; 3rd row Coach Chaloupke, Ken Williams, mgr., Pat Cook, Robert Riley, David Biehl, Jimmy Liggett, Ronnie Liggett, Larry Williams, mgr., and Coach Pettit.

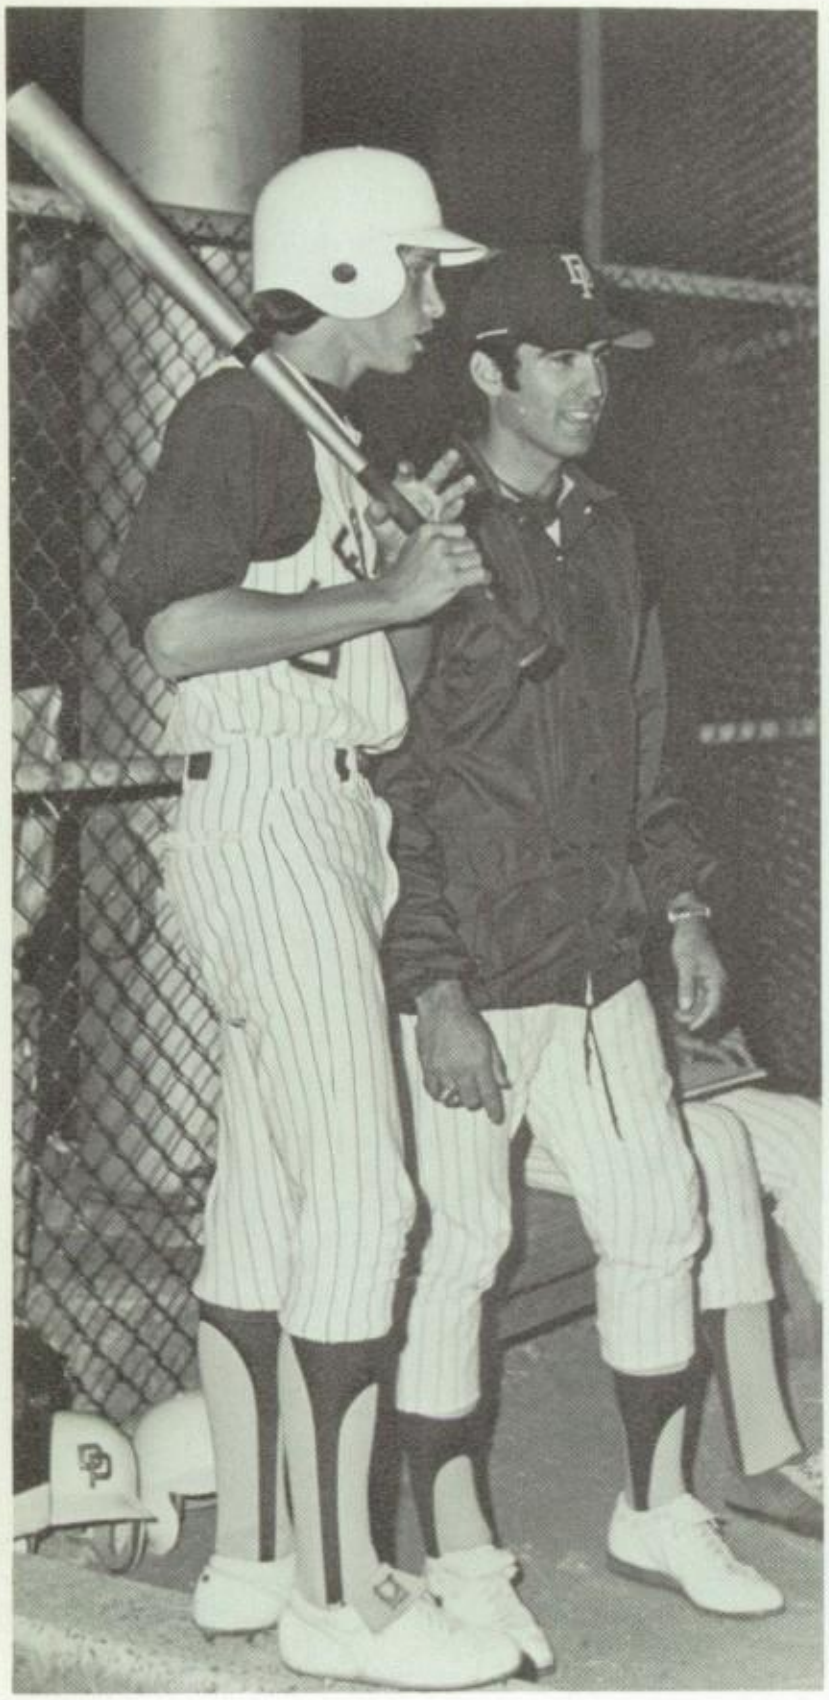
Duane Walker waits for Knox's signals from behind the plate. Back in time is senior Dennis Mitchell as he beats the pick off attempt.

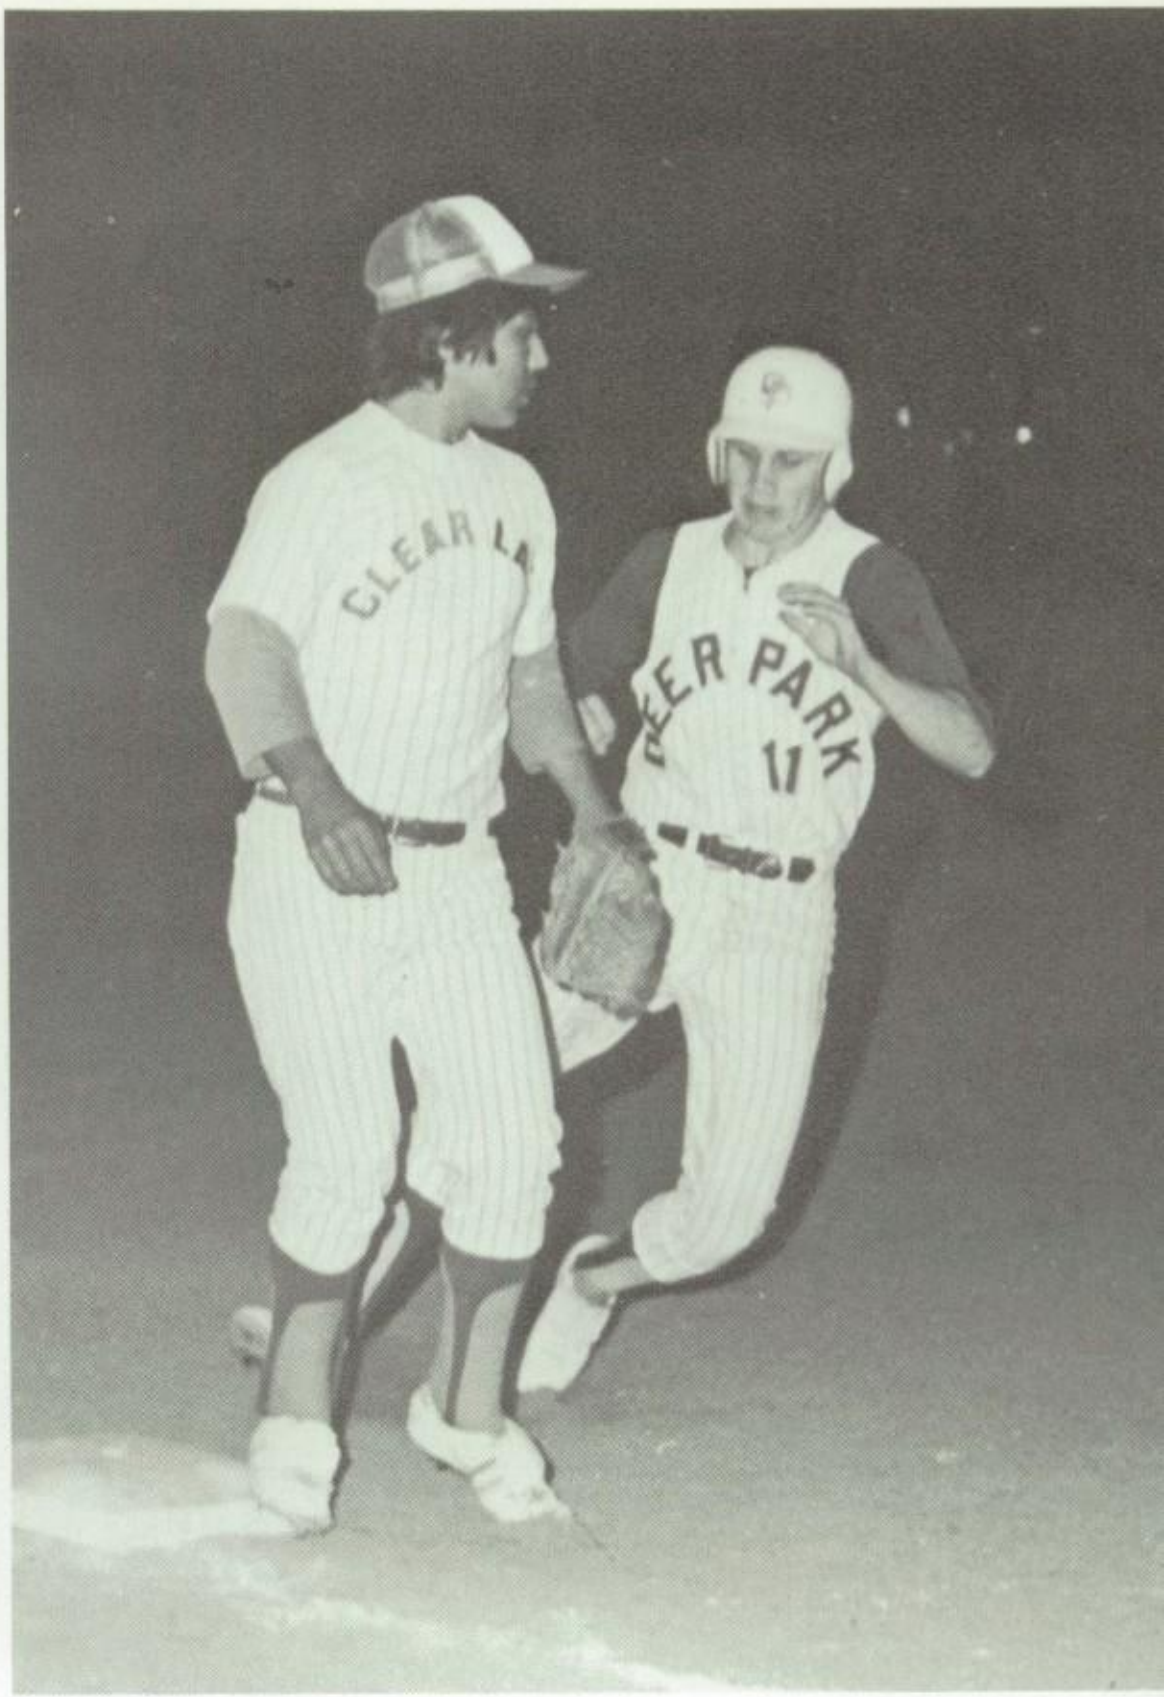
Ending the season with a 32-5 record and the title of state semi-finalist Coach Art Pettit's Deer finished two games shy of the state championship. The semi-final game proved to be a heartbreaker as the Deer lost a 1-0 decision to South San Antonio. Leaving men stranded on third base in each of the first four innings, the Deer failed to capitalize on early South San errors. Tommy Knox and Frank Dishongh were named to the All-State Tournament Team. Duane Walker and Knox were named 2nd Team All-State Selections.











JV's take Creek with Westmoreland homer,

Eyeing the bag, Allen Westmoreland prepares to round third base.

Catching the ball for a member of the pitching staff is sophomore catcher Russell Wood.

Standing on deck, Westmoreland awaits his turn at bat.

Baseball managers for the season include: Rickie Hebert, Kenny Williams, Larry Williams, and Bobby Dover.

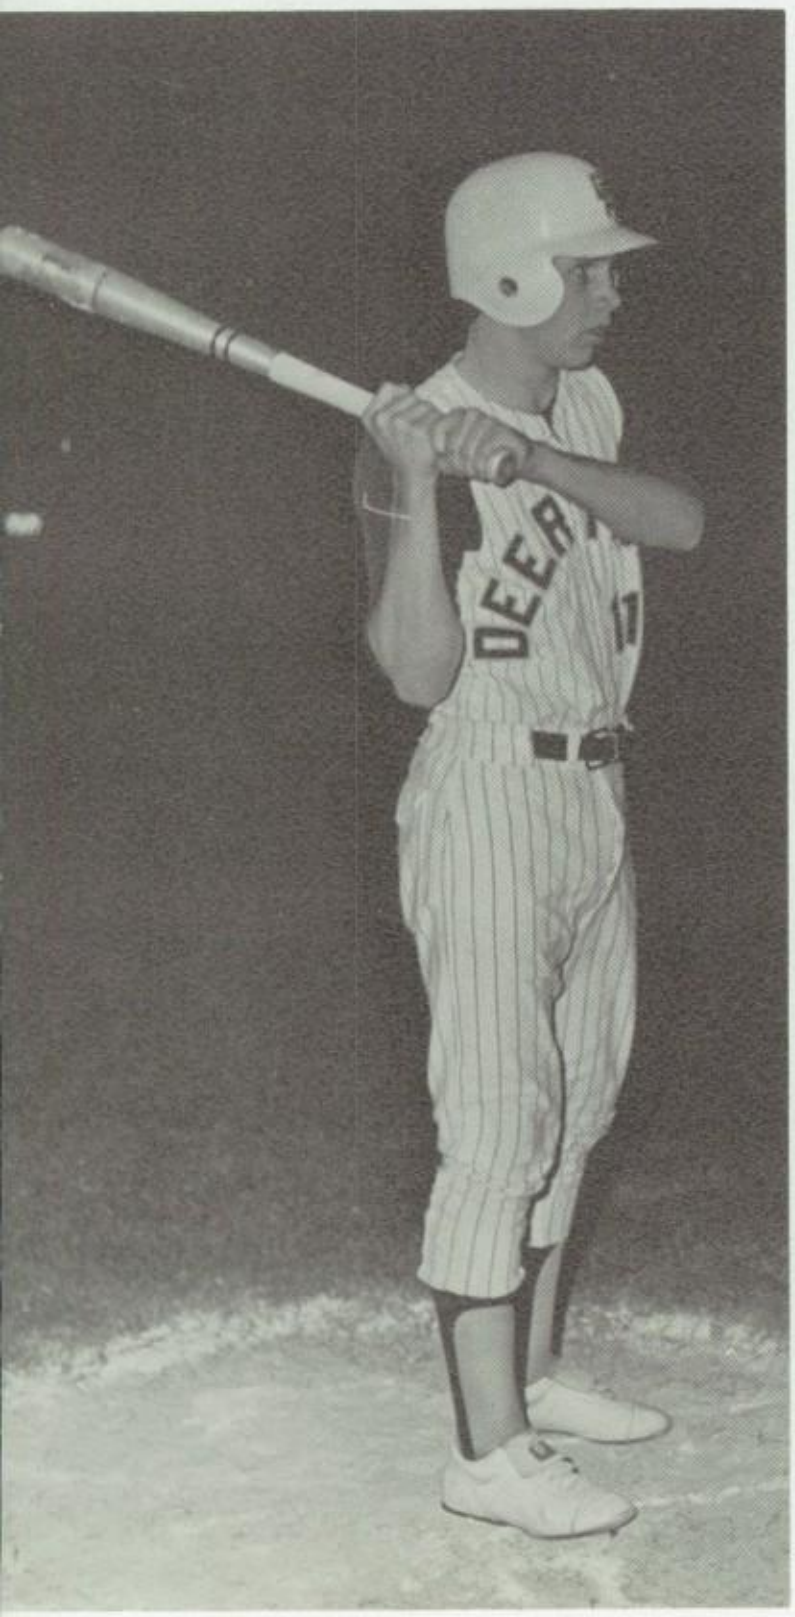
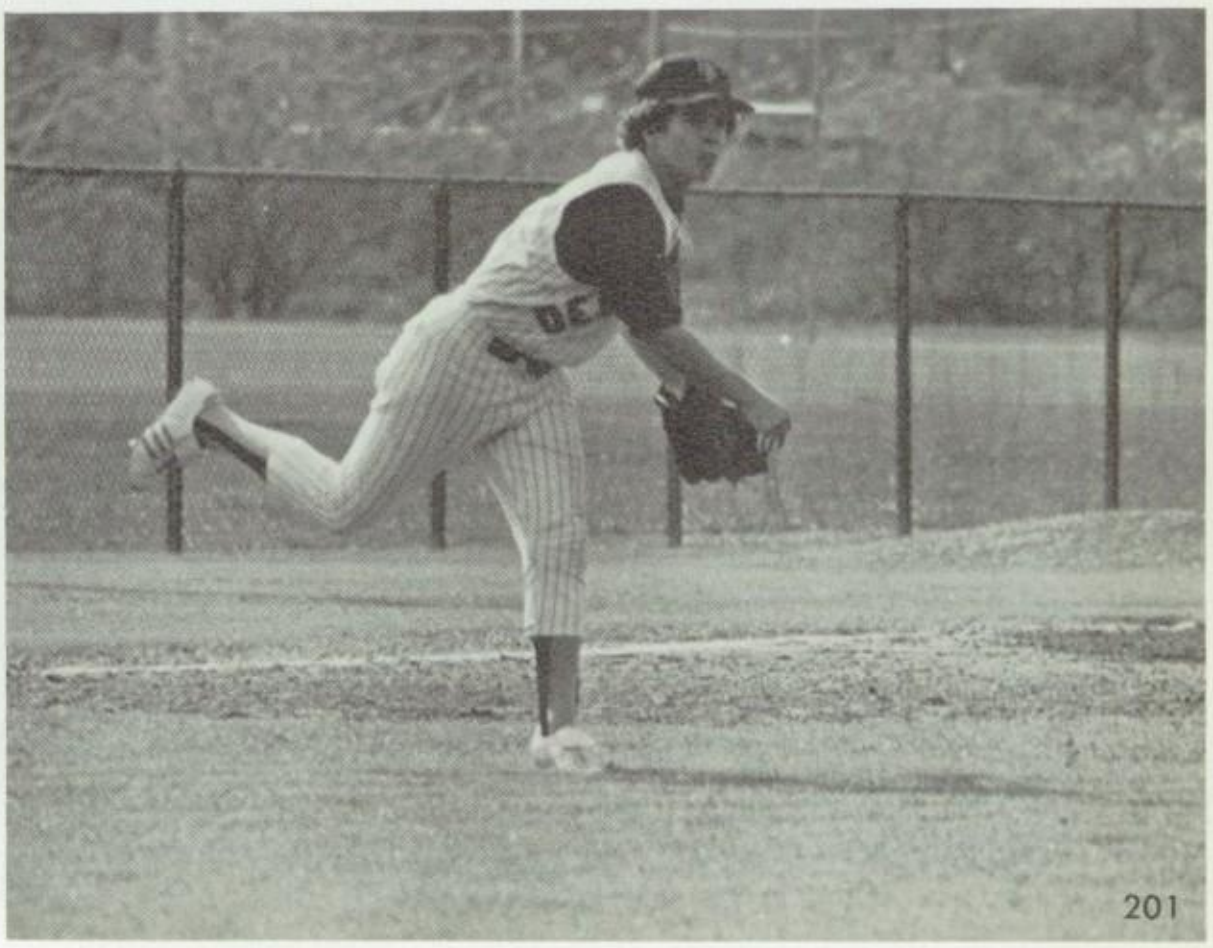
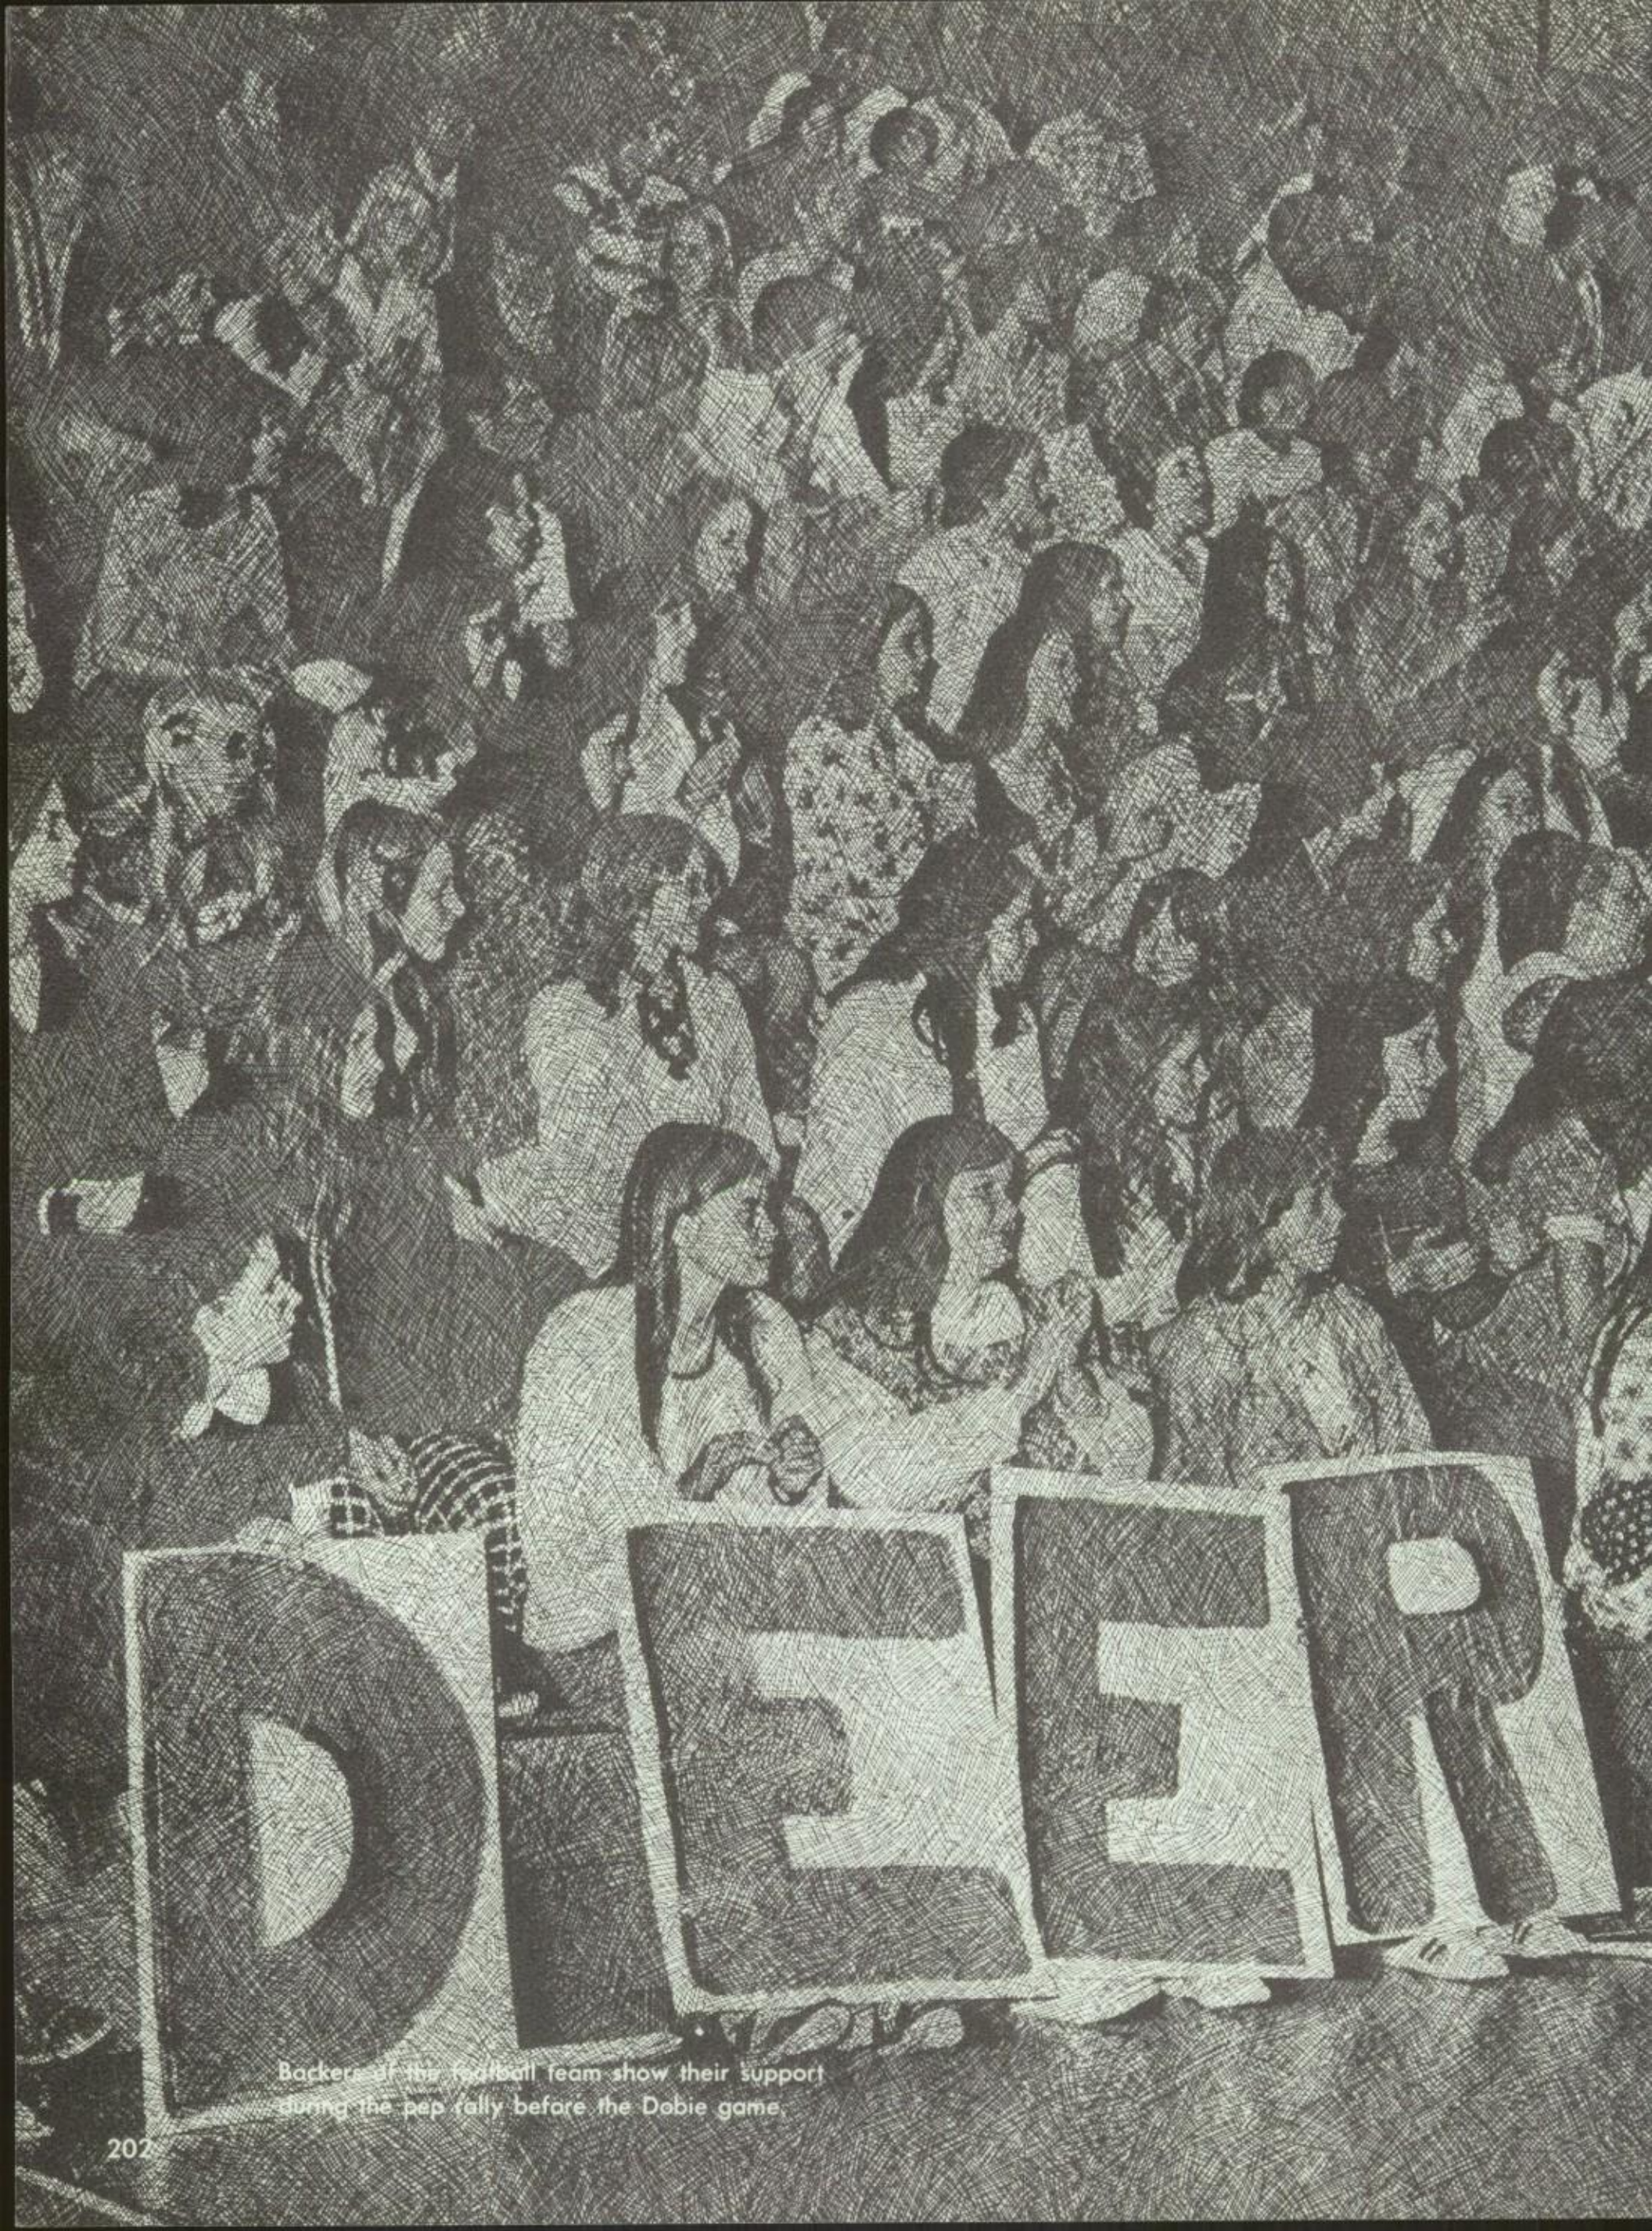
McDonald fires the ball to first for the out.

Ending district play with an 8-5 record and second in district, the J.V.'s prepared to help next year's varsity.

Top performances were turned in by pitchers Randy Westmoreland and Randy Long. Solidifying the defensive unit were David Kent, Mike McClennan, and David Pilkington. Greg McDonald and Westmoreland combined to be the top J.V. batsmen and rounding out the offensive campaign were Bill Moore, Russell Wood, and Kenny Parrish whose base running was a team plus.







Backers of the football team show their support during the pep rally before the Dobie game.

Valedictorian

Henry Krebs

95.9

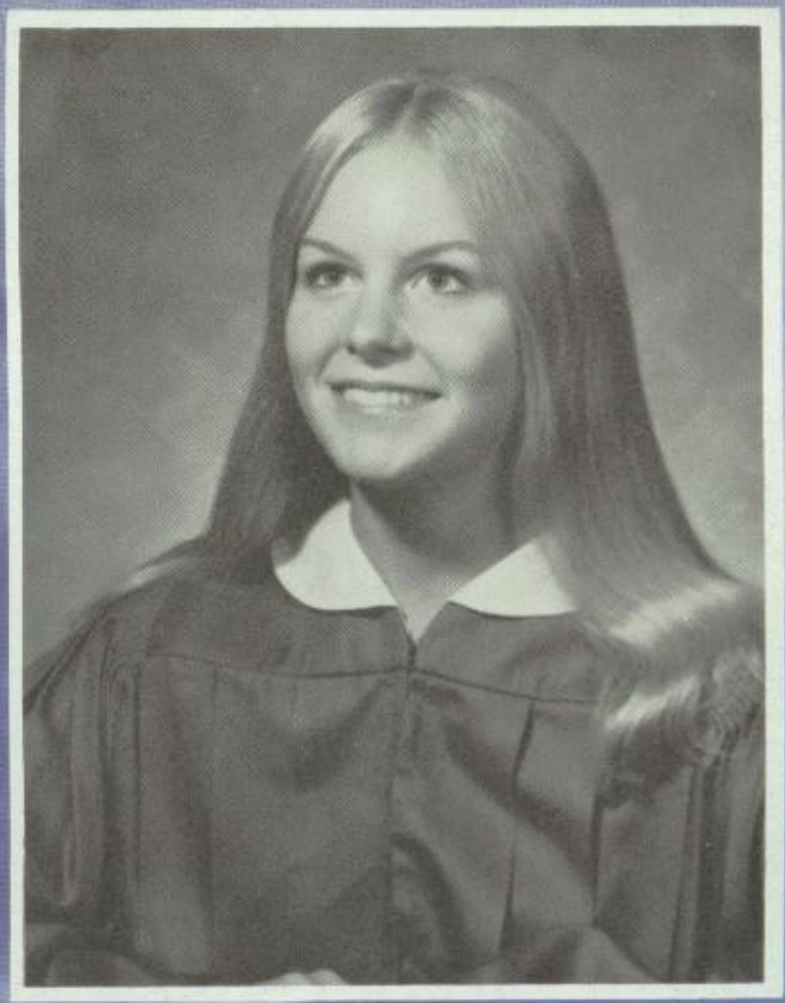
Know what you like and like what you know.

Salutatorian

Debi Milburn

95.63

The simple virtues of willingness, readiness, alertness, and courtesy will carry a young man farther than mere smartness.

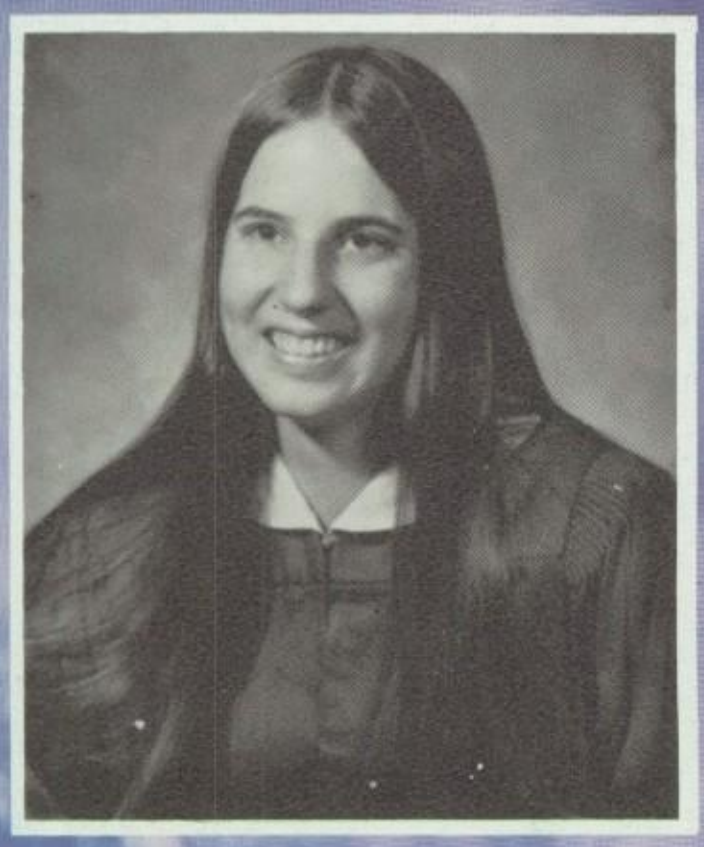


Twenty-one lead class

The honor of graduating magna cum laude is awarded to those seniors ranking in the top five percent of their class. This year, 21 students achieved this honor. Ranking highest in the class of 1975, Henry Krebs leads the graduates with a four year average of 95.9, and will give the valedictory address. Debi Milburn, ranking second with an average of 95.63, was honored as salutatorian. These students are recognized for their outstanding scholastic achievements during the graduation ceremony.

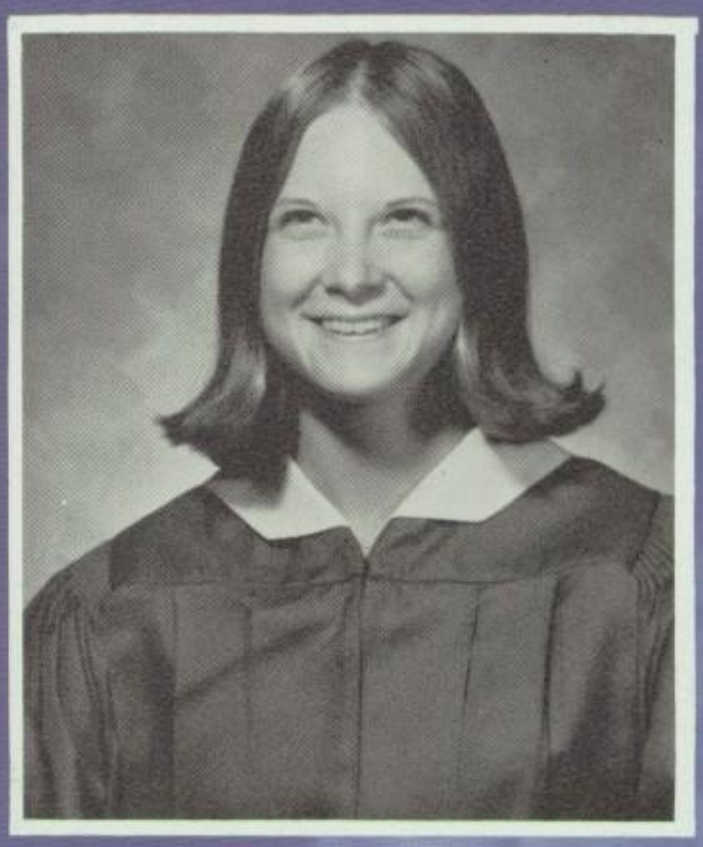
Rhonda Toombs
95.426

To be capable of honesty is the beginning of education; knowledge without integrity is dangerous and dreadful!



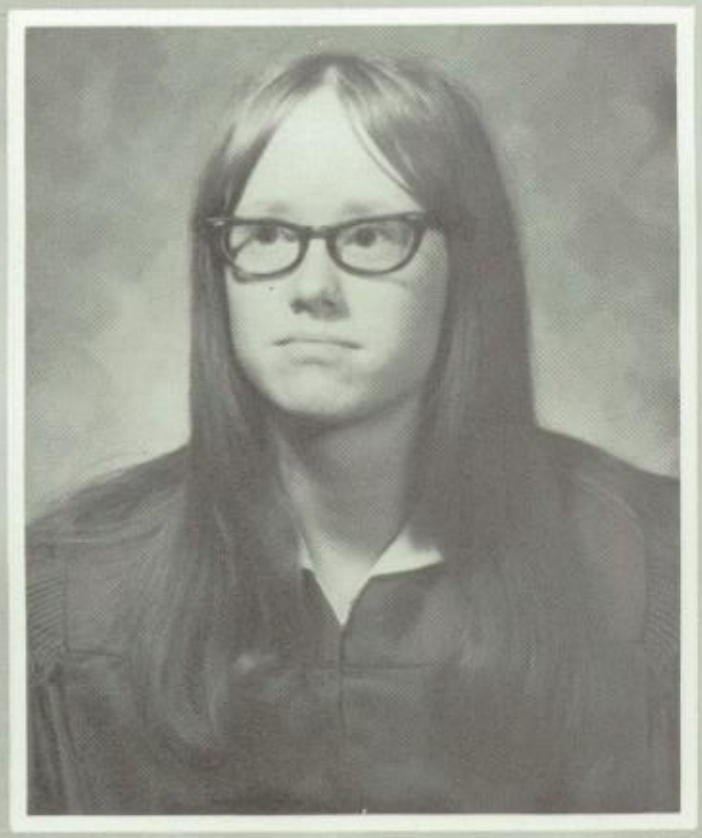
Leann Schulze
95.396

It matters not what you are thought to be, but what you are.



Christi Kelley
95.378

Your are unique, different from anybody else, and realizing this shall make you understand how important and valuable you are.

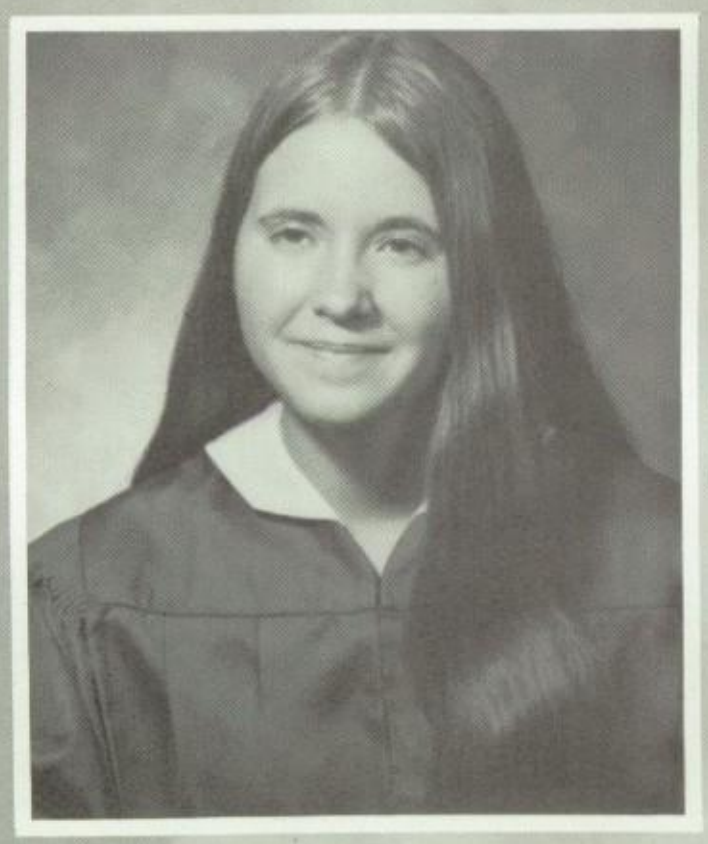


Denise Sandlin
94.844

And reach for the heavens, and hope for the future, and all that we can be, and not what we are.

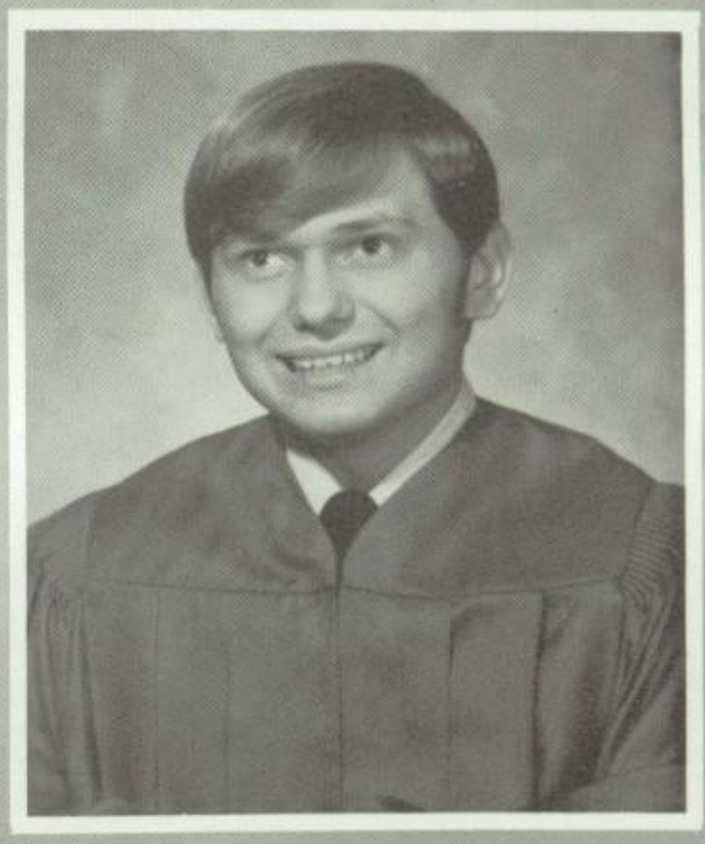
Pam Smith
94.717

How can man be wise? The only way to begin is by reverence for God. For growth in wisdom comes from obeying his laws . . . Psalms 111:10.



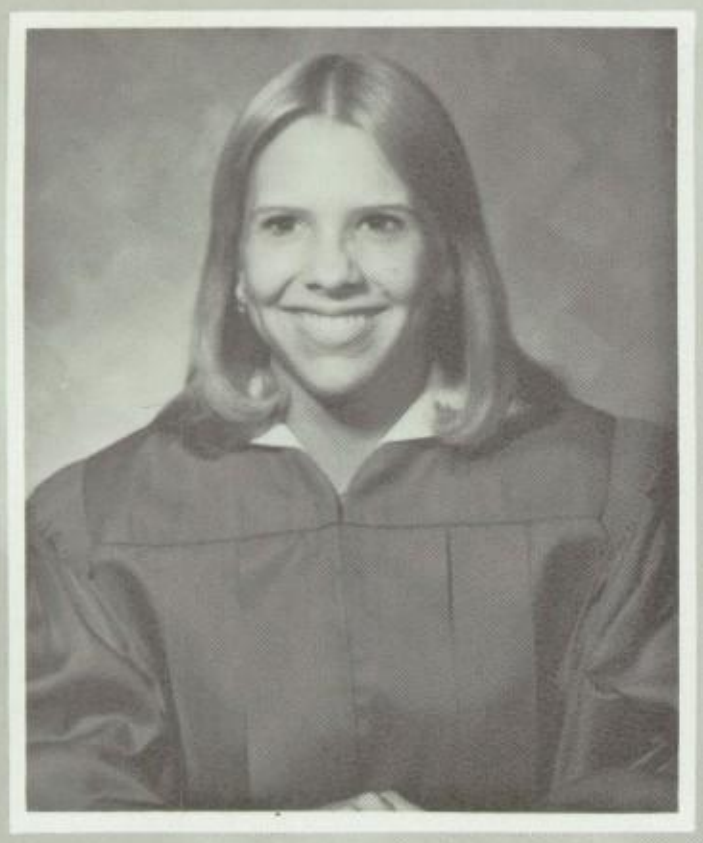
Cindy Linke
94.06

Ask, and it will be given you; seek, and you will find; knock, and it will be opened to you.



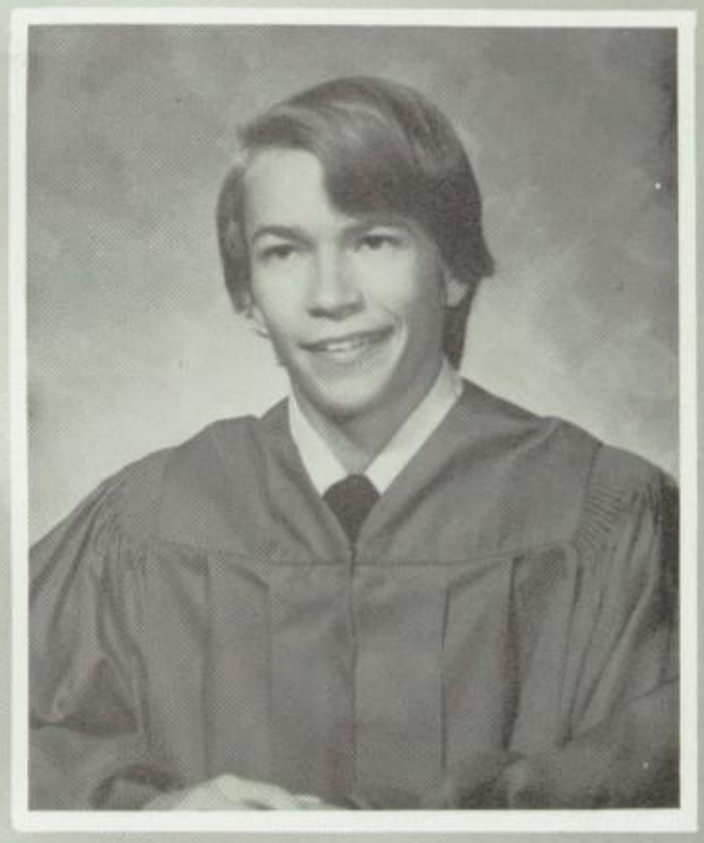
Rex Teter
94.047

Let us not look back in anger, nor forward in fear, but around in awareness.



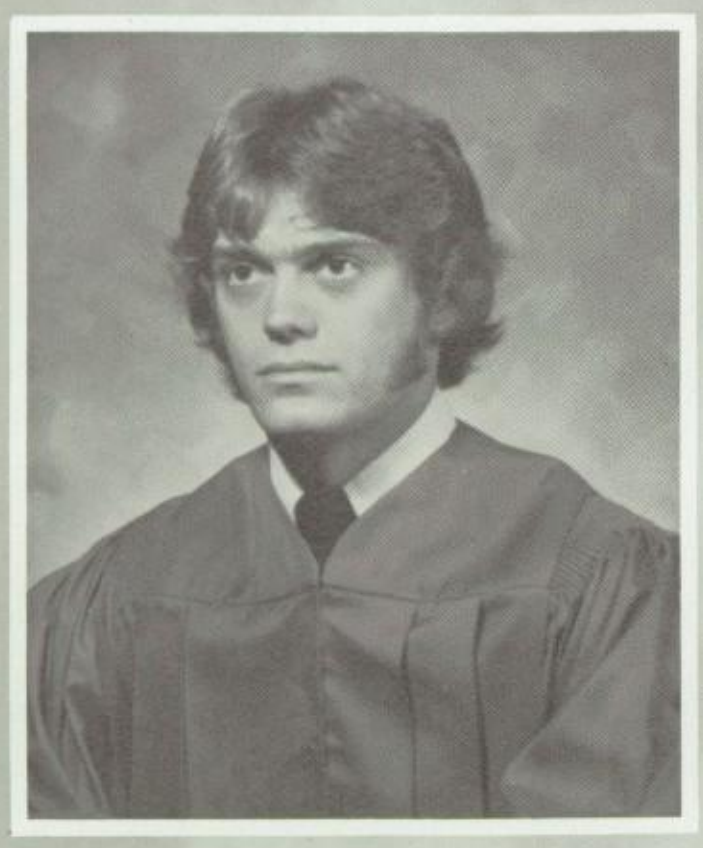
Dianne Skarke
94.5

Laugh and the world laughs with you; cry and you cry alone.



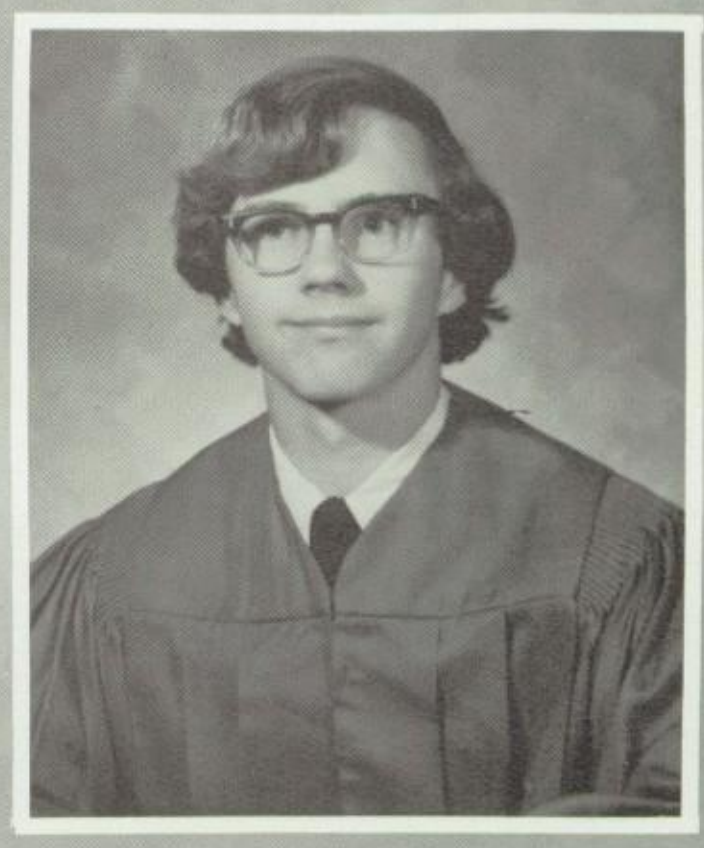
Rudy Stefancik
94.205

I would rather live in a world where my life is surrounded by mystery than live in a world so small that my mind could comprehend it.



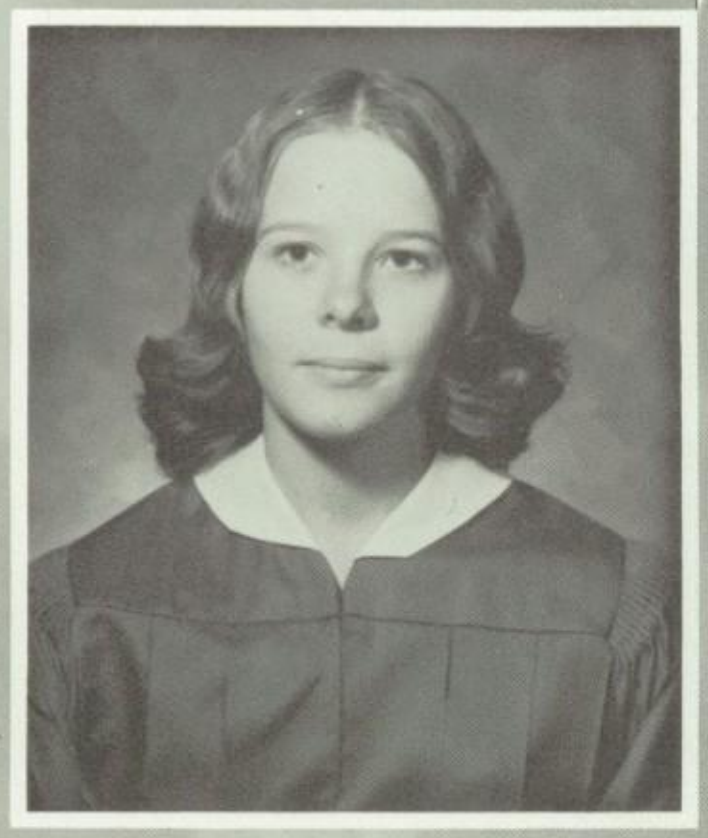
David Bourgeois
93.804

It's better to reach for the stars and partially succeed than to remain on the ground and dream.



Wayne Baggett
93.317

Courage is often no more than the ability to keep going ahead. Those who don't have it turn aside, or quit altogether.



Sharon Haase
93.178

It is difficult to say what is impossible, for the dream of yesterday is the hope of today and the reality of tomorrow.

Janie Williams
93.149

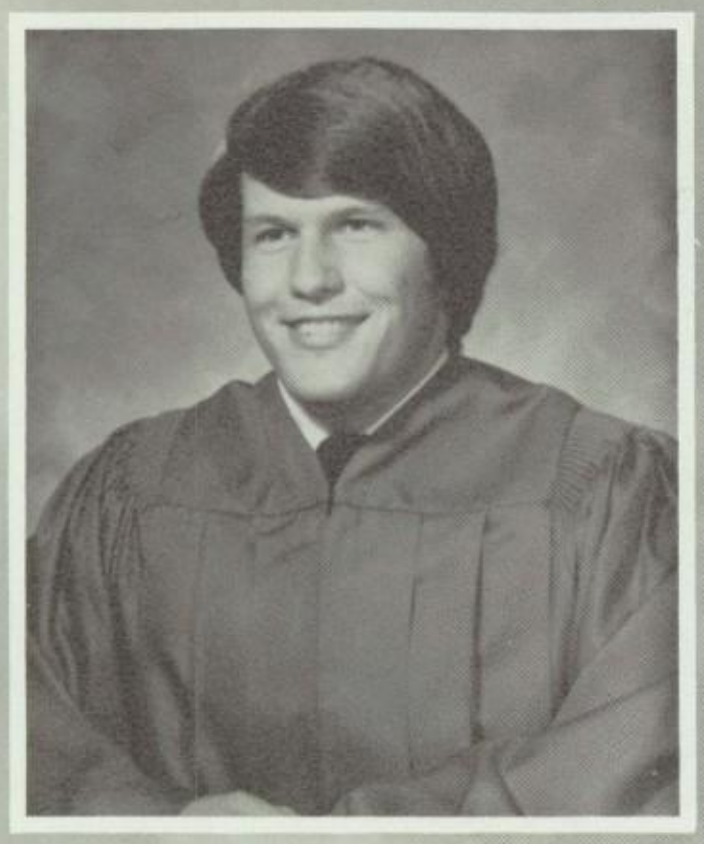
The important thing is this: to be able at any moment to sacrifice what we are for what we would become.

Jolene Livingston
92.45

If something is worth doing, it is worth doing well.

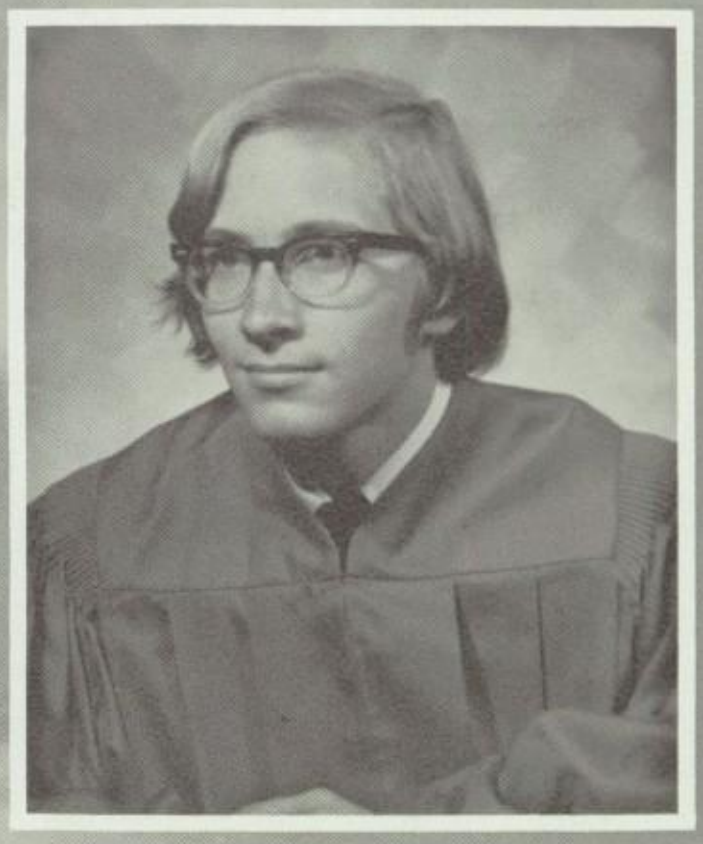
Ruthie Brister
92.409

And how abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity. I Corinthians 13:13



Mickey McGhee
92.727

If I am not I, who will be?

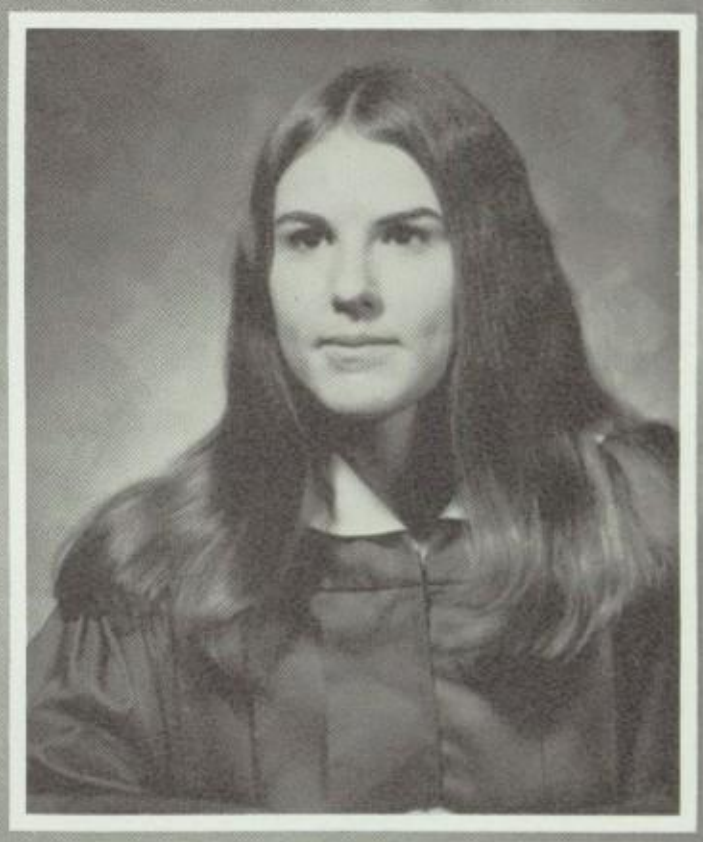


Bobby Black
92.58

He who requires urging to do a noble act will never accomplish it.

Debra Gilbertson
92.122

Whoso keepeth his mouth and his tongue, keepeth his soul from troubles.



Nancy Flint
92

Kitchen Knowledge

Senior Ann Trantham selects the appropriate temperature in an effort to prepare turkey gravy in second period Foods II.

Senior production proves successful

The Wizard of Oz, Rudy Stefancik, presents the cowardly lion, Lance Lichnerowicz, a medal for bravery.

Watching Dorothy put on her ruby slippers are the Munchkins including Valerie Brzovskis, Patty Gallik, Crystal Withrow, Patrice Jordon, Lisa Horn, Mary Nasso, and Sandra Wilkinson.

Upon Dorothy's arrival, the good witch Melinda, Debbie Waits, descends from the sky.

Boq and Zoq, Henry Krebs and Becky Blaylock, point at the house that landed on the witch.

Mike Ritter as Verdo, the Wizard's guard, objects as the Wizard's maid Jade, Pam Smith, attempts to trim his beard.

Beth Sherbrook, as Glinda, good witch, explains the magic of the ruby slippers.

The tin woodsman, Loyd Jackson, the cowardly lion, Mark Lewis, Dianne Skarke as Dorothy, and Marlin Fenn as the scarecrow, begin their journey to the Land of Oz.

In her castle, the wicked witch of the west, Debbie Niblack, schemes with her faithful cast, Tina Fincher, Janet Younger, Rosemary Norman, and Leslie Taylor.

Hyatt Regency creates Senior Prom setting

Due to the success of the Senior Play, the prom was held at the Hyatt Regency, with the prices of tickets kept reasonable.

Having been chosen prior to the prom, the senior song, "I've Been Searching So Long," was sung during the traditional ring-turning ceremony.

Nancy Flint, senior and junior Forrest Pennington observe the dancers.

Donna White and Butch Henderson, seniors, share a smile as they discover that you don't have to dance to have a good time.

Senior Gary Stepp and his date sophomore Sharla Underwood, conclude the ring-turning ceremony with the traditional kiss.

Senior Tim Junek, serving as master of ceremonies, announces the winners of Mr. and Miss Deer Park, David Bourgeois and Debi Milburn.

During dinner, seniors Joe Hughes, Nita Smith, Jana Strother, and Greg Michael, enjoy food and conversation.

Senior Melinda Williams and her escort, Mack Reid, discuss the prom.

Marva Thompson, senior, turns senior Glenn Hudson's class ring.

Sherry Wilson and Rudy Stefancik, seniors, participate in the ring-turning ceremony.

Senior Susan Gann and her date, Robert Young, watch as the band, Heather Black, performs.

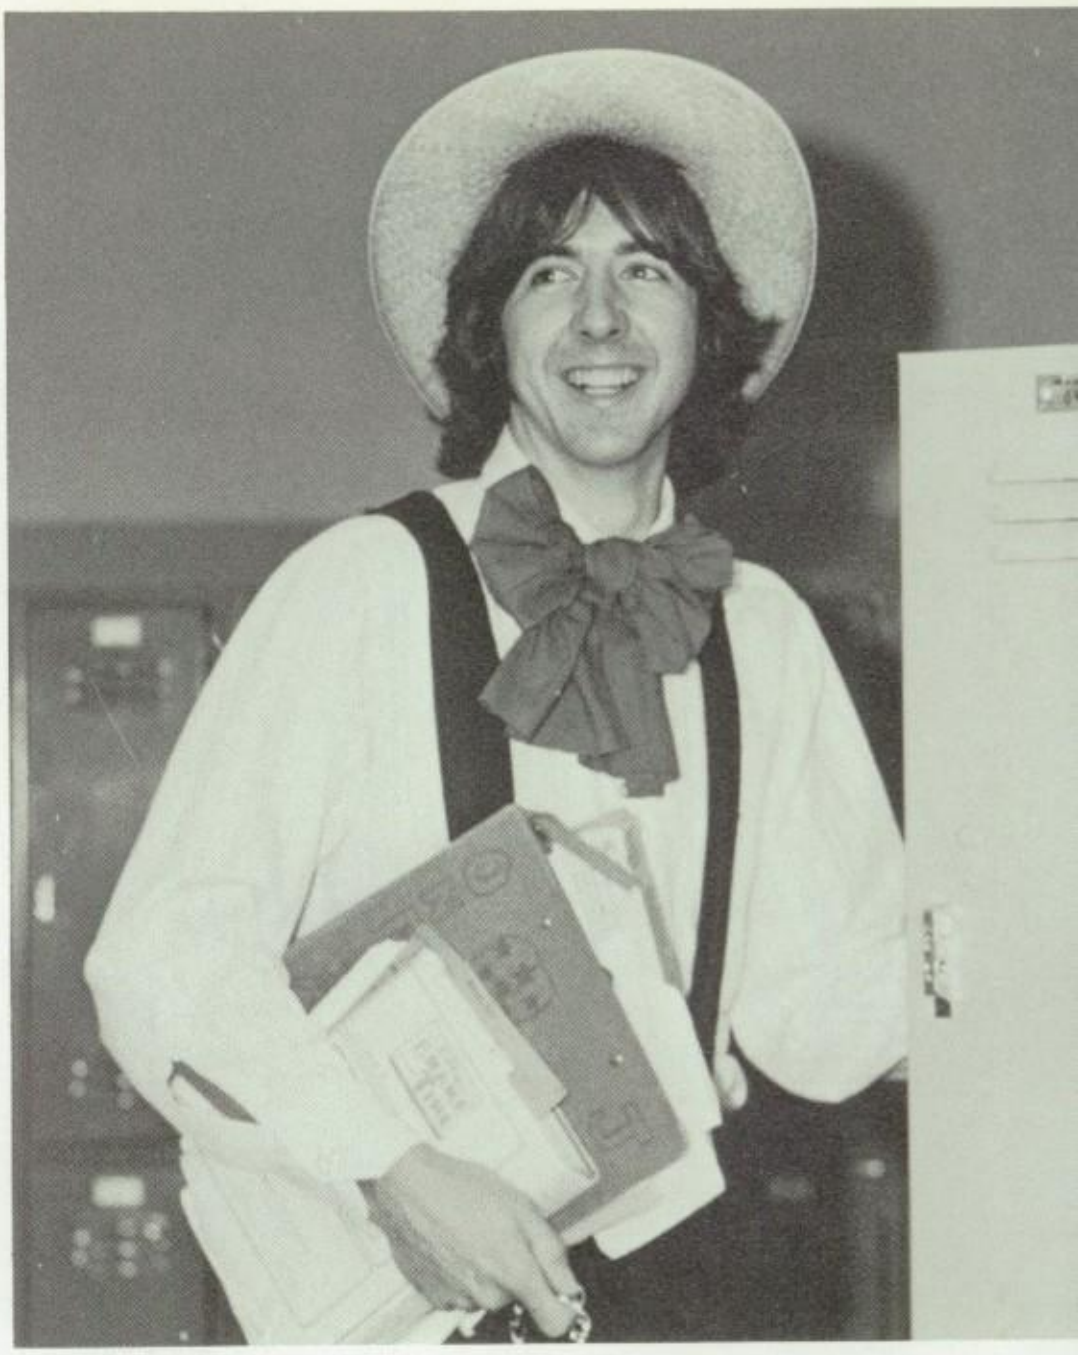
Seniors relive childhood days

On May 9, Senior Kid Day, students were allowed to dress in child-like attire. Many senior "kids" brought toys, suckers, and stuffed animals to complete their outfits. The day was one of excitement as seniors showed imagination and originality in their dress. Although this was a day of fun and games, the classes, tests, and homework were not suspended.



Dressed as the character Buster Brown, senior Loyd Jackson pauses at his locker.

Remembering her childhood days, Rosalinda Bazan strolls down the mall.

Seniors Dianna Willis, Tina Fincher, Barbie Hancock, Susie Tanner, Debbie Vaughan, Kathy Gerdes, and Cheryl Dayton, look with amusement at the other outfits worn by their classmates.

Jimmy Liggett and Sammy Quisenberry, seniors, participate in Kid Day activities by playing football in the mall.

Senior Shelia Williams enjoys the special day of fun, set aside for the senior class.

Lunchtime can also be playtime as illustrated by seniors Mike Mills, Dianne Skarke, Gary Atkinson, and Morris Wood.

Carrying her giant teddy bear with her during the day, Cindy Erwin is clothed in her version of juvenile dress.

Judges select Horn, Bourgeois

On the afternoon of Feb. 20, a tea was hosted by the Journalism Department in order to allow an opportunity for the 26 candidates and the five judges to get acquainted. During this time, the judges and candidates talk informally. Preliminary judging is made at the tea.

After the tea, the contestants were given time to prepare for the evening wear presentation. Couples appeared on stage and were rated on poise, personality, and appearance. Winners include: fourth runners-up, Kelle Wooster and Gary Cornelius; third runners-up, Beth Sherbrook and Tommy Knox; second runners-up, Pam Leonard and Danny Wingo; first runners-up, Debbie Milburn and Butch Henderson; with Lisa Horn and David Bourgeois reigning as Most Beautiful and Most Handsome, respectfully.

Senior Greg Hayman presents a bouquet to Lisa while David waits to escort her to their spot on stage.

Lisa Horn and David Bourgeois stand with the runners-up after the winners have been announced.

Thirteen couples vie for title

Winners of the contest, Lisa Horn and David Bourgeois, will receive a $100 scholarship to the college of their choice. Lisa plans to major in special education while David hopes to enter the medical field. The contest is sponsored by the journalism department, who presents the awards.

Semi-finalist Beth Sherbrook gives her opinion of what the tooth fairy looks like.

In answer to the question, "What are the advantages of being a small football player?" senior Tommy Knox answers, "Running through people's legs."

Lisa and David are named Most Beautiful and Most Handsome with Butch and Debbie as first runners-up.

Senior David Bourgeois escorts Mary Nasso during the presentation.

Journalism students Teresa Gibowski and Carolyn Thompson, juniors, sell tickets for the Most Beautiful, Most Handsome Contest held Feb. 20.

Senior Tim Junek was emcee at the Contest. Tim asks semi-finalist Pam Leonard what the most important hour of the day is for her. Each semi-finalist answers a question, althouth it is not counted heavily in the final judging.

Junior Kandy Parish, chairman of the tea, serves punch to contestant Sandra Wilkinson. The tea is a time designed to allow judges and contestants a time to get acquainted.

Ten finalists anxiously await questioning.

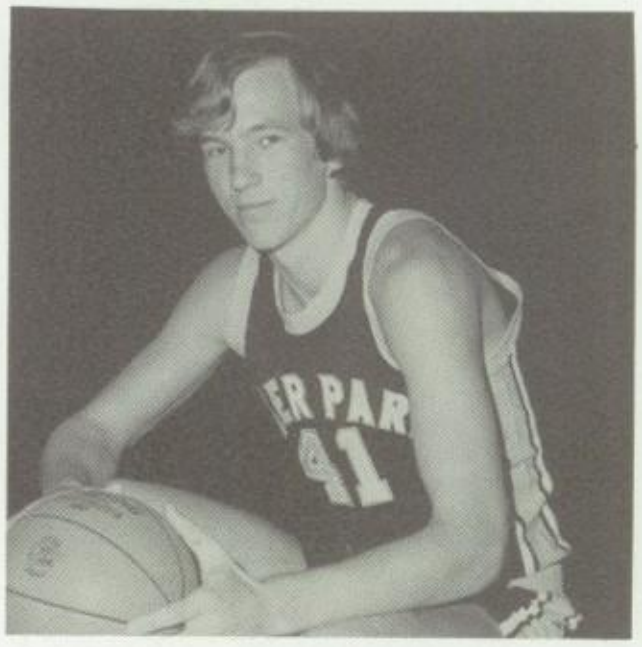
Faculty selects senior Lisa Horn

This year, three boys and one girl will attend Boys and Girls State. Representing the school are: Cindy Crisp, Mark Fenn, Travis O'Banion, and Frank Dishongh. Leadership, character, integrity, and scholarship determine the representatives. The purpose of the program is to educate youth on American citizenship.

Girls and Boys State are sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. Girls' State will be held from June 10-20 at Texas Lutheran College, Sequin, while Boys State will be held from June 11-17 at the University of Texas at Austin.

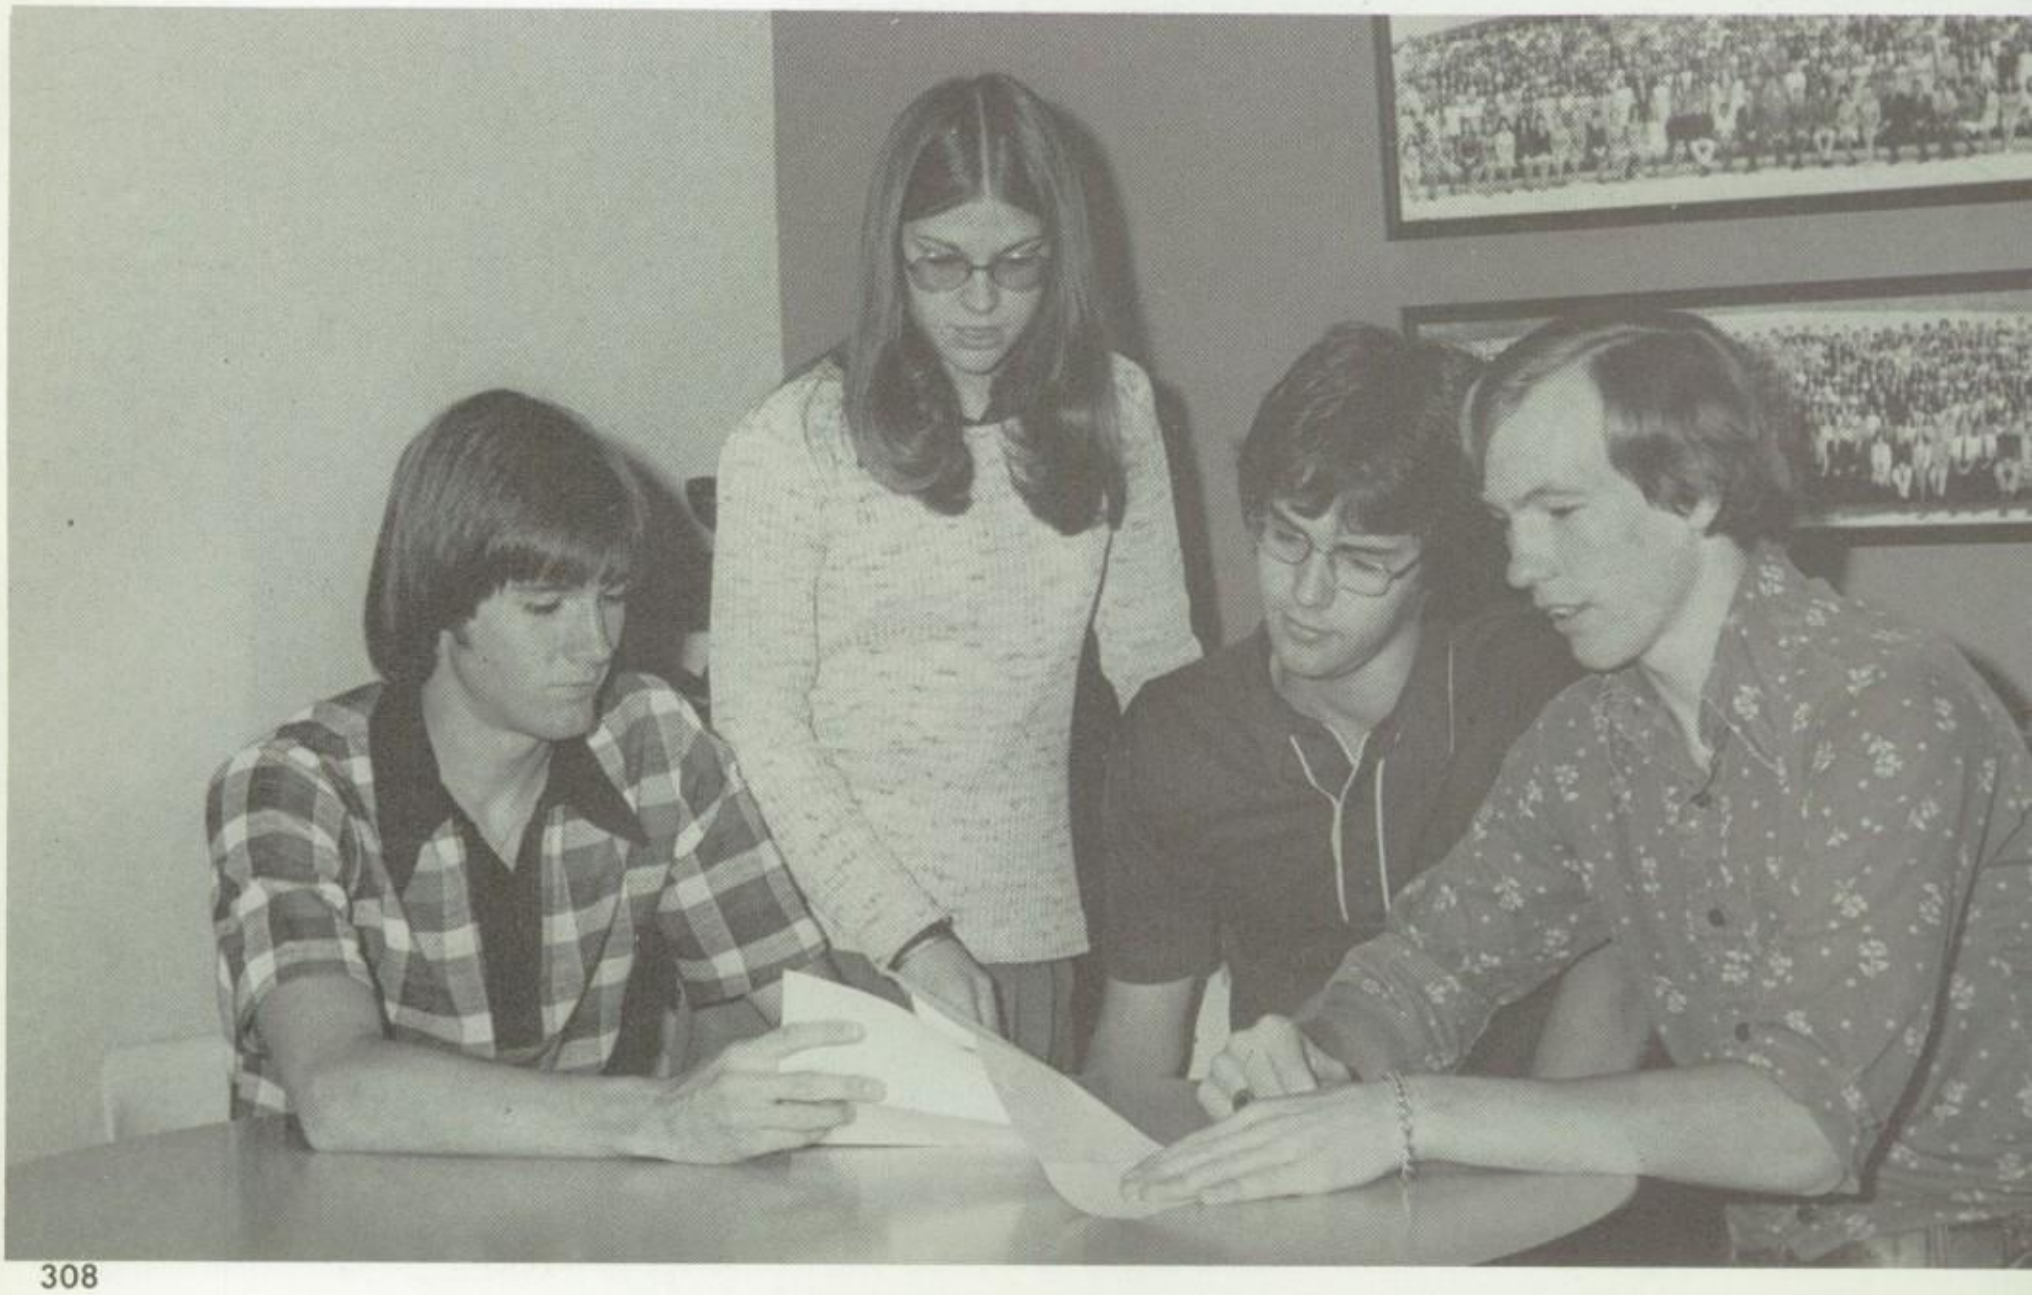


Cindy Crisp and Travis O'Banion study a college catalogue in the counselors' office.

Frank Dishongh participated as a guard in the winning season for the Deer.

Mark Fenn stands before the junior class to be recognized as a candidate for vice-president. Mark has been involved in Student Congress for two years.

Representing the school at Girls and Boys State are: juniors Cindy Crisp, Travis O'Banion, Mark Fenn, and Frank Dishongh.



Legion sponsors four delegates

Lisa Horn, Pam Leonard, and Valerie Brzovskis were nominated by the Student Congress for DAR Good Citizen. Selected by the faculty, Lisa Horn will be sponsored by the Ann Poage Chapter of the Daughters of American Revolution on the State Level.

Nomination for the DAR Good Citizen Award is based on good citizenship, dependability, service, leadership, and patriotism.

Lisa, Pam, and Valerie have been active during their high school years as cheerleaders. Lisa was named Most Beautiful, while Pam was named as a finalist, and Valerie was also presented in the contest.

Head cheerleader Lisa Horn leads the students in a cheer.

Valerie Brzovskis cheers, in the special Homecoming pep rally.

Pam Leonard watches cheerleader tryouts.

Valerie Brzovskis and Pam Leonard were nominated for DAR Good Citizen while Lisa Horn was selected by the faculty to represent the school.

Society receives Spanish initiates

On April 24, an initiation ceremony was held inducting members into the Spanish Honor Society. Officers for this year are: junior Glenn Dodson, president, sophomore Donna Moore, vice-president, and junior Robin Van Sickle, secretary.

President Glenn Dodson prepares the table for the initiation.

As a part of the ceremony, freshman Billy Dodson lights his candle.

Glenn Dodson and secretary Robin Van Sickle present sophomore Kathy Weiser with her patch and certificate.

Senior Greg Hayman and his family enjoy refreshments after the ceremony.

Coordinators unify system

In the traditional meeting of the Board of Trustees following the Trustee election in the fall, the members of the Board voted unanimously to keep the same slate of officers that had served the school district for the previous year. Mr. Herb Buchholz is in his second term as president. Serving with him is Mr. Joe Cathey as vice-president and Mr. Jesse Campbell as secretary.

Members of the Board are interested citizens that volunteer and give of their time to conduct the business of the school district through their united efforts.

Mr. James Ponder is assistant business manager.

Mr. W.D. Antone, Trustee, has served the district in all three Board offices.

Being sworn in after the fall Trustee election are new Board members Mr. Bill Handrick and Mr. Milton Stanley, with incumbents Mr. J.P. Bonnette, Jr., and Mr. Herb Buchholz.

Mr. Jim Kethan is supervisor of athletics and physical education.

In his first year as a Trustee, Mr. Handrick is briefed on curriculum objectives by Dr. Leon Wolters, director of secondary education.

After an educational seminar in December, Mr. Jesse Campbell and Mr. Stanley, Trustees, relax before the meeting.

Dr. Sebron Williams, in his seventh year as superintendent of schools, works closely with the Trustees as the top administrative advisor.

As assistant superintendent for instruction, Mr. Lee B. Gaither is another curriculum specialist for the district.

Serving as supervisor of special services, is Dr. Margaret W. Bigham.

Mr. Jim Daniel, supervisor of research, works with the Region IV computer program.

Mr. Charles Garrison assumes the responsibilities as the assistant superintendent of business.

In charge of the selection of all personnel for the district is Mr. James Risinger, assistant superintendent of administration and personnel.

Mr. Joe Cathey is Board vice-president.

Four principals solve split campus problems

Mr. David Watkins holds the principal's position for both campuses.
At the north campus, Mr. Doyle Fenn fulfills his duties as assistant principal.
assistant to Mr. Watkins at the south campus is Mr. Homer Powell.
Also at the north campus, Mr. Bobby Grisham acts as assistant principal.

MEN—WOMEN

Some of the best college students are veterans.

Let's face it. Not everyone wants to step right into college after high school.

Maybe you'd rather wait a few years. To travel, to learn a skill, to find out what you can do, to mature.

For you, today's Army can be a meaningful alternative to college.

We offer challenge. Physical and mental. We offer training in over 300 jobs you can try out for. We offer a choice of location. Stateside or abroad.

If you decide to start college while you're in, we'll pay 75% of your tuition. And when your enlistment's over, you'll be eligible for 36 months financial assistance at the college of your choice.

Whatever happened to readin' ritin' and 'rithmetic'?

Today our children don't speak our language.

We studied nouns and verbs, They study morphemes (Webster: the smallest meaningful linguistic units).

Math to us was adding and subtracting. Today kids study "sets" and "subsets." They even start geometry in the fifth grade. So when people say youth has a lot to learn, they're not kidding.

Shell is concerned with the problems of young people trying to get an education and teachers trying to update theirs.

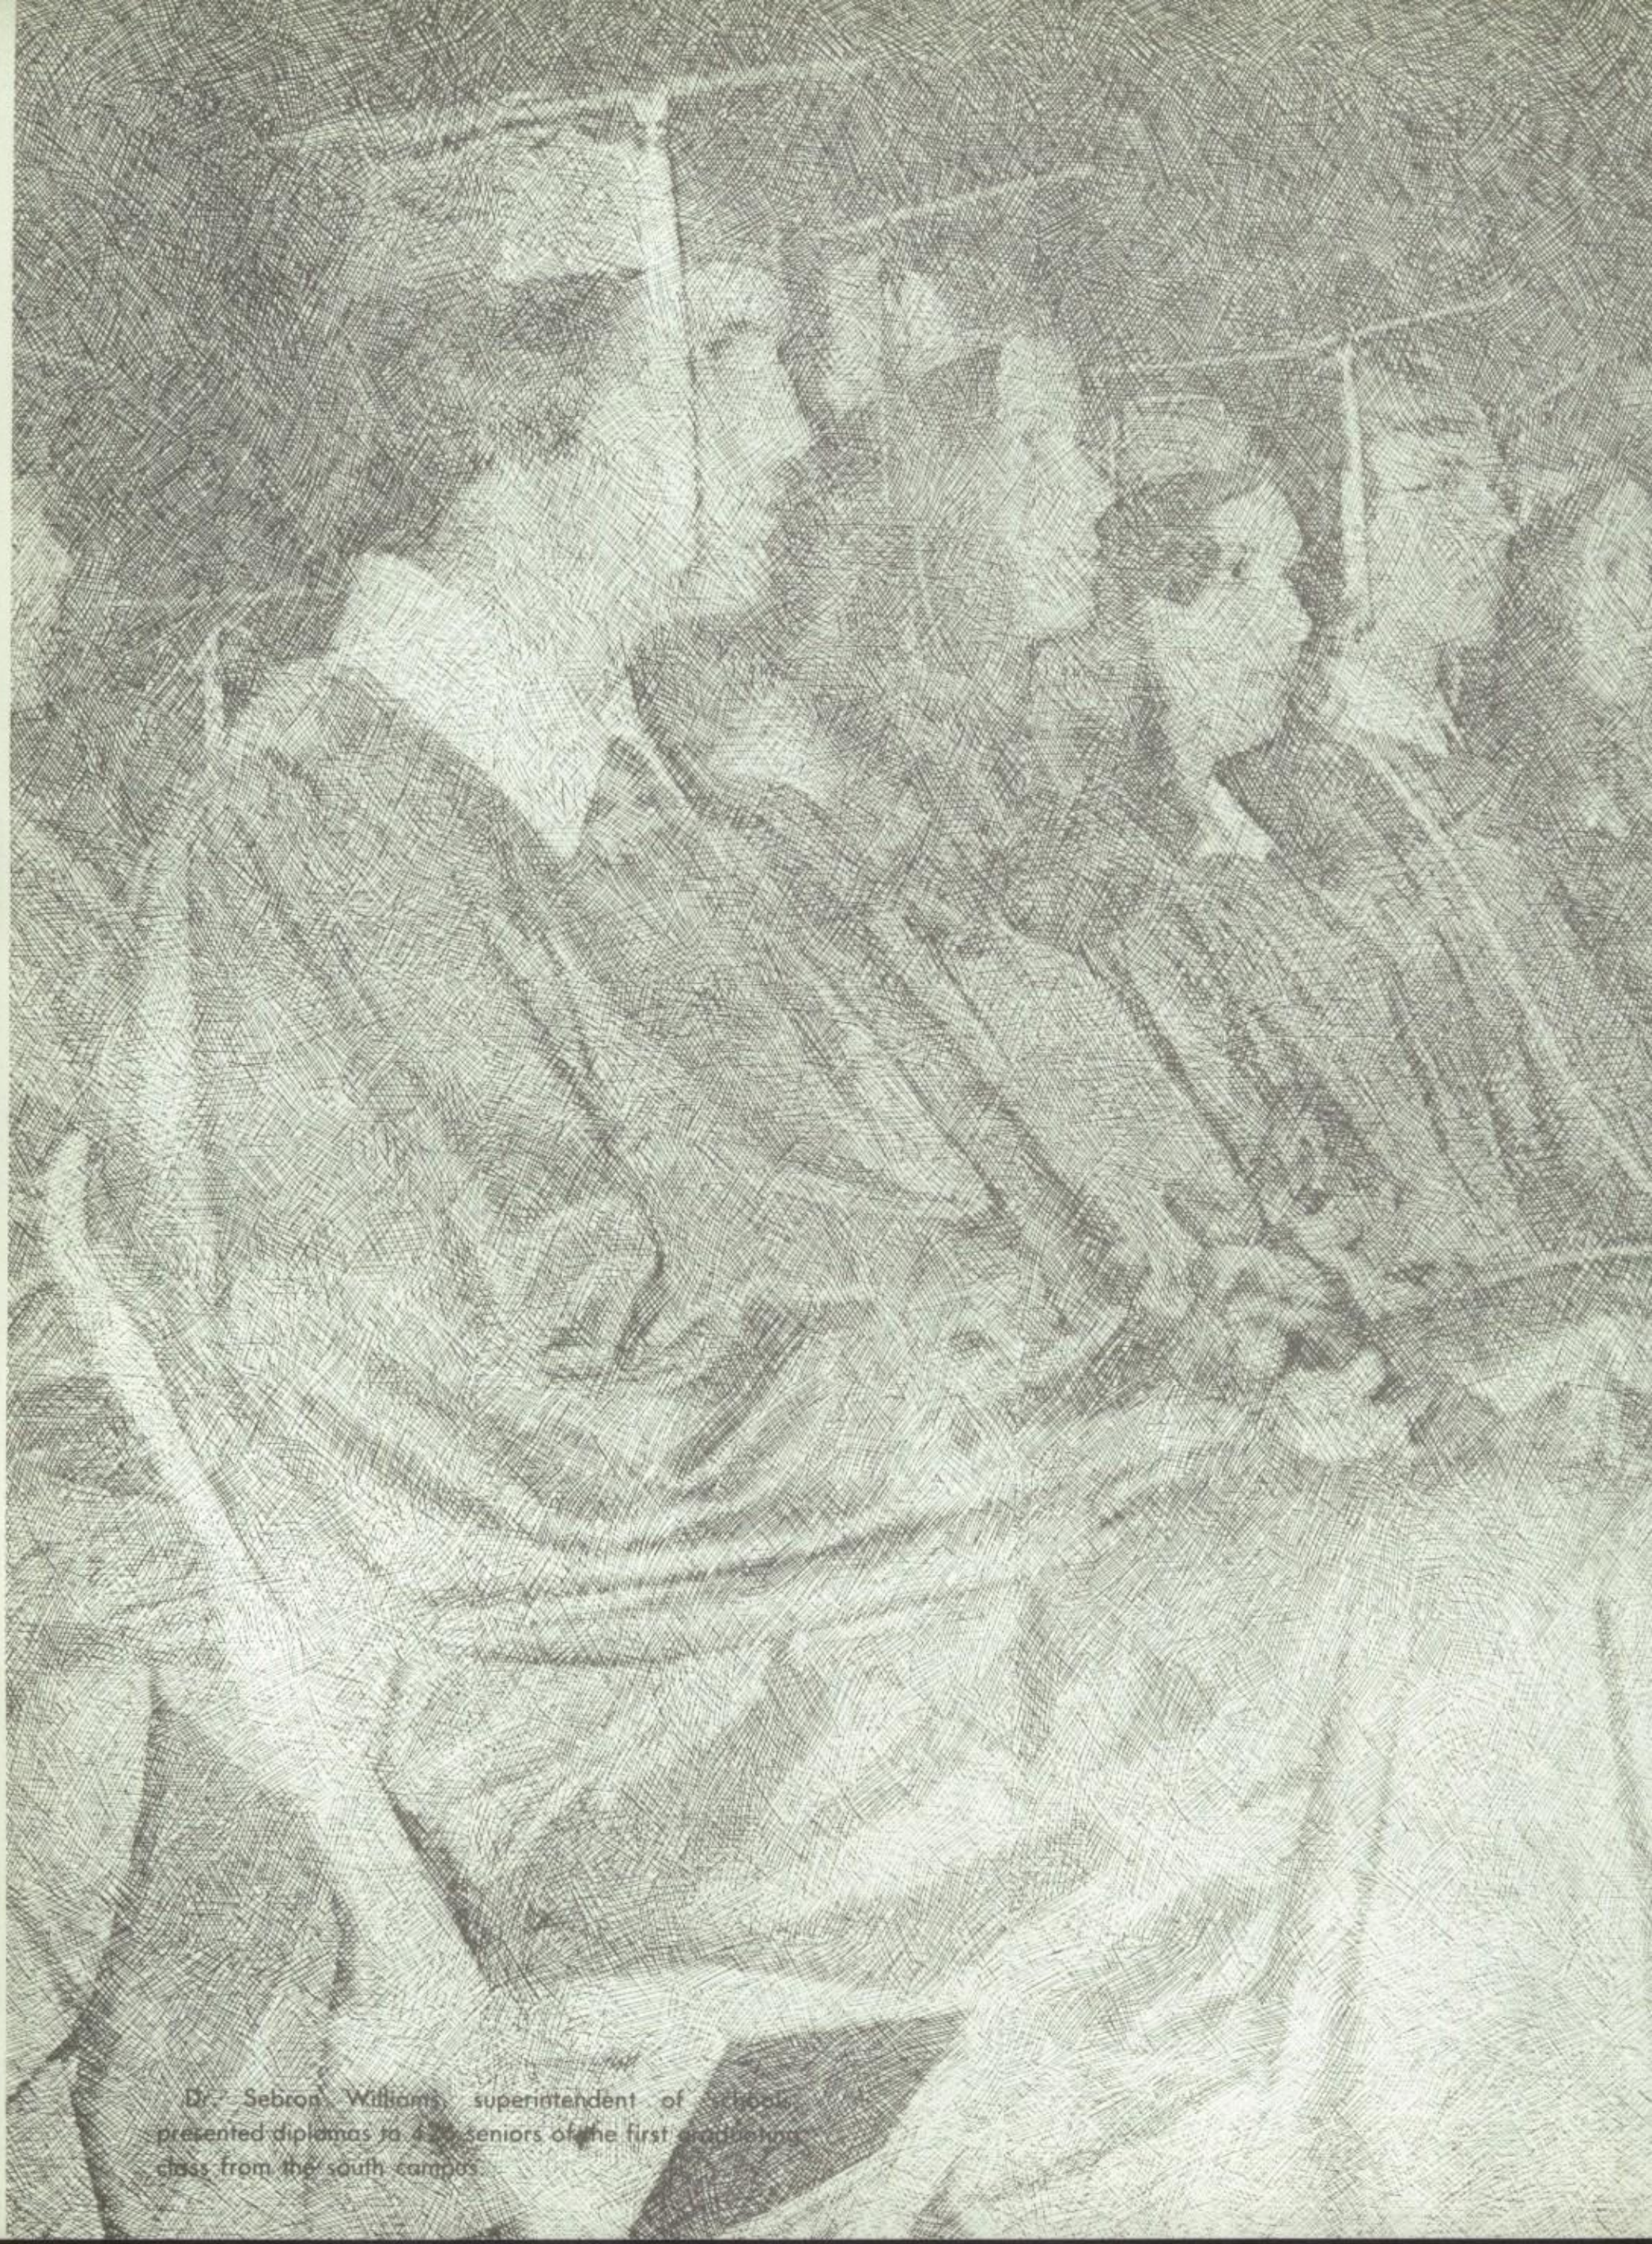
That's why there is a Shell Companies Foundation. Its programs include scholarships to encourage careers in precollege teaching. Plus general support to colleges and universities.

Our concern with education has been backed by over $23,000,000 in grants.

We figure students we help today will help others tomorrow.

When something newer replaces the new math and morphemes.

SHELL



Dr. Sebron Williams, superintendent of schools, presented diplomas to 4[illegible] seniors of the first graduating class from the south campus.

Students unite in participation

As the school year progressed, students participated in various activities as part of the academic, athletic, and organized programs.

Coach Paulette Lanier instructs and encourages her varsity volleyball team prior to the start of the first game.

As an active art student, Morris Andress, junior, adds finishing touches to a Hall of Fame figure.

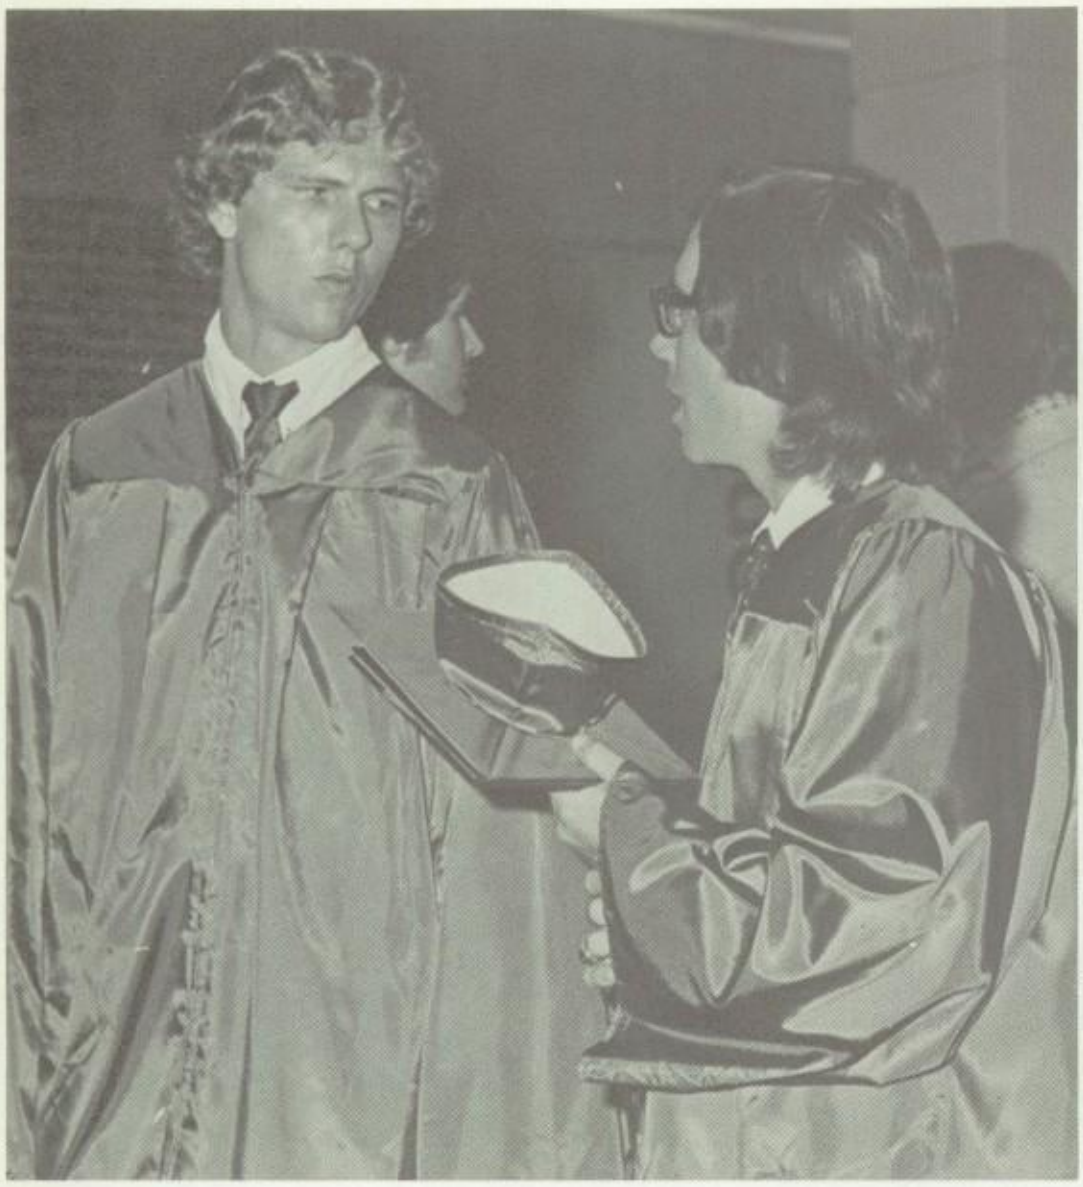
Steve Desporte and Brad Crawford practice the different types of bandages studied in the first aid unit in their sophomore health class.

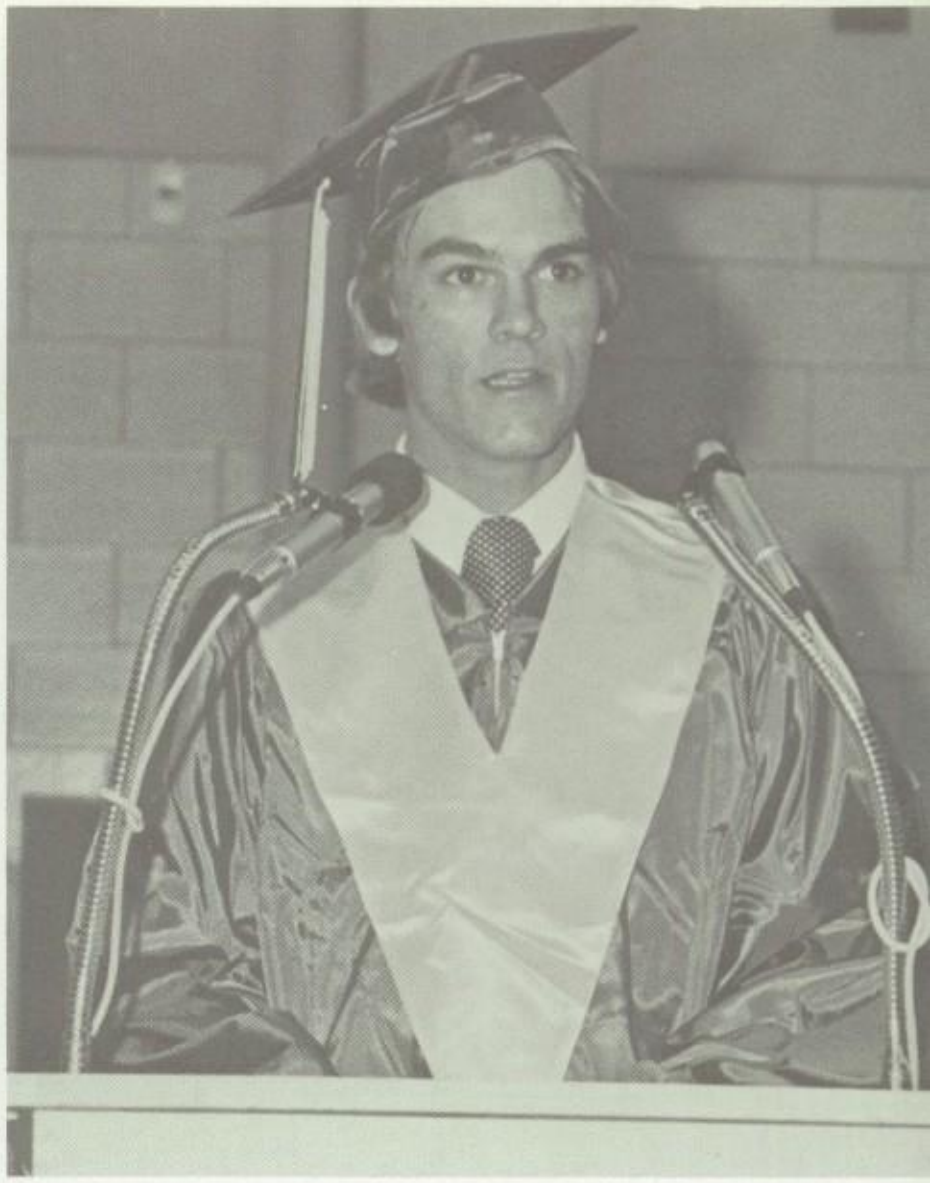
As part of a biology lab, sophomore Terry Pattison carefully measures chemicals for an experiment.

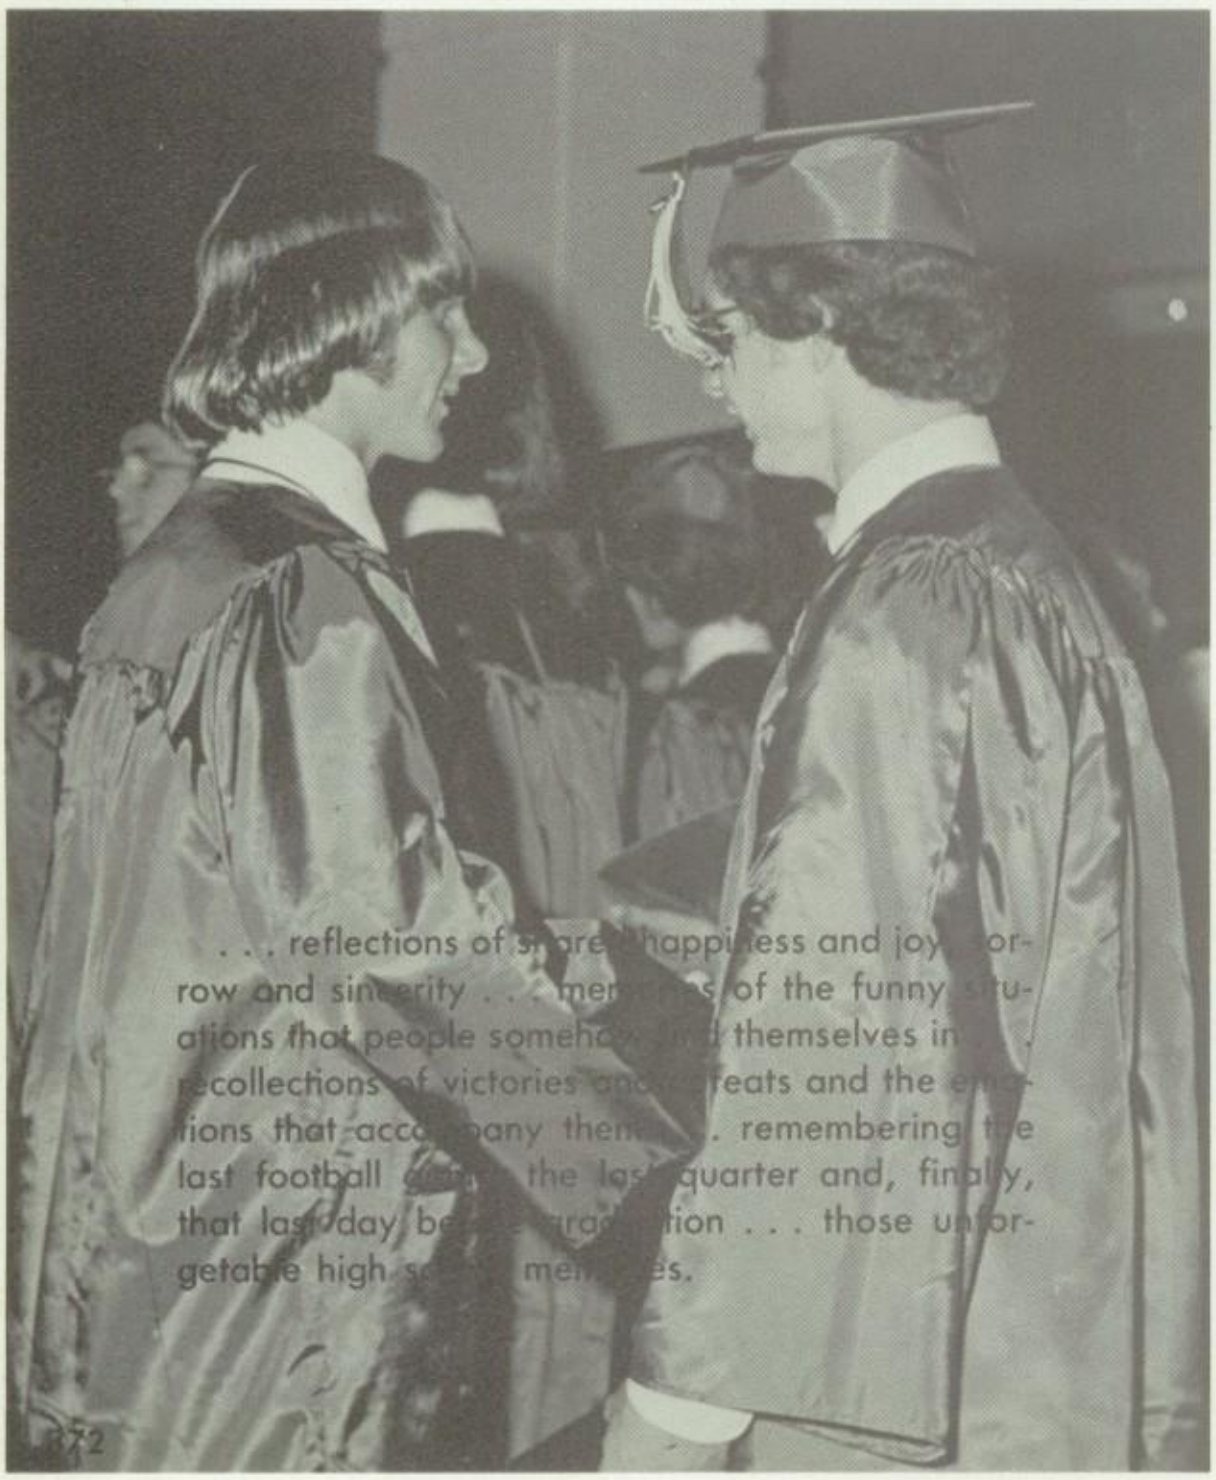
With the aid of an adding machine, senior Gloria Yampey works on her trig assignment, as Mrs. Alma Mabry assists her with a problem.

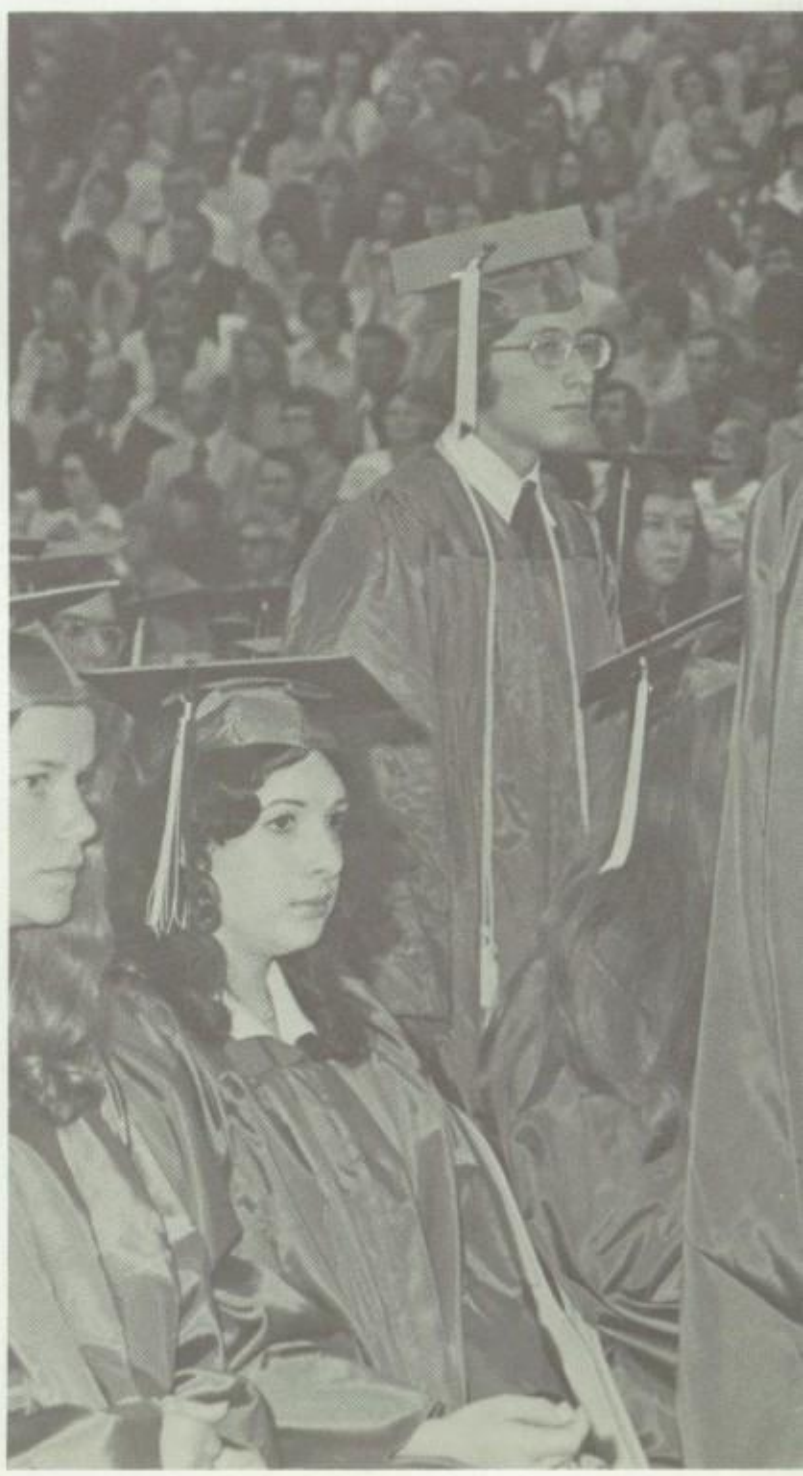
Unified efforts of the Deer Escorts are emphasized by the joining of hands during the annual initiation of officers.

Crystal Withrow applies make-up to Patrice Jordan as Cindy McCambridge assists as a member of the senior play crew.

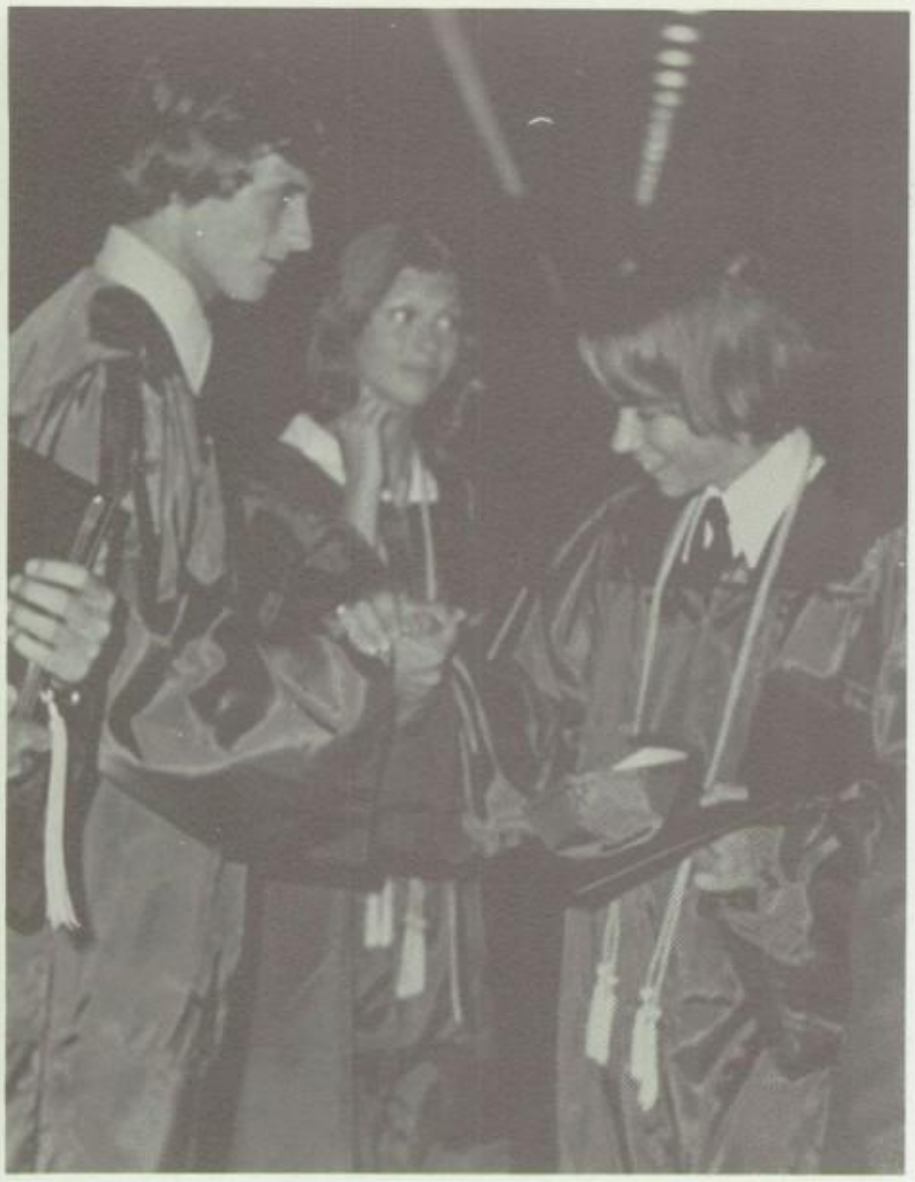








. . . reflections of shared happiness and joy . . . sorrow and sincerity . . . memories of the funny situations that people somehow find themselves in . . . recollections of victories and defeats and the emotions that accompany them . . . remembering the last football game . . . the last quarter and, finally, that last day before graduation . . . those unforgetable high school memories.



Life without friends is no life at all

Commencement exercises for the first graduating class of the south campus were May 29 in the Boys' Gym. Debi Milburn gave the salutatory address while Henry Krebs delivered the valedictory address.

In the mall after graduation, seniors Larry Long and Lanny Lohmann discuss their plans for the future.

In his valedictory address, senior Henry Krebs wishes his classmates success and presents to the audience of family and friends the attitude of caring that he felt the class of 1975 possessed.

Duane Walker and Rudy Stefancik bid each other goodbye and good luck.

Graduate Tim Cobb receives congratulations and good wishes for the future from Joe Mears following commencement.

During graduation exercises, seniors Robert Black and Wayne Baggett stand to be recognized as Magna Cum Laude students prior to the presentation of diplomas.

Saying goodbye to their high school days, graduates Sammy Quisenberry and Susan MacArthur recall happy memories in a congratulatory hug.
